

1st QUARTER QUARTERLY PROGRAM LIST January – March 2024

Based on our station's involvement in the community and input from various religious leaders, community leaders, business leaders, and various for-profit and non-profit organizations, our station has identified that the following issues are of concern in our community.

Arts- Using various branches of creative activity including things such as painting, music, literature, and dance within the community.

Business – Areas of opportunity for growth in the business community including new opportunities and strategies being used locally and nationally to provide economic improvements for communities to include economic growth and job creation.

Economy- The wealth and resources of individuals specifically related to how they impact the United States, New Mexico, and the local economy.

Education/School Choice – Opportunities that are available educationally for adults and children and the choices that are available in both the public and private sector for parents and students to choose an educational outcome.

Environment- The innovations and changes being made to help protect the earth.

Family – The challenges faced by children, teens, parents, and grandparents as they deal with societal changes.

Finance- The management of money by people, companies, or governments that can include credit, debt, securities, investments, or paper money and have an impact nationally and locally.

Food Insecurity/Hunger – The issue of hunger specifically as it relates to the local community and the impact of the pandemic on local and national food supplies and available resources to meet food insecurity issues.

Health – Available resources to get healthy and stay healthy for both children and adults. This relates to nutrition, supplements, and exercise. Plus, support systems for those who find themselves battling illness.

Mental Health – The encompassment of emotional, psychological, and social well-being, that influences cognition, perception, and behavior in individuals. Plus, support systems to help those battling mental illness or with their mental health.

Politics – Interest in political activities that impact policy both locally, state-wide, and nationally.

Pro-Life Activities – Events both in favor of and opposed to the pro-life movement and how these actions are affecting policy and everyday living.

Religion – The importance of faith and churches in individual lives and the importance of churches and faith-based organizations to support the community and bring hope, guidance, and reconciliation.

Science- Studying the structure and behavior of the physical and natural world around us, and how those observations increase knowledge that benefit people locally, nationally, and internationally.

Volunteerism – The ability of individuals to make a difference through giving time and resources to support others in their community.

Community Issues: Health, Education/ School Choice, Family

Topic: Moses Kountry Store and Evangel Christian Center

Segment 1: This time of the year seems to deal with allergies, what do you have for that? With warmer weather here, do you have any tips on smelling fresh without harsh chemicals? Its tax time and some people report feeling some anxiety, anything natural for stress? How about for sleep insomnia? With the overuse of antibiotics resistant bacteria is there, something natural people can be taking to hopefully avoid having to use them as often? People have been talking about fish oil, what are the benefits you're seeing from supplementing with fish oil. (Health)

Segment 2: Even though you're the new principal at Evangel, can you tell us about you and your family's history with the academy? We've heard there are new things happening at Evangel Christian Academy, can you tell us more about those classes? What is your vision for ECA? Why should private Christian education be a high priority for families? What kinds of things are you doing to make ECA more affordable? (Education/ School Choice, Family)
