

January 1, 2012

DESCRIPTION OF PROGRAMS PROVIDING THE MOST
SIGNIFICANT TREATMENT OF COMMUNITY ISSUES
10/1/11 – 12/31/11

WTHO-FM Thomson, Georgia

“Georgia Focus” is a Georgia News Network program airing Sunday mornings at 6:30 a.m. that is thirty minutes in duration. It is an in-depth look into issues of personal, community and local interest, often with a background report and interviews with key personalities involved with the issue. The following pages represent some of the guest line-ups for “Georgia Focus” that provide the most significant treatment of community issues this quarter.

“The Greg Harden Show” is a locally produced interview style community issues program airing Saturday mornings at 10:00 a.m. that is two hours in total duration. It features weekly guests from a variety of backgrounds in McDuffie County who are involved in community events, local civic projects, politics and programs of special interest to our listeners. Additionally, we produce and air special long form news reports on topics of significant local interest.

WTHO-FM’s news department writes, produces and broadcasts five-minute local newscasts six times per day, including morning drive, mid-day, and afternoon drive. These newscasts feature local news exclusively and feature stories on all topics of interest including local government, education, crime, and sports. Stories are from 30 to 90 seconds in length. Additionally live spot news broadcasts are aired when events warrant and on Saturdays WTHO hosts a five-minute interview program with local government leaders to address issues relevant to our audience.

“Public Service Announcements” promoting local community events, issues, resources and activities are broadcast twice per hour. They are rotated frequently giving maximum coverage at no cost to a large number of community groups, churches, and other organizations that focus on assisting the underserved. Theme projects such as the American Cancer Society Relay for Life, United Way Campaigns, Safety and Anti Drug and Alcohol Awareness are recorded in participants’ voices and aired according to a pre-approved schedule to enhance visibility of these special events. Frequently we host representatives of such concerns on a half-hour long “Guest D.J.” show which airs each Friday from 12:15 until 12:45.

The following pages outline all of the topics and guests from “Georgia Focus” that provided the most significant treatment of community issues during this quarter.

4th Quarter 2011 "Georgia Focus" Public Affairs Issues/Clearance

Station: WTHO FM Market: Thomson, Georgia

Infectious Diseases

Infectious diseases affect us all at one time or another and with flu season coming this program discusses infectious diseases in Georgia. Guest is Dr. Joel Rosenstock who is Board Certified in Infectious Diseases & Internal Medicine. He is also an HIV Specialist, an expert in Tropical Medicine and is the Medical Director for AbsoluteCARE in Atlanta. Available October 1-2.

This show aired on Sunday from: 6:30 a.m. until 7:00 a.m.

International Credit Union Week

International Credit Union Week is October 17-21. Guests Mike Mercer, President/CEO, Georgia Credit Union Affiliates, Tiffany Greenway, Director of Marketing & Strategy, Northwest Georgia Credit Union in Rome and Adam Marlowe, Assistant Vice President for Distribution Channels at Georgia's Own Credit Union discuss Georgia's credit unions. Available October 8-9.

This show aired on Sunday from: 6:30 a.m. until 7:00 a.m.

Sunbelt Ag Expo

Throughout its 33 year history, The Sunbelt Ag Expo in Moultrie has been at the forefront of showcasing agriculture as North America's Premier Farm Show. Chip Blalock, Executive Director for the Sunbelt Ag Expo, discusses this year's show. Available October 15-16. .

This show aired on Sunday from: 6:30 a.m. until 7:00 a.m.

Georgia State Parks

Becky Kelly, Director of Georgia's State Park System and Sally Winchester, Director of Marketing and Customer Relations for Georgia state Parks discuss the Tons of Fun Fitness Challenge that kicked off in August. Available October 22-23.

This show aired on Sunday from: 6:30 a.m. until 7:00 a.m.

Station: WTHO FM Market: Thomson, Georgia

Weird Georgia

UFOs, Bigfoot creatures and even stranger things have been reported in Georgia and Jim Miles has been researching, exploring and investigating such goings-on for years. This weekend before Halloween we divert from our usual programming to discuss these phenomena with Jim, author of Weird Georgia. Available October 29-30.

This show aired on Sunday from: 6:30 a.m. until 7:00 a.m.

Rural Highway Safety

The Georgia Department of Agriculture and The Governors Office of Highway Safety have formed a partnership to remind motorists of the potential dangers of a crash with farm equipment. Guests Harris Blackwood, Director of the GOHS and Gary Black, Commissioner of the GA Department of Agriculture, discuss this serious problem on rural roads. Available November 5-6.

This show aired on Sunday from: 6:30 a.m. until 7:00 a.m.

Southeast Dairy Association

The Southeast United Dairy Industry Association works with schools, health professionals, retailers and others to promote dairy products throughout the Southeast. Dairy farmers Dixie and Jerry Truelove and Arlene Murrell, a registered dietician, discuss SUDIA's efforts here in Georgia. Available November 12-13.

This show aired on Sunday from: 6:30 a.m. until 7:00 a.m.

Snack in a Backpack

Many children in Georgia are at risk for hunger as their families struggle to provide the nutrition they need. A number of those children get most of their meals at school and have little to eat on the weekends. Guest Gaye Walton started the Snack in a Backpack program to feed children on weekends when they aren't in school. Available November 19-20.

This show aired on Sunday from: 6:30 a.m. until 7:00 a.m.

Station: WTHO FM Market: Thomson, Georgia

Georgia Rambler

From 1976 to 1980 Atlanta Journal-Constitution columnist Charles Salter traveled the state in his 1975 Chevy station wagon in search of Georgia’s offbeat characters. Mr. Salter has compiled the best of those columns into a book called “The Georgia Rambler: A Potter's Snake, the Real Thing Recipe, a Satilla Adventure, and more”. Available November 26-27.

This show aired on Sunday from: 6:30 a.m. until 7:00 a.m.

Mary Kay Beard/Angel Tree

By the age of 27 Mary Kay Beard was on the FBI’s Ten Most Wanted List. She was captured, tried and given a lengthy prison sentence. On this program Mary Kay Beard discusses how her life changed and the Angel Tree program she founded. Available December 3-4.

This show aired on Sunday from: 6:30 a.m. until 7:00 a.m.

History of Georgia High School Football

Georgia is one of the most competitive proving grounds in America for high school football. What began with a few teams in the late 19th century has blossomed into over 400 schools fielding teams today. Television Journalist Jon Nelson, author of the book “Georgia High School Football – Peach State Pigskin History” discuss the sport and its popularity. Available December 10-11.

This show aired on Sunday from: 6:30 a.m. until 7:00 a.m.

Ty Cobb

Don Rhodes’ book Ty Cobb: Safe At Home” takes readers inside the private, off-season life of the man described as ‘the world’s greatest baseball player’. For most of those offseasons he called a house on Williams Street in Augusta home. On the 125th anniversary of Ty Cobb’s birth, Rhodes discusses the baseball legend. Available December 17-18.

This show aired on Sunday from: 6:30 a.m. until 7:00 a.m.

Station: WTHO FM Market: Thomson, Georgia

Eagle Ranch/Dare Book – Best of Georgia Focus

Eagle Ranch is a home for teens in crisis and in need of hope and healing. Zach Campa was a teenager who spent time at Eagle Ranch and found that hope and healing. Guests are Eddie Staub, founder of Eagle Ranch and Shane Sutherland, Zach's mother and author of I Dare You to Read this Book. who talk about Eagle Ranch and Zach's life. Available December 24-25.

This show aired on Sunday from: 6:30 a.m. until 7:00 a.m.

Huxford Spear Library – Best of Georgia Focus

The Huxford-Spear Genealogical Library in Homerville, GA is perhaps the most comprehensive private genealogical facility in the eastern U.S. The collection includes over 26,000 books, 6,000 family histories and nearly 10,000 sheets of microfiche. Program guests, Cathy Wells, Chairman of the library's board and Donald Davis, President of the Huxford Genealogical Society, discuss the library. Available December 31- January 1.

This show aired on Sunday from: 6:30 a.m. until 7:00 a.m.

October 1, 2011

DESCRIPTION OF PROGRAMS PROVIDING THE MOST SIGNIFICANT TREATMENT OF COMMUNITY ISSUES
7/1/11 – 9/30/11

WTHO-FM Thomson, Georgia

“Georgia Focus” is a Georgia News Network program airing Sunday mornings at 6:30 a.m. that is thirty minutes in duration. It is an in-depth look into issues of personal, community and local interest, often with a background report and interviews with key personalities involved with the issue. The following pages represent some of the guest line-ups for “Georgia Focus” that provide the most significant treatment of community issues this quarter.

“The Greg Harden Show” is a locally produced interview style community issues program airing Saturday mornings at 10:00 a.m. that is two hours in total duration. It features weekly guests from a variety of backgrounds in McDuffie County who are involved in community events, local civic projects, politics and programs of special interest to our listeners. Additionally, we produce and air special long form news reports on topics of significant local interest.

WTHO-FM’s news department writes, produces and broadcasts five-minute local newscasts five times per day, including morning drive, mid-day, and afternoon drive. These newscasts feature local news exclusively and feature stories on all topics of interest including local government, education, crime, and sports. Stories are from 30 to 90 seconds in length. Additionally live spot news broadcasts are aired when events warrant and on Saturdays WTHO hosts a five-minute interview program with local government leaders to address issues relevant to our audience.

“Public Service Announcements” promoting local community events, issues, resources and activities are broadcast twice per hour. They are rotated frequently giving maximum coverage at no cost to a large number of community groups, churches, and other organizations that focus on assisting the underserved. Theme projects such as the American Cancer Society Relay for Life, United Way Campaigns, Safety and Anti Drug and Alcohol Awareness are recorded in participants’ voices and aired according to a pre-approved schedule to enhance visibility of these special events. Frequently we host representatives of such concerns on a half-hour long “Guest D.J.” show which airs each Friday from 12:15 until 12:45.

The following pages outline all of the topics and guests from “Georgia Focus” that provided the most significant treatment of community issues during this quarter.

3rd Quarter 2011 "Georgia Focus" Public Affairs Issues/Clearance

Station: WTHO-FM

Market: Thomson, Georgia

Georgia WIC

Georgia WIC is a Special Supplemental Nutrition Program for Women, Infants and Children. Brian Castrucci, Maternal and Child Health Programs Director for the Georgia Department of Public Health discusses this program that promotes good health and positive food choices by providing nutrition education and proper food selections. Available July 9-10.

This show aired on Sunday from: 6:30 a.m. to 7:00 a.m.

Fisher House Foundation

The Fisher House Foundation provides "a home away from home" for families of military personnel receiving care at military and VA medical centers. Guests, Ken Fisher, Stan Fisher and the family of LCpl. Blake Rogers from Griffin, killed in action in Afghanistan, discuss efforts to raise funds to support Fisher House. Available July 16-17.

This show aired on Sunday from: 6:30 a.m. to 7:00 a.m.

AFLAC Cancer Center/Survivorlink

The Aflac Cancer Center at Childrens Healthcare of Atlanta provides pediatric patients with advanced medical treatment and family-centered care in a child-friendly environment. This program explores the Innovative Therapy and Survivorship Programs at Childrens with Dr. Lillian Meacham, Director of the Cancer Survivor Program and Dr. Todd Cooper, Director of the Leukemia/Lymphoma Innovative Therapy Program. Available July 23-24.

This show aired on Sunday from: 6:30 a.m. to 7:00 a.m.

Georgia DOT

The Georgia Department of Transportation is committed to providing a safe, seamless and sustainable transportation system that supports Georgia's economy and is sensitive to both its citizens and its environment. Todd Long, Director of Planning for the GA DOT, discusses upcoming projects. Available July 30-31.

This show aired on Sunday from: 6:30 a.m. to 7:00 a.m.

Station: WTHO FM

Market: Thomson, Georgia

Work Positive in a Negative World

Author and business coach Dr. Joey Faucette discusses his new book, Work Positive in a Negative World. Dr. Joey has written a number of books, over 400 articles for national magazines and newspapers and is the founder of Listen to Life, a company that coaches people all over the world. Available August 6-7.

This show aired on Sunday from: 6:30 a.m. to 7:00 a.m.

Alzheimer's Association

More than 200,000 Georgians have Alzheimer's and nearly half a million others are affected through their roles as caregivers. The Alzheimer's Association, Georgia Chapter, offers services for families caring for people with Alzheimer's disease and related dementias. Leslie Anderson, President of the Georgia Chapter, discusses these services and the Walks to End Alzheimer's. Available August 13-14.

This show aired on Sunday from: 6:30 a.m. to 7:00 a.m.

Georgia Department of Public Safety/School Bus Safety

The Georgia Department of Public Safety oversees the day-to-day operations of the Georgia State Patrol, Capitol Police and the Motor Carrier Compliance Division. A panel from the DPS discusses school bus safety and other initiatives of the department. Guests include Colonel Mark McDonough, New Commissioner. Available May 13-14.

This show aired on Sunday from: 6:30 a.m. to 7:00 a.m.

Georgia Department of Education

Georgia school systems have just started the new school year. The Georgia Department of Education oversees public education throughout the state. Dr. John Barge, State School Superintendent, discusses education in Georgia. Available August 27-28.

This show aired on Sunday from: 6:30 a.m. to 7:00 a.m.

Station: WTHO FM

Market: Thomson, Georgia

Suicide Prevention

Guests are Adam Lesser, Garrett Lee Smith Youth Suicide Prevention Project Director and Sally Vander Straeten, State Suicide Prevention Coordinator discuss the work of the Georgia Department of Behavioral Health and Developmental Disabilities to prevent suicide in Georgia. Available September 3-4.

This show aired on Sunday from: 6:30 a.m. to 7:00 a.m.

Georgia Public Service Commission

Bill Edge from the Georgia Public Service Commission discusses the Lifeline/Link-Up telephone assistance program and natural gas options for Georgians. Available September 10-11.

This show aired on Sunday from: 6:30 a.m. to 7:00 a.m.

Emergency Preparedness

September is National Preparedness Month and two Georgia based companies – Home Depot and Waffle House – have been cited by FEMA as outstanding examples of emergency preparation. This program from the Waffle House Museum in Decatur discusses Emergency Preparedness with guests, Stephen Holmes from Home Depot, Dave Rickell from Waffle House and Lisa Janak from GEMA. Available September 17-18.

This show aired on Sunday from: 6:30 a.m. to 7:00 a.m.

Year of Golf in Georgia

The state House and Senate presented resolutions proclaiming 2011 as the "Year of Golf" in Georgia. This program discusses the extraordinary charitable and economic impact golf has had on Georgia this year with guests, Earnie Ellison from the PGA, Todd Rhinehart, from the PGA Tour Championship and PGA Tour professional Davis Love III. Available September 24-25.

This show aired on Sunday from: 6:30 a.m. to 7:00 a.m.

July 1, 2011

DESCRIPTION OF PROGRAMS PROVIDING THE MOST SIGNIFICANT TREATMENT OF COMMUNITY ISSUES
4/1/11 – 6/30/11

WTHO-FM Thomson, Georgia

“Georgia Focus” is a Georgia News Network program airing Sunday mornings at 6:30 a.m. that is thirty minutes in duration. It is an in-depth look into issues of personal, community and local interest, often with a background report and interviews with key personalities involved with the issue. The following pages represent some of the guest line-ups for “Georgia Focus” that provide the most significant treatment of community issues this quarter.

“The Greg Harden Show” is a locally produced interview style community issues program airing Saturday mornings at 10:00 a.m. that is two hours in total duration. It features weekly guests from a variety of backgrounds in McDuffie County who are involved in community events, local civic projects, politics and programs of special interest to our listeners. Additionally, we produce and air special long form news reports on topics of significant local interest.

WTHO-FM’s news department writes, produces and broadcasts five-minute local newscasts five times per day, including morning drive, mid-day, and afternoon drive. These newscasts feature local news exclusively and feature stories on all topics of interest including local government, education, crime, and sports. Stories are from 30 to 90 seconds in length. Additionally live spot news broadcasts are aired when events warrant and on Saturdays WTHO hosts a five-minute interview program with local government leaders to address issues relevant to our audience.

“Public Service Announcements” promoting local community events, issues, resources and activities are broadcast twice per hour. They are rotated frequently giving maximum coverage at no cost to a large number of community groups, churches, and other organizations that focus on assisting the underserved. Theme projects such as the American Cancer Society Relay for Life, United Way Campaigns, Safety and Anti Drug and Alcohol Awareness are recorded in participants’ voices and aired according to a pre-approved schedule to enhance visibility of these special events. Frequently we host representatives of such concerns on a half-hour long “Guest D.J.” show which airs each Friday from 12:15 until 12:45.

The following pages outline all of the topics and guests from “Georgia Focus” that provided the most significant treatment of community issues during this quarter.

2nd Quarter 2011 “Georgia Focus” Public Affairs Issues/Clearance

Station: WTHO FM Market: Thomson, Georgia

Police Officer Safety

In 2010, 10 law enforcement officers in Georgia died from injuries suffered in the line of duty. It's a profession with inherent dangers like no other...this program goes “on the road” with the Georgia State Patrol and Atlanta Police to explore how officers rely on training to deal with those dangers. Available April 2-3.

This show aired on Sunday from: 6:30 a.m. to: 7:00 a.m.

The Masters – 75th Anniversary

The 75th Masters is being played in Augusta. Guests Sid Mathew, foremost authority on Bobby Jones, and Loran Smith, winner of Augusta National's Masters Major Achievement Award, recall tournament history and tradition. Available April 8-9.

This show aired on Sunday from: 6:30 a.m. to: 7:00 a.m.

Lewis Grizzard and Erskine Caldwell

Moreland, Georgia is the hometown of two of the South's most prolific writers – Erskine Caldwell and Lewis Grizzard. This program discusses these two famous writers and the impact their legacies have had on the area. Guests are Winston Skinner from the The Newnan Times-Herald and Dedra Grizzard, widow of Lewis Grizzard. Available April 16-17.

This show aired on Sunday from: 6:30 a.m. to: 7:00 a.m.

Georgia Icons

The book Georgia Icons by Don Rhodes celebrates Georgia through photographs and essays highlighting 50 of the state's best-known icons. Don discusses some of these icons in this interview recorded at Ty Cobb's former home in Augusta. Available April 23-24.

This show aired on Sunday from: 6:30 a.m. to: 7:00 a.m.

Station: WTHO FM Market: Thomson, Georgia

Arthritis Foundation

More than 1.6 million Georgians live with Arthritis. The Arthritis Foundation's Georgia Chapter works towards the prevention, control and cure of arthritis and related diseases. Rheumatologist Dr. Hayes Wilson and Ayana Charleston, of the Arthritis Foundation discuss the disease and upcoming Arthritis Walks. Available April 30-May 1.

This show aired on Sunday from: 6:30 a.m. to: 7:00 a.m.

Tornado Relief and Recovery

On April 27th tornadoes roared across portions of Georgia causing catastrophic damage and multiple injuries and fatalities. 16 Georgia counties were declared Federal Disaster Areas. Guests from GEMA, FEMA, Red Cross and others provide information to help victims get assistance. Available May 6-7.

This show aired on Sunday from: 6:30 a.m. to: 7:00 a.m.

Georgia Association of Physician Assistants

There are more than 2,000 Physician Assistants in Georgia. All are dedicated to ensuring patients receive personal attention from their medical care providers. The GAPA provides for the development of the PA profession in Georgia. Guests are Ben Taylor and Mary Vacala of the GAPA. Available May 13-14.

This show aired on Sunday from: 6:30 a.m. to: 7:00 a.m.

Vidalia Onions

Vidalia onions are known the world over and this program, recorded at the new Onion Museum in Vidalia, explores the history and industry surrounding Georgia's official state vegetable, Guests are Wendy Brannen, Executive Director and Museum Chairperson and Aries Haygood, Chairman of the Vidalia Onion Committee and a grower and packer of Vidalia onions. Available May 13-14.

This show aired on Sunday from: 6:30 a.m. to: 7:00 a.m.

GTACT/Department of Public Safety

The GTACT initiative helps make drivers aware of safe ways to interact with trucks and large vehicles on Georgia roads. This program discusses GTACT with Gordy Wright and Sgt. Pete McCaleb of the GA Department of Public Safety and goes on the road to get a truck driver's perspective. Available May 28-29.

This show aired on Sunday from: 6:30 a.m. to: 7:00 a.m.

Station: WTHO FM Market: Thomson, Georgia

Civil War Atlanta

2011 marks the 150th Anniversary of the Civil War. Georgia had a significant role in the war and by spring of 1863 war had arrived at Atlanta's doorstep. Historian Robert Scott Davis author of Civil War Atlanta, discusses the war's impact on Atlanta. Available June 4-5.

This show aired on Sunday from: 6:30 a.m. to: 7:00 a.m.

Huxford Spear Library

The Huxford-Spear Genealogical Library in Homerville, GA is perhaps the most comprehensive private genealogical facility in the eastern U.S. The collection includes over 26,000 books, 6,000 family histories and nearly 10,000 sheets of microfiche. Program guests, Cathy Wells, Chairman of the library's board and Donald Davis, President of the Huxford Genealogical Society, discuss the library. Available June 10-11.

This show aired on Sunday from: 6:30 a.m. to: 7:00 a.m.

Eagle Ranch/Dare Book

Eagle Ranch is a home for teens in crisis and in need of hope and healing. Zach Campa was a teenager who spent time at Eagle Ranch and found that hope and healing. Guests are Eddie Staub, founder of Eagle Ranch and Shane Sutherland, Zach's mother and author of I Dare You to Read this Book. who talk about Eagle Ranch and Zach's life. Available June 18-19.

This show aired on Sunday from: 6:30 a.m. to: 7:00 a.m.

Georgia Aquarium

The Georgia Aquarium is the world's largest with more than 10 million gallons of water and over sixty exhibits. On this program, Scott Higly from Georgia Aquarium discusses their exhibits and programs. Also included is an underwater interview with a volunteer diver. Available June 25-26.

This show aired on Sunday from: 6:30 a.m. to: 7:00 a.m.

April 1, 2011

DESCRIPTION OF PROGRAMS PROVIDING THE MOST SIGNIFICANT TREATMENT OF COMMUNITY ISSUES
1/1/11 – 3/31/11

WTHO-FM Thomson, Georgia

“Georgia Focus” is a Georgia News Network program airing Sunday mornings at 6:30 a.m. that is thirty minutes in duration. It is an in-depth look into issues of personal, community and local interest, often with a background report and interviews with key personalities involved with the issue. The following pages represent some of the guest line-ups for “Georgia Focus” that provide the most significant treatment of community issues this quarter.

“The Greg Harden Show” is a locally produced interview style community issues program airing Saturday mornings at 10:00 a.m. that is two hours in total duration. It features weekly guests from a variety of backgrounds in McDuffie County who are involved in community events, local civic projects, politics and programs of special interest to our listeners. Additionally, we produce and air special long form news reports on topics of significant local interest.

WTHO-FM’s news department writes, produces and broadcasts five-minute local newscasts five times per day, including morning drive, mid-day, and afternoon drive. These newscasts feature local news exclusively and feature stories on all topics of interest including local government, education, crime, and sports. Stories are from 30 to 90 seconds in length. Additionally live spot news broadcasts are aired when events warrant and on Saturdays WTHO hosts a five-minute interview program with local government leaders to address issues relevant to our audience.

“Public Service Announcements” promoting local community events, issues, resources and activities are broadcast twice per hour. They are rotated frequently giving maximum coverage at no cost to a large number of community groups, churches, and other organizations that focus on assisting the underserved. Theme projects such as the American Cancer Society Relay for Life, United Way Campaigns, Safety and Anti Drug and Alcohol Awareness are recorded in participants’ voices and aired according to a pre-approved schedule to enhance visibility of these special events. Frequently we host representatives of such concerns on a half-hour long “Guest D.J.” show which airs each Friday from 12:15 until 12:45.

The following pages outline all of the topics and guests from “Georgia Focus” that provided the most significant treatment of community issues during this quarter.

1st Quarter 2011 "Georgia Focus" Public Affairs Issues/Clearance

Station: WTHO FM Market: Thomson, Georgia

DUI in Georgia – repeat program

Drunk Driving is a major problem on Georgia's roadways. This program examines this issue with Bob Dallas, Director of the Governor's Office of Highway Safety and police officers as they patrol city streets and conduct DUI checkpoints in an effort to keep drunk drivers off the roads. Available January 1-2.

This show aired Sunday from: 6:30 a.m. until 7:00 a.m.

Gov. Sonny Perdue

Sonny Perdue returns to private life after serving two terms as Georgia's Governor. Gov. Perdue discusses his time in office, his future plans and thoughts on Georgia's future in an interview just prior to Nathan Deal being sworn in as Georgia's 82nd Governor. Available January 8-9.

This show aired Sunday from: 6:30 a.m. until 7:00 a.m.

Georgia Professional Standards Commission

The Georgia Professional Standards Commission is responsible for the certification of qualified educational personnel and for attracting qualified personnel to become educators in Georgia. Kelly Henson, Executive Secretary of the Georgia Professional Standards Commission discusses issues for 2011. Available January 15-16.

This show aired Sunday from: 6:30 a.m. until 7:00 a.m.

Georgia Partnership for Excellence in Education

The Top Ten Issues to Watch is an annual publication of the Georgia Partnership for Excellence in Education. The list of issues for 2011 has been released and guests Dr. Stephen Dolinger, President of the Partnership, and Susan Walker, Director of Policy and Research, discuss the issues. Available January 22-23.

This show aired Sunday from: 6:30 a.m. until 7:00 a.m.

Station: WTHO FM Market: Thomson, Georgia

Georgia Civil War Commission

Georgia played a significant role in the Civil War and 2011 is the war’s 150th Anniversary. The Georgia Civil War Commission was created by the General Assembly to coordinate preservation, and promotion of Civil War sites in Georgia. John Culpepper, Chairman of the GA Civil War Commission is interviewed. Available January 29-30.

This show aired Sunday from: 6:30 a.m. until 7:00 a.m.

Red Cross

Guests Ruben Brown of Metro Atlanta Red Cross and Debbie Baldwin, one of their volunteers, discuss the Red Cross’ efforts in Georgia and their need for more volunteers. Available February 5-6.

This show aired Sunday from: 6:30 a.m. until 7:00 a.m.

Public Service Commission

Bill Edge and Mike Nantz from the Georgia Public Service Commission discuss natural gas options and money-saving programs available to Georgians. Available February 12-13.

This show aired Sunday from: 6:30 a.m. until 7:00 a.m.

Partnership Against Domestic Violence

PADV provides support to battered women and their children in metro Atlanta. Cathy Willis Spraez, President of Partnership Against Domestic Violence and Astou, a domestic violence survivor, discuss their services and some upcoming events. Available February 19-20.

This show aired Sunday from: 6:30 a.m. until 7:00 a.m.

Childhood Obesity

Georgia has the second highest rate of childhood obesity in the United States. This program recorded at Children’s Healthcare of Atlanta’s Egleston Hospital discusses this epidemic with Dr. Stephanie Walsh, Medical Director of Child Wellness at Childrens and Nicholas Weddington, one of her patients. Available February 26-27.

This show aired Sunday from: 6:30 a.m. until 7:00 a.m.

1st Quarter 2011 “Georgia Focus” Public Affairs Issues/Clearance – Page 3

Station: WTHO FM Market: Thomson, Georgia

Public Service Commission (Repeat)

Bill Edge and Mike Nantz from the Georgia Public Service Commission discuss natural gas options and money-saving programs available to Georgians. Available March 5-6.

This show aired Sunday from: 6:30 a.m. until 7:00 a.m.

Former First Lady Rosalynn Carter

Former First Lady Rosalynn Carter discusses her work in the field of mental health throughout her public service career as well as her new book called “Within Our Reach: Ending the Mental Health Crisis. Available September 11-12.

This show aired Sunday from: 6:30 a.m. until 7:00 a.m.

Georgia Dept. of Human Services/Division of Aging Services

Elder abuse is an under-recognized, undetected and underreported problem with devastating and life-threatening consequences. The responsibility of investigating reports of Elder Abuse falls to The Georgia Department of Human Services’ Division of Aging Services. A panel from the Division of Aging Services discusses Elder Abuse and Medicare Fraud in Georgia. Available March 19-20.

This show aired Sunday from: 6:30 a.m. until 7:00 a.m.

Prostate Cancer Awareness

Prostate cancer is a serious health concern and Georgia ranks 6th in highest estimated deaths from the disease and Prostate cancer is the leading cause of cancer among Georgia males. Dr. Mark Merlin, a Radiation Oncologist, discusses the importance of screening in men over 40 and treatments available. Available March 26-27.

This show aired Sunday from: 6:30 a.m. until 7:00 a.m.