Today members of the Hawaii Red Cross and Civil Defense give tips on how you can be prepared when a disaster strikes. They will talk about what you need to prepare a disaster kit containing food, water, medical supplies and other essentials to last two weeks. Also they will discuss disaster apps for your phone which will allow you to keep updated to matters in your area.

Program: Feeding Hawaii Together

Topic: Helping Feed Hawaii's Hungry/Closing of Feeding Hawaii Together

Date: 10/24, 10/27, 10/31, 11/3/2016

Time: 11:30 a.m., 7:00 p.m.

Duration: 30 minutes

We will say goodbye to Feeding Hawaii Together, a Kaka’ako based organization which helps feed Hawaii’s hungry. Executive Director of Feeding HawaiiTogether.org, Charlie Lorenz explains that Feeding Hawaii Together lost its building lease in Kaka’ako and they have nowhere to move to. This organization works in the community and how people can become involved in this worthy cause of feeding the hungry in Hawaii.

Feeding Hawaii Together has been feeding the needy for 18 years in Kakaako — and has been in its current, 19,000-square-foot location on Keawe Street for the last 15 years.

If Feeding Hawaii Together closes Dec. 1, as planned, Chilson said, “it’ll be very painful.”

and becoming involved in community projects.

Program: Community Matters

Topic: Annual Honolulu Marathon

Date: 12/12, 12/15, 12/19, 12/22/2016

Time: 11:30 a.m., 7:00 p.m.

Duration: 28:30

The first race was held in 1973 and an average of about 25,000 runners finish the Honolulu Marathon each year, and it has consistently placed among the world’s ten largest marathons in terms of total finishers.

Entry to the Honolulu Marathon is open to everybody. Unlike other marathons of similar size, popularity, and stature, there are no qualifying standards to meet, no fixed limits on the number of runners, and no time limit to finish the course (all runners receive an official time and certificate).

Marathon Course: 26 miles, 385 yards or 42.195 kilometers.

The Honolulu Marathon's scenic course includes spectacular ocean views alongside world-famous Waikiki Beach, and Diamond Head and Koko Head volcanic craters.

The terrain is level except for short uphill grades around Diamond Head.

Program: Community Matters

Subject: 75th Anniversary of Pearl Harbor Attack

Date: 12/26, 12/29/2016

Time: 11:30 a.m., 7:00 p.m.

Duration: 28:30

The 75th anniversary of the attack on Pearl Harbor is an opportunity to honor the sacrifice and dedication of our "Greatest Generation" both civilian and military, the endured incredible sacrifices on December 7, 1941, the "date which will live in infamy." It would thrust America into World War II, changing Hawaii and America forever and continues to define their place in the world. The events of that date triggered our resolve as a nation, our can-do attitude and resourcefulness and an unmatched commitment to the defense of freedom.

We will take a look at the week-long events happening at Pearl Harbor and around Honolulu honoring those who served and those who gave the greatest sacrifice of all.
