4TH QUARTER 2014

REPRESENTATIVE WEEKS:

NOVEMBER: 10 - 16

DECEMBER: 08 - 14

PROGRAM TITLE: WAKE UP WITH THE WAGNERS 6AM

TYPE: NEWS / LIVE INTERVIEW

LENGTH: 1:10

DATE OF BROADCAST: 11/10/14

STORY DESCRIPTION:

WE'RE BRINGING YOU THE MOST PRESSING ISSUES WHEN IT COMES TO MONEY MATTERS. AND TODAY WE FOCUS ON ONE ISSUE... HOW'S THE U.S. ECONOMY REALLY DOING? FROM NEW YORK HERE'S C-N-N'S MARIBEL ABER. How's the U.S. economy doing?

If you're a glass half-full type, it's easy to point to the fact that the economy is expanding again and unemployment is at a six year low. Gas is back under $3 a gallon, the stock market is at an all-time high and this year's job gains are on track to be the best since 1999.

America is certainly better off than it was during the financial crisis, and the nation looks a lot stronger economically than Japan and Europe.

America has added 2.3 million jobs in 2014

But there's a glass half-empty side of this economy, too.

Wages aren't rising for most Americans. A middle class family is actually bringing home the same income as it did in 1995, and millions of people want full-time jobs but are stuck in part-time positions.

There's no denying the rich are getting richer and the rest are stagnating.

The fact is there is truth in both sides -- the result of a slow-burn recovery from the worst financial crisis in generations.

Why voters hate the Obama economy

Here are the three key stats to that drive home America's dual economy:

1. Lucky to be employed.

On Friday the government reported another strong month of job gains. The unemployment rate is 5.8%, not far from what most economists think is typical rate of around 5% when the economy is humming along.

But the improving number masks the fact that the U.S. has 2.9 million people who have been out of work for half a year or more. That's double the number of long-term unemployed than before the recession. Even more troubling is that the U.S. has over 7 million people who are working part-time but want full-time employment.

2. Wages aren't growing.

Americans are spenders. We like to buy things and that powers our economy. But people can't make purchases if they don't have money. That's why it's so worrying that U.S. wages aren't getting any bigger.

Wages today are about the same as they were just before the recession.

In the past year, wages went up about 2%, but that is just ahead of how fast costs have been rising so the gains are basically canceled out.

The complete list of companies that are open and closed on Thanksgiving

3. More gains went to Wall Street than Main Street.

The one area that has bounced back since the end of the recession is the stock market. It bottomed out in March 2009 and has been on an incredible tear ever since.

The S&P 500 -- the benchmark index that has a lot of funds that mimic or track it -- is up nearly 200% since that 2009 low point.

But the catch is that only half of Americans have any money in the stock market. So all those gains have only exacerbated the "have versus have not" economy.

Wealthy whites are the most likely to own stocks. And since the rich own more stocks, they benefited more

STORY DESCRIPTION: WE'RE BRINGING YOU THE MOST PRESSING ISSUES WHEN IT COMES TO MONEY MATTERS. FROM NEW YORK HERE'S C-N-N'S MARIBEL ABER. An industry-wide slowdown in television advertising sales is even affecting the biggest ad stage of them all: the Super Bowl.

But don't feel too bad for NBC, the broadcaster of this winter's big game. The network is charging $4.5 million for a 30-second commercial during the game, a sharp uptick from the roughly $4 million that Fox charged last season.

Even at that price point, the network has found plenty of buyers: nearly 90% of the spots have already been taken, according to Seth Winter, the executive vice president who is overseeing the ad sales.

In a round of interviews this week, Winter said NBC could be fully sold out by the end of December. The Super Bowl will be played in Arizona on February 1.

So what's the catch? Well, as Winter said to USA Today, "we are not impervious to general market trends."

Lately there's been ad weakness across the board, and it's been affecting both broadcast and cable channels. Instead of the typical (slight) year-over-year increases in spending by advertisers, slight decreases were reported by most major media companies in the third quarter -- about half a percentage point overall, according to Michael Nathanson of the research firm MoffettNathanson.

Companies are waiting until closer to air to buy ad time - or, as Winter put it, "seeking extraordinary flexibility in how they manage their budgets."

That's not necessarily a bad thing -- NBC might be able to charge a premium, above the $4.5 million mark, if an advertiser asks for an almost-last-minute Super Bowl spot.

But at the moment, the fact that there are still some spots available is a symbol of the slowdown that NBC and all its rivals are experiencing.

Earlier this week Nathanson called national ad trends "bleak" and "a sign of more trouble ahead."

NBC's Winter told USA Today, "We all understand the market this fourth quarter is slower and less healthy for broadcast and cable TV."

For comparison's sake, Fox had sold 95% of its available Super Bowl ad time by September of last year. Now it's November, and NBC is "approaching 90%," Winter told The New York Times.

STORY DESCRIPTION:

WE'RE BRINGING YOU THE MOST PRESSING ISSUES WHEN IT COMES TO MONEY MATTERS.
FROM NEW YORK HERE'S C-N-N'S MARIBEL ABER.
America is obsessed with being No. 1. It dominates in military power, economic prosperity, high technology, even movie blockbusters. Recently, its glorious résumé was freshened up with yet another impressive credential:
The world's most benevolent country of 2014, a title it shares with Myanmar.

As the Charities Aid Foundation reported in this year's World Giving Index, the U.S. was the only nation to rank in the top 10 for each of the three charitable giving behaviors that are measured. It leads in "helping strangers," jointly ranks fifth with three other countries in "volunteering time" and places ninth in "donating money."

Just how generous are Americans? According to the National Philanthropic Trust, 95.4 percent of households donate to charities, with each contributing an annual average of $2,974. In 2013 alone, Americans gave more than $335 billion, 72 percent of which came directly from individuals. Of course, being charitable isn't all about donating money to the needy. Earlier this year, the Bureau of Labor Statistics reported that nearly 63 million people volunteered with an organization at least once between September 2012 and September 2013.

In the spirit of inspiring more Americans to increase their charitable giving this holiday season, WalletHub aimed the spotlight at the most generous of the 50 states. We analyzed a total of eight key metrics, among which are volunteer rate, the percentage of the population who donated time and money, and the median contribution to charity.

STORY DESCRIPTION: KICKING OFF BIG DEAL OR NO BIG DEAL IS THE STORY OF A SCHOOL DISTRICT STRIPPING
RELIGIOUS HOLIDAYS FROM THEIR SCHOOL
CALENDAR. A SCHOOL DISTRICT IN BALTIMORE,
MARYLANDS, VOTED TO BAN ALL RELIGIOUS HOLIDAYS FROM TEH SCHOOL CALENDAR.
THE MOVE CAME AFTER MUSLIM FAMILIES IN THE AREA ASKED THE SCHOOL BOARD TO INCLUDE
THEIR HOLIDAY WITH THE CHRISTIAN AND JEWISH ONES.
INSTEAD, THE BOARD DECIDED TO REPLACE
RELIGIOUS HOLIDAYS WITH RELIGION-NEUTRAL
TITLES LIKE "WINTER BREAK."

The Montgomery County Board of Education on Tuesday voted to strip the names of Christian and Jewish holidays from its school calendar amid complaints from the parents of Muslim children seeking recognition for Islamic holidays.

The schools still will be closed on the holidays, but the board voted 7-1 to move the religious references from the calendar.

The surprise development came after Muslim community leaders complained that the Eid al-Adha holiday was not getting equal recognition on next year's school calendar as the Jewish holiday of Yom Kippur, which both will fall on Sept. 23.

Superintendent Joshua P. Starr recommended that the board adopt a plan that removed calendar references to Yom Kippur and another Jewish holiday, Rosh Hashanah.

But while considering the superintendent's suggestion during a meeting Tuesday, school board member Rebecca Smondrowski introduced a motion to remove references to all religious holidays.

"It is about equity," Ms. Smondrowski told MyMCMedia. "I made the motion because if we are closing for operational reasons, then there should be no need to make reference to religion. That is the most equitable solution that I could see while recognizing that we need to be seriously addressing the criteria for how these things are decided in the future."

The board's decision will apply only to the 2015-2016 school year and won't affect references to federal holidays, schools spokeswoman Gboyinde Onijala said.

"Any federal or state holiday will remain as it has on our calendar," Ms. Onijala said. "This is specifically for religious holidays."

Muslim parents, partnering with the Maryland chapter of the Council on American Islamic Relations, last year unsuccessfully petitioned the school system to cancel classes on the Islamic holidays of Eid al-Fitr, which marks the end of a month of fasting during Ramadan, and Eid al-Adha, the last day of Hajj.

Officials declined to close the system's roughly 200 schools on the holidays, noting that the absentee rate was not high enough on those holidays to warrant the closure.

The school system said it does offer excused absences for students on religious holidays that fall on school days and makes teachers aware of numerous holidays so they are able to plan tests and other activities around them.

County officials insist that they look at the issue not as a religious one, but as a secular one, noting that closures are approved for days on which a large number of students or teachers would be affected.

They pointed out that the Rosh Hashanah and Yom Kippur closures were not meant to honor the faith but were imposed because of the high number of students who were not attending classes.

"The decision to close on these days — originally made in the 1970s — has been based on the experience of significant student and staff absenteeism impacting the school system's ability to continue an instructional program and operate safe schools," Mr. Starr wrote in a letter sent to the school board ahead of its vote.

Despite a growing Muslim population in the county, Mr. Starr said, the schools have not seen a similarly high rate of absenteeism among the system's 154,000 students on the Islamic religious holidays.

It's unclear how much of the school system's student population is Muslim, but The Gazette in Montgomery County reported last year that 5.6 percent of students and 5 percent of teachers were absent on Eid al-Adha last year. The figure compared with about 3.2 percent of students and 4.2 percent of teachers the same day the previous week.

The issue of closing schools to honor religious holidays has heated up across the country in recent years as school systems acknowledge demographic shifts that have resulted in more diverse student bodies.

Dearborn, Michigan, with a Muslim population in its school system reportedly as high as 60 percent, has recognized Islamic holy days for more than a decade.

School systems in Massachusetts and Vermont in recent years also have approved school closures for the Muslim holidays.

During last year's mayoral election in New York City, candidates expressed support for a measure to shut down the public school system on the Muslim holidays.

It's likely the issue comes up again in Montgomery County as school board members may revisit the decision again before adopting school year calendars.

"They felt the conversation was ongoing and there was still a lot to discuss," Ms. Onijala said.

TIME MAGAZINE IS FACING SOME BACKLASH. EVERY YEAR THE MAGAZINE COMES UP WITH A LIST OF WORDS THAT SHOULD GO AWAY. THIS YEAR...FEMINIST MADE THE LIST. YOU'RE LOOKING AT A MAGAZINE COVER FROM 1998 WHEN TIME PUBLISHED AN ARTICLE QUESTIONING WHETHER FEMINISM WAS DEAD.

THAT GENERATING A LOT OF CONTROVERSY. YOU'RE LOOKING AT A MAGAZINE COVER FROM 1998 WHEN TIME PUBLISHED AN ARTICLE QUESTIONING WHETHER FEMINISM WAS DEAD. THAT GENERATING A LOT OF CONTROVERSY. NOW, MORE THAN 20 YEARS LATER...THE MAGAZINE HAS PEOPLE TALKING AGAIN SAYING THE WORD FEMINIST SHOULD BE BANNED. IN CASE, YOU WERE WONDERING THAT'S A PICTURE OF BEYONCE DURING HER 2014 MTV VIDEO MUSIC AWARDS PERFORMANCE. SO HERE'S THE MAGAZINE'S EXPLANATION...IT SAYS -QUOTE- "YOU HAVE NOTHING AGAINST FEMINISM ITSELF...BUT WHEN DID IT BECOME A THING THAT EVERY CELEBRITY HAD TO STATE THEIR POSITION ON WHETHER THIS WORD APPLIES TO THEM....LIKE SOME POLITICIAN DECLARING A PARTY. LET'S STICK TO THE ISSUES AND QUITE THROWING THIS LABEL AROUND LIKE TICKER TAPE AT A SUSAN B. ANTHONY PARADE." SO BIG DEAL OR NO BIG DEAL?

WATCH WORDS OF 2014

Twerk:no explanation needed

Bae: Yes, this term of endearment has been around for years, but suddenly it's everywhere. You can't turn around without encountering someone's bae or some bae meal or some bae bae. The cool factor is being smothered. It's time to start using something Chick-Fil-A managers have never heard of.

Bossy: You are leaning in all over the place. If Sheryl wants a word banned, then we best get banning.

I can't even: ... finish a sentence, apparently. Nobody is this speechless.

Kale: You haven't been so tired of having a single thing talked about and trumpeted and pushed in your face since people started signing up for Twitter. You even saw kids selling dried kale chips on the street the other day instead of running a lemonade stand. Kale chips, people! This is America!

Obvi: You hate this particular unnecessary, cloying word-shortening about as much as you hate perf, whatevs, adorbs, natch, totes and amaze (when used in place of amazing). If truncation is cool, then you'd like to buy a ticket to the hottest place on earth, please.

turnt: Parents in Middle America may still be struggling to understand what this word means, but everybody else knows all too well — including writers at SNL, who portrayed the state of being turnt as a remedy to an unsatisfying sex life. It's time for turnt to turn down.

yaaasssss: Noooooooooo mmoooooorrrreeeeee. If only for poor Lady Gaga's sake said no one ever: "A joke like this stays fresh no matter how many times you hear it," said no one ever.

literally: You continue to hate it when people use literally to mean figuratively, even if the word just won't be separated from that usage. The least you can do is cast a vote against everyone who has ever "literally" lost their mind, because they are metaphorically driving you bananas om nom nom nom: If people could stop posting pictures of their brunches like their fancy toast slices were newborn babies, then maybe you would be spared this overdone onomatopoeia. You get it. Food is delicious. Restaurants serve bacon. Moving on.

influencer: This kind of business jargon makes you want to pivot yourself into a gorge. Stop throwing trumped up labels on people with a bunch of Twitter followers or five friends who might sign up for something if they do.

-ABOUT GROUP
-WORKING TOGETHER FOR THE MOTORCYCLE RUN.

PSI World is a nonprofit organization that is committed to making a difference in the lives of children and families. 17 years ago, PSI World Las Vegas started out by providing a complete holiday to 10 families in need... Today, 17 years later, the commitment of PSI World Las Vegas has grown – This year we are committed to raising $40,000 to provide the 600 children and families of William E. Ferron Elementary School with essentials such as warm clothes, food, hygiene items, and a fun-filled holiday carnival.

DICE (Dedicated In Community Empowerment) is a key supporter of Giving Day. DICE is committed to raising community awareness in Las Vegas, to empowering citizens to create balanced lives through service and action, and to leaving a legacy of a connected community. One of the ways DICE does this is through its support and commitment to PSI World's annual Giving Day. This year DICE has committed to raise $10,000 of the total $40,000 needed!

Join us Saturday, November 22, 2014, for the Giving Hearts Poker Motorcycle Run! All money raised goes to Giving Day 2014! The participation fee is $40 per biker and $10 per passenger. The event starts at Whiskey Dicks and ends at Henderson Harley Davidson. Contact (702) 364-1777 to sign up or get more information!

Question: What exactly will the money that PSI World and DICE are raising provide?

Answer: clothes, shoes, hygiene items, holiday festivities, and most importantly – food for 600 children and their families for the 2 weeks they are on holiday break. The majority of the families at this school are "food insecure" and do not know if or when they will eat each day.

STORY DESCRIPTION: ARE VICTORIA SECRET MODELS FEMINISTS?
WHEN ASKED BY REPORTERS, A COUPLE OF MODELS SAID YES, THEY DO CONSIDER THEMSELVES FEMINISTS.
ONE OF THEM SAID THEY WANTED WOMEN TO BE JUST AS POWERFUL AS MEN.
YET, A REPORTER CLAIMS WHEN THEY TRIED TO ASK THE MODELS IF THEY WERE FEMINISTS
FOLLOWING THEIR LONDON FASHION SHOW, THE REPS KINDLY ASK THE REPORTERS IF THEY COULD SKIP THAT QUESTION.
SO BIG DEAL OR NO BIG DEAL.

Backstage at the Victoria's Secret fashion show in London on Dec. 2, journalists wanted to know: do the models consider themselves feminists?

The Independent claims that a journalist representing them interviewed a Victoria's Secret Angel about her favorite outfit from the show and her status as a model, but was prevented from asking about objectification or feminism:

But the questions "some critics would say that the show objectifies women -- what would you say to that?" and "are you a feminist?", posed to Dutch Angel Romee Strijd, saw a PR representative swiftly step in and tell our journalist "can we maybe not ask that question."

However, other outlets were successful in asking models about their views on feminism. Sophie Tighe at Yahoo interviewed Angel Elsa Hosk and asked "Do you consider yourself a feminist?"

"Of course!" Hosk replied. "I believe in equal rights for women, I want women to be just as powerful as men."

The merit of asking public figures if they are feminists is often discussed, but it's interesting to see how women who make a living from representing "perfect" body types feel about being objectified, and how they define feminism.

Former Angel Tyra Banks has been adamant that you can be a Victoria's Secret model and a feminist, no matter how skimpy the lingerie.

"I do consider myself a feminist, yeah," Banks told Yahoo in an October 16 interview. "Totally."

Banks elaborated on how she brought a different body type to the runway, and opened doors for other women of color.

"Sure, I was stompin', and I know guys were like, 'Woo, look at Tyra.' But I know that my body being thicker on that runway meant something. A lot of the things I did in my modeling career as a woman of color was part of that feminism -- of expanding the definition of beauty and making women feel beautiful, no matter what color their skin is."

Victoria's Secret did not immediately respond to a request for comment.

MONDAY NOVEMBER 10TH.
DO YOU KNOW WHO THIS MAN IS?
THIS IS IRA HANSEN.
HE'S FROM NORTHERN NEVADA.
HE IS YOUR NEW ASSEMBLY SPEAKER.
AND HE'S THE SPEAKER....BECAUSE
REPUBLICANS SWEPT LAST WEEKS
MIDTERMS.
THEY NOW CONTROL STATE GOVERNMENT...FROM TOP TO BOTTOM.
THE CAPTURED NOT ONLY THE STATE SENATE...BUT THE ASSEMBLY.
WHAT DOES THE HANSEN ERA MEAN?
WAVES, FOLKS, HAVE CONSEQUENCES. ON FRIDAY, WE TILTED RIGHT.
TODAY WE'RE LEANING LEFT.
(1) BE CAREFUL WHAT YOU WISH FOR.
MAYBE THAT THOUGHT CROSSED
GOVERNOR SANDOVAL'S MIND SOMETIME
AFTER LAST TUESDAY....WHEN HE AND HIS PARTY ROMPED IN THE ELECTION.
THE REPUBLICANS WHO RODE INTO
CARSON CITY...MAY NOT BE THE SAME
REPUBLICANS WILLING TO GIVE THE GOVERNOR A FREE HAND TO REMAKE OUR TAX STRUCTURE...OR REVAMP HOW TO FUND EDUCATION.
WILL THERE BE GHOSTS OF 2003....IN THE 2015 LEGISLATURE?

THAT 2003 SESSION, FAMOUS FOR THE COLLISION BETWEEN A MODERATE
GOVERNOR...AND A NOT-SO-MODERATE
CONSERVATIVE REPUBLICAN CAUCUS.
SO WHAT ARE WE TO MAKE IF THE HANSEN ERA?

7 OF THE 10 COMMITTEE CHAIRS ARE SOUTHERNERS

LAS VEGAS' PAUL ANDERSON CHAIRS
WAYS AND MEANS. (IMPORTANT PANEL)

(IN STATE SENATE, SOUTHERNERS HAVE 5 OF 10 COMMITTEE CHAIRS)

(MOST REPUBLICANS NEWLY ELECTED
COME FROM MODERATELY OF HEAVILY DEMOCRATIC AREAS)

Illegal Immigration:

Illegal means ILLEGAL. If you broke the law to get here, you should be sent back. President Eisenhower did exactly that in the 1950's. It is a terrible slap in the face to the immigrants who played by the rules to grant "amnesty" to cheaters. Businesses who knowingly hire illegals should be heavily fined.

Education:

We need to put more money in the classroom and cut administrative bureaucracy. Parents need more flexibility in choosing what is best for their children. I will continue former Senator Maurice Washington's breakthrough work in charter schools and parental choice law.

Taxes:

Nevada state spending has skyrocketed from 5.4 billion in 2001 to 9.5 billion in 2010. Because the economy ground to a halt, tax revenue has since limited government expansion. However many new taxes are being proposed for the next legislative session. All taxes are ultimately paid by you, the consumer. Some are even planning on some form of income tax which must have a Nevada IRS to enforce it. Once in place it is only a short jump to a personal income tax. We do not need more taxes, we need less spending.

IN SANDOVAL'S VICTORY SPEECH LAST TUESDAY NIGHT, HE SAID THAT WITH REPUBLICANS CONTROLLING STATE GOVERNMENT AND THE LEGISLATURE... HE COULD PUSH HIS AGENDA TO BOOST EDUCATION AND DIVERSIFY THE ECONOMY... HOW IS THIS GOING TO HAPPEN?

WHAT ARE SOME OF THE CHALLENGES SANDOVAL'S FACING WITH THIS MAKE UP?

(2) WE ARE JOINED BY THE CULINARY UNION'S POLITICAL DIRECTOR... YVANNA CANCELA.

-REPUBLICANS NOW CONTROL STATE GOVERNMENT; DOES THAT MAKE YOU NERVOUS?

-WHAT'S YOUR WORST CASE SCENARIO COMING OUT OF CARSON CITY?

-WHAT'S THE CULINARY'S AGENDA GOING TO BE IN CARSON CITY?

-DO YOU SEE A SANDOVAL/DEMOCRATIC COALITION EMERGING IN THE ASSEMBLY?

-DID LABOR DROP THE BALL IN THIS MIDTERM? DID YOU NEED TO BE OUT SOONER?

-WAS THIS PAYBACK FOR NOT LIKING PORTIONS OF OBAMACARE?

-MANY OF YOUR MEMBERS ARE LATINO; DID MANY STAY HOME UPSET AT NO PROGRESS IN IMMIGRATION REFORM?-
- DO THEY THINK THEY'LL GET A BETTER DEAL UNDER REPUBLICANS?

-IT SEEMS TO ME DEMOCRATS ARE A GREAT "TOP DOWN" PARTY: LIKE VOTING FOR PRESIDENT....HOW DO YOU GET DEMOCRATS TO UNDERSTAND....MIDTERMS ARE IMPORTANT....COUNTY COMMISSION RACES ARE IMPORTANT...SCHOOL BOARDS ARE IMPORTANT.

-WHAT ABOUT 2016? CLINTON? ARE DEMS GOING TO GET ENERGIZED?

LAST YEAR....THE GOVERNMENT SHUT DOWN
OVER A FUNDING FIGHT.
THIS YEAR....WON'T HAPPEN.
LAWMAKERS ON CAPITOL HILL HAVE AGREED TO A TRILLION DOLLAR BUDGET THAT KEEPS THE GOVERNMENT FUNDED TO NEXT SEPTEMBER.

1. WHY DO WE HAVE A DEAL?

AFFORDABLE CARE ACT:

The law is still funded, but there's no new money for it. There's also no new ACA-related funding for the Internal Revenue Service and the Centers for Medicare and Medicaid Services, the two agencies most responsible for implementing the law. The bill also would cut the budget of the Independent Payment Advisory Board -- what Republicans have called "the death panel" -- by $10 million.

IMMIGRATION:

The bill only funds the Department of Homeland Security, which oversees most immigration policy, until February. But negotiators gave new money for immigration programs at other federal agencies. There's $948 million for the Department of Health and Human Service's unaccompanied children program -- an $80 million increase. The program provides health and education services to the young migrants. The department also gets $14 million to help school districts absorbing new immigrant students. And the State Department would get $260 million to assist Central American countries from where of the immigrant children are coming.

U.S. POSTAL SERVICE:

You like your mail on Saturdays? You'll keep your mail on Saturdays. The bill requires the mail service to continue six-day deliveries, despite a years-long attempt to cut back on service to save money.

SAGE-GROUSE:

In a victory for the GOP, the bill would ban the Fish and Wildlife Service from adding the rare bird found in several Western states to the Endangered Species List. Republicans argue that adding the bird to the list "would have severe economic consequences on Western states and the nation's efforts to become energy independent." But there's also $15 million for the Bureau of Land Management to conserve sage-grouse habitats.

STORY DESCRIPTION: MORE CONFUSION TONIGHT OVER MEDICAL MARIJUANA IN our STATE. DISPENSARIES are JUST MONTHS FROM OPENING and OWNERS ARE SCRAMBLING. news 3's john treanor here now and john this is new territory for many. A LEGAL DRUG DEAL... THAT IS HOW PATIENTS ARE VIEWING THE STATE'S PLAN HERE DISPENSARIES ARE ALLOWED TO BUY FROM PATIENTS TO GET THEIR BUSINESS GOING AND GROWING BUT THERE IS A SERIOUS, POTENTIALLY LEGAL ARGUMENT ABOUT HOW THAT CAN WORK. A NUMBER OF DISPENSARIES WANT TO OPEN IN FEBUARY... BUT THEY HAVE TO GROW THEIR OWN MARIJUANA AND THAT PROCESS TAKES AROUND 6 TO 9 MONTHS SO TO GET STARTED THE STATE ALLOWS THEM TO LEGALLY BUY FROM CARD CARRYING PATIENTS WHO ARE CURRENTLY GROWING AT HOME HERE'S THE PROBLEM, AND IT COULD BE A BIG ONE THOSE DISPENSARIES WANT A LOT OF POT... IF PATIENTS HAVE THEIR LEGALLY ALLOWED MAXIMUM TWELVE PLANTS... THEY WANT TO BUY ALL TWELVE AND ONE STATE LAWMAKER SAYS THAT IS OK.... BUT THE DIVISION OF PUBLIC AND BEHAVIORAL HEALTH.... THE MARIJUANA GOVERNING BODY... SAYS NOT A CHANCE

THEY ARE TELLING PATIENTS THAT THEY CAN ONLY SELL WHAT THEY ARE LEGALLY ALLOWED TO CARRY... WHICH IS TWO OUNCES SO NOW WE HAVE A REAL SITUATION WHERE SOME PEOPLE BELIEVE THEY CAN SELL SEVERAL POUNDS AND SOME A FRACTION OF ONE NOW THE PATIENTS THAT THIS WHOLE SYSTEM DEPENDS ON.... ARE SCARED
