MAKING IT GROW

JANUARY

Join us for “Making It Grow” January 4 at 7pm on SCETV. We’re showing four remarkable gardens that we visited in the past and one new one. Beginning on top of Paris Mountain, the Bradshaws explain the imaginative concepts behind their remarkable, diverse home landscape, and thanks to Davis Sanders from South Pleasantburg Nursery for introducing us. Danny Howard took us to Bob Smith, his brother-in-law, who has created an Asian themed backyard complete with a beautiful koi pond near Greenville. Inspirational is the only word for the Calhoun County garden of Earline Wiles, who in her early 90’s is still gardening every day. We sneak behind the gates, thanks to Amy Dabbs, to the Charleston Garden of Bill Lyddan to see his green and white garden. We end these visits with our new segment that Laura Lee Rose took us to - an oasis for wildlife and children in downtown Beaufort created over the years by Linda Peters.
