

Issues & Topics covered on

Well Said Show

Hosted by Ira Nash M.D.

Engineered by WRHU General Manager John Mullen

Public Affairs Show

Jan 1, 2023 – March 31, 2023

This is a public service program to inform and educate the community about important health and wellness topics.

MAR 27, 2023

Lower Back Pain

Well Said has invited Dr. Frank Schwab, Chair of the Department of Orthopedic Surgery at Lenox Hill Hospital, Vice President of Western Region Orthopedics, System Chief of Orthopedic Spine Surgery and Professor of orthopedic surgery at the Zucker School of Medicine to talk about the nuances of Lower Back Pain including its causes and what we can do to find relief.

MAR 27, 2023

Percutaneous Coronary Interventions

Well Said has invited Dr. Varinder Singh, Chairman of the Department of Cardiology at Lenox Hill Hospital, the SVP for Cardiology for the Western region for Northwell Health, and an associate professor at the Zucker School of Medicine to talk about the current state of the art techniques in treating coronary artery disease.

MAR 3, 2023

Childhood Asthma

Well Said has invited Dr. Maria Santiago, Chief of Pediatric Pulmonology at Cohen Children's Medical Center of Northwell Health, and an Assistant Professor of Pediatrics at the Zucker School of Medicine at Hofstra Northwell to talk about how childhood asthma has become a serious and growing problem that has far-reaching implications for kids' health, well-being and normal development.

FEB 21, 2023

Menopause

Well Said has invited Dr. Wendy Fried, Attending Physician OBGYN at North Shore University Hospital/Northwell. Northwell Physician Partners in OBGYN at New Hyde Park and Assistant Professor at the Zucker School of Medicine to discuss the ins and outs of Menopause – including the medical implications and the myths and stigmas associated with it.

FEB 6, 2023

Patient Blood Management

Well Said has brought on Dr. Linda Shore-Lesserson, Professor of Anesthesiology at the Zucker SOM and the Director of Cardiovascular Anesthesiology at Northwell and Dr. Sherry Shariatmadar, Associate Professor of Pathology at the Zucker SOM and Director of Transfusion Medicine and Apheresis Services at NSUH. Our guests will be talking about the advantages and impact of minimizing the use of blood transfusions and conserving the patient's own blood.

FEB 6, 2023

Drug Pricing Policy

Well Said has invited Andrew McKechnie, health care policy advisor and government lobbyist for Northwell Health to take a more specific look at how government policy and action influences drug prices.

JAN 23, 2023

Alzheimer's Drugs

Well Said has invited Dr. Luca Giliberto, an Attending Neurologist at the Institute for Neurology and Neurosurgery at Northwell Health and an Assistant Professor at Feinstein Institutes for Medical Research as well as at the Zucker School of Medicine to discuss the current advancements in treating Alzheimer's disease including new drugs, their effectiveness and the safety of using them.

JAN 18, 2023

Spark of Creativity – An Exploration of Visual Art and Epilepsy

Well Said has invited Dr. Simona Proteasa, an academic neurologist specialized in epilepsy; Daniel Hopper, a photographer and person with epilepsy; as well as Patrick Tierney and Justin Esposito, fourth year medical students and organizers of the upcoming “Spark of Creativity - An exploration of visual art and epilepsy” event. Our panel will be discussing how patients use art to express and cope with their illness experience and how seizures themselves can be the driving force behind artistic creation. To view the photographs discussed in this episode please see the work of Daniel Hopper at the below link: <http://www.dhopperphotography.com/seize>

JAN 10, 2023

What’s new in Heart Surgery?

Well Said has invited Dr. William Shi, a Cardiovascular Surgeon and Assistant Professor of Surgery at the Zucker School of Medicine to help us dive deeper into the field of cardiovascular surgery, to learn more about minimally invasive, endovascular, and other new frontiers in the field.

JAN 3, 2023

Lung Cancer Screening

Well Said has invited Dr. Stuart Cohen, Cardiothoracic Radiologist at Northwell Health, Director of Research of the Northwell Lung Institute and Associate Professor at the Zucker School of Medicine at Hofstra/Northwell to the advancements, guidelines and importance of lung cancer screening.