Join us for a bittersweet “Making It Grow” about the wonderful life of our friend Clemson Extension Agent Tony Melton on April 26 at 7pm on SCETV. Tony was known across the state to farmers on multimillion dollar operations and to backyard gardeners as he helped everyone equally. Viewers who watched Tony as our “go to” panelist over the years loved and respected him.

On this “Tribute to Tony” special, host and Clemson Extension Agent Amanda McNulty along with Clemson Extension Master Gardener Coordinator Terasa Lott will look back and recap clips highlighting: past shows where Tony gives useful gardening advice, the “Down Home with Tony and Amanda” show that aired in the mid 2000s, Tony reminiscing on his early days on MIG at the 25th Anniversary Special at the Sumter Opera House, Tony on the set with his friend Stan “the citrus man” McKenzie, Tony and Amanda making wreaths and holiday swag, the decorations at Tony’s house he built, and Tony and Amanda having fun and getting lost in a corn maze.

We will also show some of the awards and recognition Tony received the past few months. The first one will be at the McLeod Farms 2021 Corn Maze that was dedicated to Tony and agricultural education, and we will hear remarks by his friend Kemp McLeod. Next, we go to the dedication of a new garden in Tony’s honor at the Pee Dee Research and Education Center where we hear from Tommy Taylor from Taylor

Garden and Gift Shop, Clemson Extension Pee Dee District Director Michael McManus, Clemson Extension Horticulture Team Director Cory Tanner, Clemson Extension Director Dr. Tom Dobbins, Director of Pee Dee REC Dr. Matt Smith, and from Tony himself. Then at a ceremony also in Florence, Tony received a special plaque from Bryant Sansbury of ArborOne Farm Credit, and kind words from Clemson Extension County Coordinator Lee Van Vlakte, Jerry Lee from McCall Farms, DuPree Atkinson from Atkinson Farms, and Faith Truesdale from the South Carolina Farm Bureau. Then came a surprise when Senator Kent Williams presented Tony with the highest civilian award one can receive in South Carolina, The Order of the Palmetto. After this presentation we hear some remarks from Tony as he addresses those in attendance. Our final segment of the show will be Amanda's final interview with Tony as he looks back on his early start in farming, his research with vegetables, and in closing Tony gives advice for current Clemson Extension Agents and gardeners. We end this special with a montage with pictures of Tony growing up in McBee, and of some fun moments on the show including pictures from past Halloween costumes! So, join us as we remember Tony Melton. We will also stream the show on the "Making It Grow" Facebook page
