Quarterly Issues Programs

Station:	WRKT-FM
Airdate:	8/1/2021
Title of Program:	Issues & Answers
Host:	Allan Carpenter

Start Time:	7:30 AM
Segment Topic:	Human Trafficking

Summary:	Discussion of the epidemic of human trafficking, its presence in the Erie community, and the right way to repond if you suspect someone is being trafficked.
Guest:	Betsy Wiest, Social Justice Coordinator at Sisters of St. Joseph

Issues Covered:	Discussion of how to raise awareness and work toward preventing human trafficking. COVID-19 has impacted human trafficking. Children are more vulnerable at this time to online exploitation. School closures mean that many children no longer have a safe environment and are often confined to homes with abusive relatives which puts them in danger of becoming victims of live-stream sex abuse and other forms of cybersex trafficking. Predators are taking advantage of the fact that children are spending more unsupervised time online and online grooming is growing.
