Responsive Programs: After identifying a collection of significant issues that are important to the local community (listed on the previous two pages), WICB responded with the following programming and treatment:

Newscasts: Monday through Friday, WICB broadcasts a total of eighteen news reports each day. Eleven of the eighteen are produced by ABC News and cover world and national stories. The two-minute reports air at the following times (and are updated each hour):

6:16 AM, 7:16 AM, 8:16 AM, 9:16 AM, 12:16 PM, 1:16 PM, 2:16 PM, 3:16 PM, 4:16 PM, 5:16 PM and 6:16 PM.

WICB also produces and airs seven two-to-three-minute reports covering world, national, state and local news. During the academic year and when classes are in-session, the newscasts are written and delivered in-studio by Ithaca College student anchors at the following times:

6:46 AM, 7:46 AM, 8:46 AM, 12:46 PM, 3:46 PM, 4:46 PM and 5:46 PM.

During the college's academic breaks, morning newscasts are anchored by in-studio DJ's reading scripts prepared from Associated Press "Summary Briefs." Afternoon newscasts are written, anchored and produced remotely by members of WICB's news team. They are scheduled and programmed for broadcast remotely. Newscasts written, anchored and produced by WICB's news team place an emphasis on local, regional and New York State stories.

The following academic breaks occurred during the Second Broadcast Quarter of 2023:

Summer Break: Saturday, May 13, 2023 – Tuesday, August 22, 2023

The ABC News and WICB produced newscasts follow the air schedule above 365 days a year, including during the college's academic semesters and breaks.

When applicable, newscasts include sound bites and quotes from newsmakers.

Sportscasts: During the academic year, Monday through Friday, WICB broadcasts a total of seven sports updates each day. The two-to-three-minute sportscasts place an emphasis on local and regional sports teams including Ithaca College, Cornell University, Syracuse University and Ithaca High School, while also noting national sports news and scores as well. The updates are written and delivered by Ithaca College student anchors.

During the academic year and when classes are in-session, the sportscasts air at the following times: 6:46 AM, 7:46 AM, 8:46 AM, 12:46 PM, 3:46 PM, 4:46 PM and 5:46 PM

When applicable, sportscasts include sound bites and quotes from newsmakers.

Full sportscasts did not air during Ithaca College's summer break on the following dates:

Saturday, May 13, 2023 – Tuesday, August 22, 2023

- Please note, sports stories are included at the end of newscasts when possible during academic breaks. Stories are researched and received from Associated Press sports "Summary Briefs."

Weather: During regular programming, with only a few exceptions during specialty and overnight shows, two local weather forecasts are broadcast each hour, 24-hours per day. The forecasts include current weather conditions, temperature and a brief summary of what's expected in the coming days. WICB receives weather information from the National Weather Service (weather.gov).

Note, weather forecasts are also included in the student anchored newscasts Monday through Friday. See above for the weekly air times.

News Programming: During the academic school year (September – December, February – May), WICB's News Department produces a 30-to-60-minute weekly news magazine program called Ithaca Now. It covers local news stories and issues through packages, dialogue, discussion and interviews. It airs each Sunday at 7:00 PM.

Each episode of Ithaca Now includes "Community Beat" and "Politics Beat" segments. The two-to-three-minute segments air during the early part of the episode and provide local updates and important information about what's happening in Ithaca, Tompkins County and the surrounding towns. They are produced in an effort to inform local residents and listeners and provide a brief news rundown.

During the academic school year, a weekday version of the show also airs most Tuesdays and Thursdays at 7:45 PM. The ten-to-fifteen-minute show features stories and information from the previous weekend's program, as well as updates on local breaking and developing stories.

The final Ithaca Now episode of the Spring 2023 semester aired on Sunday, May 7, 2023 and was a "Best of" episode, highlighting a collection of stand-out stories and interviews that previously aired during the spring semester.

Announcement Affirming the Station's Commitment to Diversity and Inclusion and Supporting the Fight for Racial Justice:

The announcement script below was recorded by three WICB staff members, produced and aired in rotation starting Monday, January 3, 2022 (and continued to air weekly through the Second Broadcast Quarter of 2023):

Announcement: At WICB, diversity and inclusion are among our core values. WICB affirms its long-term commitment to supporting these values and the fight for racial justice. We are proud to feature musical artists from many diverse backgrounds, giving a platform to those in Ithaca, plus across the state, the country and the world. We are also proud to tell our community's stories ethically and thoroughly. WICB's Black Lives Matter interview series produced in connection with ICTV and WICB's Asian in Ithaca series are available on our website and Spotify. Search "WICB Presents Ithaca Now." Resources, stories and more information on our website, WICB.org.

Public Service Announcements – "Live-Read": During live in-studio modern rock programming on a day's even hours, the station's on-air DJ reads a live 30-to-40-second public service announcement. Information regarding each PSA is included an online Google Document that can be accessed in the WICB Studio. The live announcements are often used to promote community events and local charitable initiatives.
