

KKAI ISSUES PROGRAMS

4th Quarter 2014

Program: Hawaii Matters

Topic: Approval of Wind Farm on North Shore

Aired: 11/29, 11/30, 12/1/2014

Time: 10:00 p.m., 8:00 a.m.

Duration: 28:30

The Hawaii Public Utilities Commission said it has approved a 20-year power purchase agreement between Hawaiian Electric Co. and Champlin for the 24-megawatt wind farm, to be located near First Wind's 30-megawatt Kahuku Wind farm. Champlin President Michael Cutbirth says that once the wind farm is operating, it could cut HECO's per-kilowatt hour cost of electricity by half compared to current rates. Is this a good thing for Hawaii or is it destroying the beauty of the North Shore?

Program: Feeding Hawaii Together

Topic: Helping Feed Hawaii's Hungry

Date: 10/6, 10/13/2014

Time: 10:00 a.m., 1:30 p.m.

Duration: 15 minutes

This is an inside look at Feeding Hawaii Together, a Kaka'ako based organization which helps feed Hawaii's hungry. Executive Director of FeedingHawaiiTogether.org, Charlie Lorenz explains the way the organization works in the community and how people can become involved in this worthy cause of feeding the hungry in Hawaii.

Program: Inside Teen Suicide

Topic: Teen Suicide

Date: 10/11/2014

Time: 4:30 p.m.

Duration: 58:30

This show takes a look at a growing problem today, teen suicide. Specialists, Dr. Stan Kucher, Marv Penner and Christy Buck examine what makes a teenager want to take their life. They will explain the many contributing factors to a state of depression that leads one to taking their own life, such as clinical depression, bullying, media contributions. We will learn what signs to look for in a teen suffering from depression and how to treat them through proper help.

Program: Hawaii Matters
Topic: Juvenile Justice
Aired: 10/4, 10/11 /2014
Time: 12:00 p.m.
Duration: 30 minutes

Governor Neil Abercrombie, Chief Justice Mark Reckewald, Senator Donna Mercado Kim and Representative Mele Carroll announced the launch of a new effort to increase public safety and hold juvenile offenders accountable for their actions, while reducing costs to Hawaii taxpayers. Despite this substantial cost, the majority of juvenile offenders that exit the state's correctional facilities, commit a crime and return within three years.

Program: Maka'I Hawaii
Topic: Hawaiian Carver-Artist Dean Kahanui
Aired: 10/25, 10/28/2014
Time: 2:00 p.m., 9:00 p.m.
Duration: 28:30

On today's show, Host Jessie Bright interviews Big Island wood carver and artist Dean Kahanui about how he became inspired to pursue his craft as a Hawaiian artist. Dean will show us many of his creations from nose flutes to replicas of ancient Hawaiian fighting weapons.

Program: Girl Scouts
Topic: A Look at Girl Scout Troop 2028
Date: 11/30, 12/2/14
Time: 8:30 a.m.
Duration: 20 minutes

Girl Scout Troop 2028 from Kailua-Kona Talks about their Christmas project, where they send Christmas gift boxes to U.S. military soldiers serving in Afghanistan. This year they are sending over 300 boxes, as compared to the 225 boxes they sent last year. They also talk about how girls can join Girl Scouts and how Girl scouts helps build self confidence while becoming involved in community projects and helping others.

Program: Hawaii Matters

Subject: Kona Ironman

Aired: 12/20, 12/27, 11/30, 12/2/2014

Time: 1:00 p.m., 8:30 a.m., 11:00 a.m., 9:00 a.m.

Duration: 25:00

Today's show takes a look at the preparation leading up to the world's most popular triathlon, the Kona Ironman Triathlon. This is a behind the scenes view of what goes into putting on the Kona Ironman Triathlon and how the residents of Kailua-Kona prepare for this event.

Program: Hawaii Matters

Topic: Vision of Education in Hawaii

Date: 11/2, 11/6, 11/11, 11/15/14

Time: 9:00 a.m.

Duration: 50 minutes

A community discussion was held at Kealahou High school in Kailua-Kona, featuring University of Hawaii President, David Lassiter and Vice President of Community Colleges, John Morton. The two representatives of the UH system gave their input as to the vision for higher education in the state of Hawaii.

This discussion focuses in on making education more accessible to Hawaii residents by offering on-line courses to help with fitting into a students busy schedule.

Program: Hawaii Matters

Topic: Approval of Wind Farm on North Shore

Aired: 11/29, 11/30, 12/1/2014

Time: 10:00 p.m., 8:00 a.m.

Duration: 28:30

The Hawaii Public Utilities Commission said it has approved a 20-year power purchase agreement between Hawaiian Electric Co. and Champlin for the 24-megawatt wind farm, to be located near First Wind's 30-megawatt Kahuku Wind farm. Champlin President Michael Cutbirth says that once the wind farm is operating, it could cut HECO's per-kilowatt hour cost of electricity by half compared to current rates. Is this a good thing for Hawaii or is it destroying the beauty of the North Shore?

Program: Hawaii Matters

Subject: King Street Bike Lane

Date: 11/1, 11/8/2014

Time: 8:00 a.m.

Duration: 28:30

Today's show takes a look at the opening of the designated bike lane on King Street. How will this impact safety on an already busy street. Could there have been a better choice for a street to be used for bike traffic?

Program: Maka'I Hawaii

Subject: Hawaiian Net Fishing/ Hawaiian Stories

Date: 12/1, 12/4, 12/6/2014

Time: 3:00 p.m., 10:30 p.m.

Duration: 28:30

Host Jessie Bright is joined by today's guest Justin Asing. Justin is a local Hawaiian net fisherman. Today he will show us the art of net fishing. From the proper way to fold and hold the net to the throwing of the net to get the most coverage in the water.

We will share with the keiki Hawaiian stories told in the Hawaiian language.

Program: Daytime

Subject: Salvation Army

Date: 12/3/2014

Time: 9:00 a.m.

Duration: 28:30

Today on Daytime, we welcome volunteers from the Salvation Army to talk about helping those in need during the holiday season and throughout the year. We will look at the many programs the Salvation Army has to help people with food, clothing, furniture and temporary housing as well as job training programs.