ISSUE: WEATHER

9.5 Gainesville residents are stocking up in case Hurricane Irma decides to turn toward North Central Florida. Several stores have reported they're already out of water, though they plan to get new shipments in over the next couple of days. Police are also reporting heavy traffic around stores. Alachua County Emergency Management officials stress the importance of people preparing without panicking. "Currently, Irma is expected to impact Florida, but it is too soon to forecast potential impacts it will have on our area," officials said in a statement Tuesday. The county is providing supplies for sandbags from 9 a.m. to 5 p.m. Wednesday at Wayside Park at 11855 NW U.S. Highway 441. You're asked to park in front of the Public Works building. Authorities be prepared to fill your own sandbags but staff will be available if you need assistance. In the meantime, they say a basic emergency supply kit can include the following items.

- Water, one gallon of water per person per day for at least three days, for drinking and sanitation
- Food, at least a three-day supply of non-perishable food
- Battery-powered or hand crank radio and a NOAA Weather Radio with tone alert and extra batteries for both
- Flashlight and extra batteries
- First aid kit
- Whistle to signal for help
- Dust mask to help filter contaminated air and plastic sheeting and duct tape to shelter-in-place
- Moist towelettes, garbage bags and plastic ties for personal sanitation
- Wrench or pliers to turn off utilities
- Manual can opener for food
- Local maps
- Cell phone with chargers, inverter or solar charger
- Food and water for pets
- Medications/medical supplies
- Items for small children/babies (diapers, formula, etc.)

Levy County Emergency Management has opened its public information lines to assist residents and visitors. You can call from 8 a.m. to 5 p.m. at 352-486-5155 or 352-486-5576.

9.7 Alachua County now plans to open 12 emergency shelters Friday to prepare for Hurricane Irma. The county had already planned to open three shelters but is expanding that number in response to the state's request to help people evacuating South Florida. County officials say that number will provide shelter for more than 7,000 of the state's most vulnerable residents. County officials say more shelters could open. They've asked both the University of Florida and Santa Fe College to assist. The county says they're waiting on the schools' response. Of the 12 current shelters, one is specifically for people with special needs; two are pet-friendly and the rest are for the population in general. The shelters will be staffed by Alachua County and Alachua County Public Schools personnel.

Special needs shelter

The special needs shelter open at 10 a.m. at the Alachua County Senior Center at 5701 NW 34th Blvd. Anyone needing to arrange special needs transportation may call the county beginning at 9 a.m. Thursday at the following numbers: (352) 955-2575, (352) 955-2576, (352) 955-2577, or (352) 955-2579.

Pet-friendly shelters

The pet-friendly shelter at Easton Newberry Sports Complex will open at 10 a.m. That address is 24880 NW 16 Ave. in Newberry.

The second pet-friendly shelter will open at 5 p.m. at the Waldo Community School at 14450 NE 148th Ave. in Waldo.

You're encouraged to bring basic pet supplies such as collars, leashes, crates, carriers, towels, blankets, pet medications, food and proof of vaccinations. Animals without vaccinations will have them done on site to prevent the spread of illness. Animal Services and support staff will be on-site to make sure both animals and people are safe.

The general population shelters will not provide cots, beds or bedding. You're encouraged to bring special dietary foods, child necessities, prescription medications, clothing, personal care items and a small cooler.

To stay informed about current conditions and threats in Alachua County you're encouraged to call 311, the Alachua County Information and Rumor Control Line. The number cannot receive texts.

9.9 The National Weather Service issued a hurricane warning for the Gainesville area Saturday as Hurricane Irma continues to track west. The latest models show Irma hugging the west coast of the Florida peninsula. Forecasters say Irma could be a Category 1 or 2 hurricane by the time it reaches North Central Florida. Hurricane force winds are possible, especially to areas west of Interstate 75. Forecasters warn the storm could shift back east. The most serious time of impact is late Sunday through Monday.

Officials in Alachua, Gilchrist, Levy, Columbia and Marion counties are urging residents to find a safe place to shelter. Alachua County is under a voluntary evacuation, especially for people in flood-prone areas or in mobile homes. The sheriff's office says no curfew has been issued

ISSUE: CRIME

9.19 The University of Florida's senior director of housing was arrested today after authorities say he spent more than $180,000 in school money to buy furniture and electronics. UF Police charged 41-year-old Azfar Mian with grand theft after obtaining a search warrant for his Micanopy home this morning.

University spokesperson Janine Sikes said five university employees who worked under Mian have also been placed on administrative leave for potential involvement. Sykes said Mian made $170,000 a year. A report released Monday afternoon says Mian told detectives he was "storing" the items for the university and offered to pay restitution. He was then arrested and put on trespass notice. It wasn't immediately clear Monday if Mian has an attorney. The report the university started investigating Mian in April after they received several reports that several employees in the housing department were using department funds for private gain. The school says the investigation is still ongoing but that the audit discovered "gross misconduct" by Mian. Investigators say he spent more than $180,000 using his assigned purchasing credit card. Here's what the audit found, according to the report:

- $44,910 in fraudulent furniture purchases
- $44,108 in miscellaneous items, including Internet, electricity and seven cell phones
- $37,171 in fraudulent electronics purchases
- $24,800 in fraudulent household items
- $16,308 in reimbursed lunches claimed to be for business
- $1,798 in FedEx purchases

The report says Mian used his purchasing card to buy a dining set from Furniture Kingdom in 2016 and wrote the items were for an "advisor residence." The report says there are four advisor residences on the campus but the set would not fit in any of them. A witness told deputies they saw the dining set in Mian's home. The report says they also found pictures of the furniture on Mian's wife Facebook page. The pictures also showed several other items purchased with the school's credit card, the report says.

9.21 Gainesville Police investigators say a suspect's eyeglasses and YouTube videos helped them connect him and two other men to an August home invasion near the University of Florida campus. Officers arrested 20-year-olds Blake Chisolm and Willis Lubin Wednesday with the help of the U.S. Marshals Florida Regional Fugitive Task Force. They're still searching for 28-year-old Brinson Pierre-Fils. All three men are from Ocala. Police say the three armed men broke into an apartment at Lyncourt Square Apartments on Aug. 25 to rob the victim of marijuana. They say the victim fought Lubin over the gun, causing it to fire, grazing the victim's hand and striking a wall. Detectives say the victim overpowered the men, causing them to run from the apartment. Police say they were seen by another resident who heard the gunshot and that two of the men were caught on security video. Police say Chisolm lost his glasses during the robbery. They say they were able to compare the glasses to multiple rap videos Lubin and Chisolm had posted to YouTube. They were also able to compare the rap videos to the security video. Lubin is charged with two counts of home invasion with a deadly weapon. He's being held at the Alachua County Jail on $750,000 bond. Chisolm is being held on $500,000 bond on one count of home invasion with a deadly weapon. Officers are still searching for Pierre-Fils. Anyone with information on his whereabouts is asked to call Gainesville Police Detective Rappa at (352) 393-7684. You can also remain anonymous by calling Crime Stoppers at (352) 372-STOP.

9.29 Alachua County Sheriff's deputies say they have captured an inmate who jumped the fence at a Gainesville treatment center Friday.

Deputies say Daniel Poole escaped from the North Florida Evaluation and Treatment Center on NE 55th Boulevard around 3 p.m. He was captured around 4:30 p.m.

Poole is facing charges of aggravated battery with a deadly weapon.

ISSUE: EDUCATION

8.8 As students register for school and teachers prepare their classrooms for the new year, Valerie Freeman is stepping into a new role- to tackle educational equity. Equity - a district priority but the first time Alachua County Public Schools have dedicated a position solely focused on outreach. "(We're) talking about some of the practice we can assist teachers with professional development", Freeman says. "To be able to achieve a success level for all students. No matter what cultural or racial kinds of restrictions may be present." Freeman has more than 26 years in education and says she understands the community, going back to her father representing the county as superintendent. CBS4 's Brooke Rayford sat with Freeman, the first Director of Education Equity and Outreach as she steps into the new role.

8.9 Hawthorne Middle-High School has been rated a 'D' school for three straight years. Under new state laws, if the school doesn't raise its rating, it may become a charter school or go under state control. A meeting at Hawthorne Monday night brought the community together, fighting to keep school traditions alive. Alachua County Public Schools spokesperson, Jackie Johnson said they had a full house at the meeting, with community members speaking out.

"They really bought into the need to do whatever it takes to help boost the achievement at Hawthorne High School, raise the grade, so that we can keep the school, local and under local accountability," Johnson said. The district has brought in a new principal, vice principal and numerous teachers, to help the school get to at least a 'C' rating. However Johnson said the changes don't stop there. "We're going to have a full time attendance person at Hawthorne because one of the biggest issues they had was students missing a lot of school," she said. Hawthorne mayor Matt Surrency said community members are also offering help by reaching out to help tutor students and support the local school. "I think a lot of people identify with the Hawthorne school because it could happen to any school. It's more of a family type bond we have here," Surrency said. With the community's passion and commitment along with practice testing and better education, Surrency said he has no doubt this school can push through. "We're all in. Everyone is on board, backing each other up...we're going to do this together," he said. The district is hoping to turn the school around, hoping to become an A-rated school by the end of the year.

9.20 Alachua County students would lose two of their Christmas vacation days and the day after New Year's under a plan to make up days missed because of Hurricane Irma. Students lost six instructional days because of the hurricane, though the state agreed to waive two of those days. The Alachua County School Board will vote Oct. 3 on making up the following four days:

- Dec. 18th and 19th.
- January 2nd.
- April 2nd.

Spokeswoman Jackie Johnson said the last two days in December and the day in April were already included in the calendar as make-up days. She said January 2 was selected because most people who work for the University of Florida and Santa Fe College would be returning to work that day as well.

ISSUE: CONSUMER SAFETY

8.9 Anchor: Students and parents beware, scammers are preying on back to school students and scamming them out of thousands of dollars. There are impersonators who claim they are from the IRS and demand payments for non-existent taxes like a "Federal Student Tax" and are told they must immediately wire the money or they would be arrested. The state attorney's office gave us some simple tips on how you can avoid falling prey

If you or someone you know fell victim to this crime, contact your local state attorneys office

8.17 How do you online date? Do you like? Swipe? Heart? Or even wink? Well that's what two alachua county men did when they met two girls on a dating website. What started off with simple conversation, turned into swapping cell phone numbers and the girls asking for nude and explicit pictures of the men... After women sent explicit pictures of themselves first...the men followed suit. And that...came at a price "shortly after in both incidences they were both contacted by a male who represented himself as the females father and let them know that the young woman was under age that send the photographs" And for a small fee of several hundred dollars, they would leave the men alone But it doesn't stop there. "an anonymous person that identified himself as a law enforcement investigator saying they had committed certain types of felonies that they were being investigated, they used some words that were off kilter for a law enforcement officer, so that's when they contacted the alachua county police department". A survey done by mcafee says that nearly 50% of adults have used their mobile device to share or receive intimate content -- and 16% have sent intimate content to complete strangers. So it's no surprise this kind of scam has been going on for years, preying on men and women that have sent explicit pictures of themselves, thinking their photos would be leaked...and scamming them out of thousands of dollars.

(standup) the solution to this is simple, when you send a picture, if you're not comfortable posting online yourself, then you shouldn't put it in the hands of someone else.

"anytime you're using an internet dating site please remember that the folks you are corresponding with can very easily post false pictures, they can claim to be an age in which they are not, they can lure you in into exchanging explicit photographs which we never condone, it's important to remember that you have to protect yourself". Luckily, the men did not end up paying the scammers, but if you or someone you know has been a victim of this, contact the alachua county sheriffs office reporting in gainesville gabby arzola cbs 4 news

9.15 The recent floods resulting from Hurricanes Harvey and Irma have destroyed over 500,000 cars – and possibly more. Now that the floods are receding, consumers are at risk of unknowingly purchasing flood-damaged cars that may be passed off as undamaged by sellers. This can have negative health and safety ramifications for consumers across the country.

ISSUE: CONSUMER INFORMATION

9.12 Now that Hurricane Irma has come and gone, many of the people from South Florida who evacuated north are now stranded in Gainesville without gas. Several cars were parked in front of the pumps at a Kangaroo gas station Monday afternoon but no one was going anywhere. One woman told CBS 4 Gainesville that she was a registered nurse from Tampa who really needed to get back to work. She said many people suffered a lot more because of storm than her but broke down in tears at the possibility she wouldn't make it back to work to help people. She said she could go maybe another 15 miles but didn't want to run out while searching for gas.

She and others were desperate to know when the dry stations around North Central Florida would be replenished. Gas has been at a premium since Hurricane Harvey hit Texas, and emergency operations officials said prior to the storm that Gainesville had the least gas in the state. Gov. Rick Scott promised gas would be shipped to the state to make sure everyone had enough to flee to safety. County Emergency Operations officials said Monday they didn't have any control or new information about the lack of gas.

9.13 If your home or business was damaged during Hurricane Irma Alachua County would like to hear from you. The county asks that you submit photos and damage information to the structure damage survey. The information will help the county receive a Presidential Disaster Declaration, which opens up FEMA recovery resources to county residents.

9.26 After Irma, GRU's general manager says customers could see a 30 percent rise in their September bill. Irma's aftermath prevented GRU from checking meters, which extended the billing cycle to up to 39 days, about 9 days more than usual. This month's bill is also an estimate based on September 2016's bill, which leaves some customers disgruntled. "Here you are in a rental town where there's different tenants," said landlord Phil Denton. "Different names on the bill...it's nonsensical." Denton's bill turned out to be 370 dollars when his bill is for a home that is currently vacant. Denton's water is turned off and all he has plugged in is the stove and a garage door opener. GRU says if September's charges exceed what was actually used customers will be compensated in October's bill. "Estimates are not desirable and it's our best tool to get a periodic bill out and we'll true it up with the next month," said Herb Firsching, GRU Customer Operations Director. "If we billed for consumption they didn't use in September, they won't pay more by what they use in October." Some disgruntled customers believe GRU may be trying to take advantage of them after the storm. "They wanted to maximize the cleanup revenue and get a few bucks from 20 thousand people," Denton said. In an email to commissioner Harvey Ward, GRU's general manager Edward Bielarski defends this charging method as "industry standards." He goes on to say, "It shows me what a long way GRU still has to go in our customer's eyes to have them trust us."

9.28 With hurricane cleanup efforts around Florida, Alachua County's Newberry Branch Library opened its doors for those who want to register for FEMA relief. "So far in Florida we have had 1.5 million registrations which is about 65,000 a day," said Suzy Wittmen, from FEMA media relations. "FEMA is here for the long haul—so take advantage." FEMA says claims can vary from things like major structural damage, to something small like an air conditioner blowout. "Sometimes the insurance doesn't cover everything, so this is both for people who have insurance, who are under insured and those who have no insurance," said Wittmen. FEMA also offers help for those who need disaster unemployment insurance or temporary housing. "If you have immediate housing needs or any other unmet needs, please specify that in your claim so FEMA can respond and help you," said Wittman.

FEMA's next stops are:

9/29 Hawthorne City Hall from 9 AM – 4 PM

9/30 Millhopper Library from 10 AM – 4PM

10/01 Millhopper Library from 1 PM – 5pm

ISSUE: HEALTH

7.11 GAINESVILLE, Fla. (WGFL) — Walfre Lopez got to see his daughter for the first time recently thanks to UF Health's first retinal implant. Lopez, 46, lost his eyesight to a genetic disorder more than 20 years ago. Thanks to what he calls a "bionic eye" he saw his 12-year-old daughter for the first time. He last saw his son when he was two. Dr. Syed Gibran Khurshid performed the surgery. "It was a very powerful moment when he turned on the device and he was able to see where the door is and the sun outside the windows like a bright flash," Khurshid said. Lopez told CBS 4 News he's looking forward to helping out more around the house and cooking. "Without this device I am not able to see anything," the Georgia man said. "When I have this device on ... it's changing my life because now it feels I'm a lot more independent."

9.29 If your allergies have kicked in since Irma's flooding, it's important to know what's causing them. Post-flooding allergies may not be because of the overgrowth of plants... but your home. Experts say hidden mold can stay inside your house long after flooding and hamper your breathing. "If you have drips, leaks, spills, especially with carpets, water is the enemy," says Randy Cantrell, Housing and Community Development Assistant Professor. "If it stays and is allowed to do it's thing, it will do terrible things to your sinuses." A common place to look for mold is in the bathroom. "Your ventilation fan is to remove water vapor," Cantrell said. "If you don't use a ventilation fan, water vapor is not escaping so you'll see it above your shower. If you see black dots above your shower, you know you have a problem. Mold grows on almost any material that stays wet for two days. The longer it's left, the faster it will grow. Cantrell recommends throwing away any items you can that were affected. If the humidity level is high enough, mold can even grow in dry areas. "I recommend highly a high quality humidistat in the home that tells you what is the true humidity of my home," Cantrell said. "Mold can start at anytime it doesn't matter what your reading is on the thermostat, it matters what the reading is on your humidistat." The National Center for Healthy Housing says affected areas that are less than 10 feet may be treated by the homeowner. When cleaning, wear protective clothing, eye-wear and gloves. Bleach may be used on places such as tile, but won't work on porous materials that collect moisture. "If you don't know what to do about, contact someone about it," Cantrell said. "Don't let your home be foreign to you. Get to know your home. It's for your own benefit and the safety of your children."

The NVFC is asking for your support by airing these PSAs to help get the word out about this need. The PSAs end with a call-to-action to visit www.MakeMeAFirefighter.org, where viewers can learn more, find local volunteer opportunities, and connect directly with their respective local fire department.

World Wildlife Federation- Anything is Possible- There are environmental issues that impact our planet. The only way we can spark change is to work together and truly make a difference. This PSA shows a beautiful array of animals to help educate on conservation efforts.

Make the Connection- US Department of Veterans- Strength over Silence- PSA designed to educate Veterans to reach out for mental health support. Reaching out is a strength not a weakness. There is help for our Vets.

Partnership for Drug- Free Kids Campaign- A series of PSAs to help understand the signs of drug use/abuse and the help that is available for those who need it.

-Heroin- Parents realize that their daughter has gone much further with drug experimentation than they ever imagined.

-Mind Your Meds- Make sure that the meds prescribed to you are being safeguarded against abuse.

-Pain Killers- Shows the importance of understanding the meds that you are taking.

-Opiates- A very big problem is the abundance of Opiates and how readily available they are.

-Susan- A mother opens up about her child's drug problem.

Narcanon- Alcoholic Help- While many people are affected by alcohol abuse, most don't know where to turn for help. This PSA lets people know that there is help for those in our community who need it. Together, we can help individuals get their life back.

Seat Belt Safety- Long Haul- Kids can always find a reason not to wear seat belts, and as parents or caregivers we can sometimes give in to their persistent objections. But one fact overrides all their weeping and whining: from 2009 to 2013, 1,522 children ages 8-14 died as passengers in motor vehicles, and almost half were unrestrained at the time. It's mandatory for kids to always buckle up, even on a quick trip around the corner. A new PSA campaign in both English and Spanish sends a clear, emphatic message to parents and caregivers of kids in cars: no excuses, no exceptions—wearing a seat belt is simply non-negotiable.

Teacher Recruitment- I Dare You!- There's tremendous opportunity on the horizon in America's classrooms, with half of our teachers ready to retire over the next decade. Filling their shoes will be challenging, since 9 of 10 top-tier students don't view teaching as a desirable profession. The potential shortfall could hinder our ability to lead the global economy. The human costs could also be enormous, since research shows that students with top teachers earn an average of $50,000 more than their peers over the course of their lifetimes. America urgently needs a pipeline of engaged, energized students who want to teach, particularly African Americans and Hispanics who make up 40% of today's K-12 students. The teacher recruitment PSAs make a compelling case for teaching as an innovative, fulfilling career for those who want to make more of their lives.

America's Family Physicians- Health is Primary- Health is Primary is a campaign to demonstrate the benefits of primary care with the aim of improving America's health care system. We want to ensure that we have a health care system that invests in keeping people healthy, provides comprehensive, coordinated care when needed and puts patients at the center of their care. Ultimately, we believe that health care should be focused on improving the health of all Americans and we know that a system with strong primary care can do this.

Best Friend Animal Society- Save them All Anthem- Goofy grins and soothing purrs. Ridiculous ears and reassuring paws. They motivate us to get moving, and remind us when to slow down. They provide us with a much-needed laugh, companionship and unconditional love. They are our best friends. This PSA shares this special reminder of what's important in life and help Best Friends spread the word about adopting your next pet. Together, we can Save Them All®.

Pediatric ER- R Baby- PSA that reminds all parents the a Pediatric ER is very different from an adult ER and to remember to take your children to the experts that know children and can take care of their needs

Social Security Administration: Life's Journey- A PSA which reminds people that Social Security is there through all the phases of their life's journey. Securing today and tomorrow is the message.

Humane Society- Bentley- Each year, 6-8 million dogs and cats will enter shelters and rescue groups, yet only half will be adopted. This leaves millions of healthy and treatable dogs and cats who still need our help to find a home. Millions of Americans will look for a new cat or dog to bring home. This PSA encourages them to find their furry friends at shelters and rescue groups. While not every shelter cat or dog will be a social media star, they all will star as someone's new best friend. Air new PSAs to encourage your community to Start a Story. Adopt today.

US Food and Drug Administration- Safe Use of Acetaminophen- Acetaminophen is an active ingredient found in hundreds of over-the-counter (OTC) and prescription medicines that are used to relieve pain and fever. It is also combined with other active ingredients in medicines that treat allergy, cough, colds, flu, and sleeplessness. In prescription medicines, acetaminophen is found with other active ingredients to treat moderate to severe pain. Using two or more medicines that contain acetaminophen or using more acetaminophen than directed can cause serious liver damage. The FDA has taken action to improve consumer safety regarding the safe use of acetaminophen. To learn more visit www.fda.gov/otcpaininfo

Poison Control- Make the Call- 2,200,000 poisonings occur annually, with nearly 50% of all exposures involving children younger than age 6. To address this threat, the Health Resources & Services Administration (HRSA) continues its Poison Help campaign with the "Make the Call" series of PSAs. The new installment of the campaign aims to reduce poisonings among Medicare and Medicaid audiences. By calling a Poison Help line, hospital visits can be prevented as 68% of calls are controlled by direction provided over the phone. Airing these PSAs can help us further the cause and help raise awareness for when to call the Poison Help line, and help eliminate poisonings and the $1.8 billion in medical costs and productivity loss.

Recycling-

48 HOURS: “The Secret Life Of Paige Birgfeld” (9:00-10:00p) – An updated rebroadcast on the June 28, 2007 disappearance of Paige Birgfeld, twice-divorced mother of three and a resident of Grand Junction, Colorado and the subsequent double-life uncovered by investigators following her disappearance. Following her divorce, Paige became the primary caregiver to her children and was described as such a devoted mother that the Mesa County Sheriff’s Department was convinced she would never have left on her own accord. As friends and family searched for her; her car was found abandoned and on fire in an empty lot. Her first husband, Ron Beigler became the focus of the investigation, when it was learned that the two had been on a date the day of her disappearance, but Paige’s friends and family were far more suspicious of the children’s father, Rob Dixon, as she had a troubled history with him. After a thorough inquiry, both men had solid alibis. As the investigation continued, it was discovered that Paige was also known as Carrie, a high-priced escort. Investigators then began to believe Paige was murdered by one of her clients. Using her cell phone records, police began carefully looking at all of her clients and eventually honed in on one man, Lester Ralph Jones, an ex-con who had served time for kidnapping and assault. Authorities searched his home, but will not discuss what evidence they uncovered. Search dogs led investigators from Paige’s car to an RV shop where Jones worked as a mechanic. Although authorities have zeroed in on Lester Ralph Jones, no charges have been filed and he denies any involvement. The lack of a body, coupled with Paige’s secret life, have made it that much harder to prove anything beyond a reasonable doubt. Her friends and family continue their search. On-screen text graphic: Paige Birgfeld’s parents sought custody of her children, but the courts ruled they would remain with their father, Rob Dixon. The investigation is continuing into the disappearance of Paige Birgfeld. 09/05/15 UPDATE: In 2007, five years after Paige went missing there was a break in the case: a hiker came across human remains which police eventually identified as Paige. Although the evidence is still circumstantial, Chief Deputy DA Dan Rubenstein, who is now heading the investigation, believes he has enough to make a case against Lester Ralph Jones. In 2014, Lester Ralph Jones was arrested and charged with her murder and kidnapping. Now, prosecutors must prove he killed her. On-screen text graphic for the 09/05/15 rebroadcast: Paige’s three children are living with their father on the east coast. Lester Ralph Jones’ trial is expected to begin in early 2016. 07/01/17 Epilogue: In July 2016, nine years after Paige Birgfeld went missing, Lester Ralph Jones went on trial. After a six-week trial, the jury was deadlocked. A mistrial was declared. A second trial occurred just after Christmas 2016, and the jury reached a verdict: Jones was convicted of kidnapping and murder and sentenced to life in prison without parole. (Original Correspondent: Harold Dow; Correspondent for the 09/05/15 and 07/01/17 Updated Rebroadcasts: Erin Moriarty – Original Producers: Loen Kelley, Sara Ely Hulse, Ira Sutow; Producers for the 09/05/15 Updated Rebroadcast: Tom Seligson, Sara Ely Hulse, Lindsey Gutterman; producers for the 07/01/17 Updated Rebroadcast: Tom Seligson, Sara Ely Hulse, Lindsey Schwartz) (OAD: 06/10/08 as 48 HOURS VANISHED: “The Secret Life Of Paige Birgfeld”; 1st Rebroadcast: 02/28/09 as a 48 HOURS MYSTERY, which included a brief updated text graphic at the conclusion. 2nd Rebroadcast: 03/27/10 as 48 HOURS MYSTERY: “The Secret Life Of Paige Birgfeld”; 3rd Rebroadcast: 09/05/15)

48 HOURS PRESENTS: “Crime and Punishment” (10:00 – 11:00p) - a report on what happens to a family after a murder rips them apart; and the nearly 25-year quest by Tippy Dhaliwal and Jeanette Marine, two California women, who are determined to deny their step-father Dennis Ott’s parole for the murder of their mother Phonthip Ott. Each time Ott comes up for parole, the sisters are there to fight for their mother and vow to never give up. The two women are steadfast in the belief that their step-father Dennis Ott, murdered their mother. In 1992, Phonthip Ott’s body was found by a fisherman in the Sacramento River in Sacramento, California. The police investigation dragged on for nearly two years. Eventually, Ott was charged with the murder. He was tried, convicted and sentenced to life in prison with the possibility of parole. Ott has maintained his innocence, which could be a sticking point in the parole hearings. Admitting guilt or showing remorse isn’t mandated, but legal experts believe it goes a long way with those deciding whether prisoners are paroled. The daughters realize that their fight for justice did not end with a guilty verdict; they must face Ott year-after-year to keep him in prison. Tippy Dhaliwal has been diagnosed with cancer, but she and Jeanette vow never to give up. At this hearing, Ott is again denied parole and must remain in prison. He will be eligible for another hearing in two-and-a-half years. Original On-screen text graphic: Dennis Ott’s parole hearing has been moved up to October 2017. Tippy’s health is better and both she and Jeanette plan to continue fighting Dennis Ott’s release. On-screen text graphic for the 07/01/17 rebroadcast: On May 17, 2017, Dennis Ott had another parole hearing. It was denied. Ott’s next parole hearing will be in three years. Tippy and Jeanette will continue to fight Ott’s release. Interviewed: Jeanette Marine and Tippy Dhaliwal (daughters); Dennis Ott (step-father); Paul Parker (Sutter County Sheriff); Larry Lewis (Jeanette and Tippy’s grandfather); Vicky Van Atta (Sutter County District Attorney’s Investigator); Frank Hartzell (former reporter, Appeal Democrat); Marin Atkinson (Ott’s mother); Jennifer Shaffer (executive director, California Board of Parole Hearings); Amanda Hopper (Sutter County District Attorney) (C: Tracy Smith - Marcelena Spencer) (OAD: 01/07/17 as 48 HOURS: “Crime and Punishment”)

48 HOURS: “The Soldier’s Wife” - an interview with, and a report about Skylar Nemetz, a former Army infantryman who admits that he shot his wife Danielle, in their Lakewood, Washington home in October of 2014, after returning home from a 3-week deployment. He maintains it was an accident and that he did not think the gun was loaded. Eighteen months after the shooting, Skylar Nemetz is on trial, awaiting a jury’s verdict. The prosecution maintains a jealous Nemetz shot Danielle in the back of the head while she was seated at a desk looking at her computer. She died instantly. Skylar Nemetz’s mother, Danette Heller, believes in her son, and he and his family see the incident as an accident. They have hired a top-notch legal team to defend Skylar. There is no dispute that Nemetz caused Danielle’s death; the question is if it was murder or manslaughter. At trial, Skylar is portrayed as a jealous, angry, and controlling husband. The defense called Skylar to testify, and called for the jury to find him guilty of manslaughter, not murder. The case goes to the jury, who deliberated for seven days: the verdict: manslaughter in the first degree. Four jurors agreed to speak to Erin Moriarty about their verdict, and even though they felt Skylar was coached, rehearsed and theatrical, they could not see that the prosecution proved its case. Three weeks later, Skylar received the maximum sentence. Original On-screen text graphic: Skylar Nemetz is appealing the length of his sentence. Skylar Nemetz will be eligible for parole in 12 years. He will be 33 years old. On-screen text graphic for the 07/08/17 rebroadcast: Skylar Nemetz is appealing his thirteen and a half year sentence. His earliest possible release will be in 2028. Skylar will be thirty-four years old. Interviewed: Skylar Nemetz; Danette Heller (Skylar’s mom); James Peltier (Danielle’s former neighbor and father figure); Michaela Yingling (Danielle’s best friend); Erin Mikolai (Danielle’s coach); Anthony Faas (Skylar’s army buddy); Greg Greer and Michael Stewart (Deputy Prosecuting Attorneys); Ralph Flick, Mike Duncan, Brad Hardesty, and Shane Vandervloedt (jurors). 48 HOURS: “Breaking Point” (9:00 – 10:00p) – the first hour of back-to-back editions dealing with the investigation into the 2012 death of 29-year-old lawyer Ryan Poston, at the hands of his on-again/off-again girlfriend Shayna Hubers, who admits to killing him, but who claims it was self-defense. At the time of his death, Ryan Poston was a young successful attorney with a bright future ahead of him. Shayna Hubers’ family and friends also thought she would be successful in all she did. The couple met on Facebook and dated on and off for 18 months. Ryan was busy with his career and not ready to settle down, but found it hard to let go of Shayna. According to Ryan’s friends, Shayna’s behavior became obsessive. He told her he was not seeing her on the weekend of October 12, 2012, but did not tell her that he had a date with another woman. He did not make the date: a 911 call to police was made by Shayna, telling police she had shot her boyfriend in self-defense. Police were suspicious from the start. She had shot him six times. Shayna also talked endlessly during the 3-hour interrogation video and then, when alone, she danced and sang songs. Friends said Ryan was not an abuser. She was charged with murder. Investigation revealed that, after the shooting, she waited 10 minutes to call 911. She also texted endlessly; there were thousands of text messages to Ryan, most of which he did not answer. Yet, because of Kentucky laws, he could not get a restraining order. Prosecutors believe that Shayna could not deal with Ryan’s rejection and that her rage sent her over the edge. She believed it was over for good and would have none of it. Now it is 2014, and she has been jailed since 2012 awaiting trial. Interviewed: friends of Ryan Poston’s: Matt Herron and Allie Wagner; mentor, attorney Ken Hawley and his assistant Lori Zimmerman; Shayna’s friend, Sarah Robinson; Ryan’s neighbor, Nikki Carnes; Lieutenant Dave Fornash; Highland Heights, Kentucky Police Chief Bill Birkenhaur; Prosecutor Michelle Snodgrass; Shayna’s mother, Sharon Hubers ; and neighbor Doris West. 48 HOURS: “Obsessed” (10:00 – 11:00p) - the second hour of back-to-back editions dealing with the investigation into the 2012 death of 29-year-old lawyer Ryan Poston, at the hands of his on-again/off-again girlfriend Shayna Hubers, who admits to killing him, but who claims it was self-defense. In 2014, two and a half years after the crime, the trial is set to begin. Central to the trial is what Shayna told police. Prosecutors believe the only person in danger that night was Ryan Poston, and that Shayna acted out of hate. Ryan did not want to see Shayna anymore. There were no signs of a violent struggle, as Shayna had suggested happening. Shayna’s mother, Sharon Hubers, cannot comprehend what is happening to her daughter. The defense must convince the jury that Ryan was the aggressor. A verdict is reached: guilty of murder. The court re-convenes for sentencing. Shayna Hubers, who has been diagnosed as a narcissist, addresses the court, but never apologizes to Ryan’s family. Shayna Hubers is sentenced to 40 years. 07/15/17 Epilogue: One year later, a surprising development: a new trial is ordered. The verdict was overturned due to a problem with the jury. Shayna will be tried all over again, in about a year. Ryan’s family is ready. Original On-screen text graphic: Shayna Hubers’ appeals attorney is asking for a new trial. A convicted felon served on the jury and should have been disqualified. 07/15/17 On-screen text graphic: Shanya Hubers remains in jail without bond. Interviewed: friends of Ryan Poston’s: Matt Herron and Allie Wagner; mentor, attorney Ken Hawley; Highland Heights, Kentucky Police Chief Bill Birkenhaur; Prosecutor Michelle Snodgrass; Shayna’s mother, Sharon Hubers; and Ryan’s cousin Carissa Carlisle. 48 HOURS: “The Mortician, The Murder, The Movie” – an investigation into the 1996 death of Marjorie Nugent, a wealthy Texas widow, who was shot dead by her constant companion, Bernie Tiede, a mortician 40 years her junior; the film the case inspired; and the latest twist in the case, which has thrust the story back into the headlines. Bernie Tiede arrived in Carthage, Texas in 1985 and became a popular figure around town, eventually becoming the constant companion of Marjorie Nugent following the death of her husband. In 1996 Tiede shot Nugent and hid her body in a freezer, where she remained for nine months. All along, Tiede maintained she was alive, but when police searched her home, he confessed to the crime and was sentenced to prison. The bizarre story captured the attention of filmmaker Richard Linklater, who made it into the 2011 film, “Bernie”. The film caught the attention of lawyer Jodi Cole, who raised allegations that Tiede was abused as a child and by Nugent, leading him murder Nugent. Marjorie Nugent’s family maintains Tiede is conning everyone, and that he killed Marjorie Nugent to hide the fact that he had squandered the widow’s money. Original On-screen text graphic: Bernie Tiede will be eligible for parole in 2029. He will be seventy years old. His attorneys are appealing his sentence. On-screen text graphic for the 07/22/17 rebroadcast: Bernie Tiede is appealing his sentence. Teide will be eligible for parole in 2029. 48 HOURS: “Death on the Hudson” (9:00 – 10:00p) – an updated rebroadcast on the case against Angelika Graswald, who has been charged with killing her fiancé Vincent Viafore, during a kayaking trip on the Hudson River in April 2015. New information and evidence may prove there was no murder. Ten days after Viafore’s death, Graswald was questioned by police for approximately 11 hours, then arrested for murder in the second degree. Investigators maintain Graswald killed Viafore for financial gain after their relationship soured. Her defense team argues his death was a boating accident. The case is examined through interviews with legal experts, friends of the couple and an examination of key evidence in the case. 07/29/17 Epilogue: After years of proclaiming her innocence, Graswald pleaded guilty to criminally negligent homicide. The Orange County District Attorney explained the decision to downgrade the charges, saying it would be difficult to prove intent, even though she did admit to pulling the plug from the kayak. Pulling the plug would only cause death when combined with a number of other factors. This plea spares her a possible twenty-five years to life prison term; with time served, she could be on parole by the end of the year. Original On-screen text graphic: Angelika has been in jail for more than four months. Her trial is expected in Spring 2016. Angelika’s family says they are giving their life savings to help pay for her defense. On-screen text graphic for the 07/29/17 updated rebroadcast: Angelika Graswald is scheduled to be sentenced November 1, 2017. Schwartz, a wealthy well-respected kidney specialist was found dead -- shot, stabbed and beaten. Police discovered his body in his home after his second wife Rebecca called to report a robbery. Police investigation uncovered a family with strained relationships, different allegations on what may have happened and a secret life that Dr. Schwartz had hidden from his offspring. A year after the murder, police arrested Leo Anton Stragaj, an employee of Schwartz's. Stragaj admitted to seeing the body and not calling police, he says due to his immigration status. Also uncovered in the investigation were reports about Schwartz killing a dentist in 1961 in a botched robbery attempt in New Mexico. He spent nine years in prison before his sentence was commuted. He and his accomplice, Phillip Dyer, went on to live accomplished lives. Carter Schwartz, his son from his first marriage, was completely unaware of this information. 48 HOURS

48 HOURS: “Death By Text” – an updated rebroadcast about the death of Conrad Roy III, and the groundbreaking case against Michelle Carter, who prosecutors say influenced Roy, via text messages, to kill himself. On July 12, 2014, Conrad Roy died of carbon monoxide poisoning after sitting in his truck with a gas-powered water pump running in the backseat. Prosecutors say Roy was driven to kill himself through hundreds of incessant messages from Carter, who was more than 30 minutes away at the time he died. Carter was later charged with involuntary manslaughter. Her defense team maintains Roy decided to kill himself on his own. As seen through his own videos, Conrad Roy talked about his own struggles with social anxiety, depression and thoughts of suicide. His mother Lynn Roy, also talks about the death of her son and the pain she lives with. Though they lived an hour apart in Massachusetts, the couple communicated almost exclusively via texts, online and by phone. The prosecution maintained Carter could have done something to stop Roy. The heart of the case is the question of whether Carter’s texts and messages pushed Roy to take his life, or would he have done it anyway. Prosecutors argued that Carter played on Roy’s mental health and her actions were reckless; she knew what she was doing and just wanted attention. The defense maintains Carter had her own psychological problems and that she was also involuntarily intoxicated by the antidepressant drug Celexa: she was enmeshed in the delusion that it was a good thing to help him die. The prosecution hoped the judge paid attention to the text Carter sent to her friend a week after his death, in which she admitted she could possibly go to jail. After three days of deliberation, the judge rendered his verdict, completely rejecting Carter’s defense and finding her guilty. At sentencing Michelle Carter could receive twenty years behind bars. The Roy family knows that words have power, and that they can forever change lives. Update for the 08/05/17 updated rebroadcast: Nearly seven weeks after being convicted, Michelle Carter, arrives for sentencing. The prosecution asked that Carter serve 7-12 years in prison. Her attorney requests probation. Judge Lawrence Moniz sentences Michelle Carter to fifteen months behind bars – a sentence that does not please the defense, who will appeal the conviction. Her attorneys request to stay the jail sentence. The judge grants the stay, meaning Michelle will be out on probation until the appeal makes its way through the Massachusetts court system. Neither Michelle nor her family, have reached out to the Roy family. On-screen text graphic for the 08/05/17 updated rebroadcast: Lynn Roy has filed a 4.2 million wrongful death suit against Michelle Carter. The goal is to establish a memorial for Conrad. Interviewed: Lynn Roy (mother); Camdyn Roy and Morgan Roy (sisters); Aryanna Taylor (friend of Conrad Roy); Ed McFarland (Carter’s softball coach); Bob McGovern (Boston Herald legal columnist); Harold Koplewicz (child and adolescent psychiatrist). 08/12/17

48 HOURS: “Eleven Hundred Miles to Murder” - an investigation into the 2015 murder of Dr. Teresa Sievers, a Bonita Springs, Florida doctor murdered inside her home and the investigation that led to two suspects eleven hundred miles away in Missouri. Police initially suspected her husband Mark Sievers, but he had an airtight alibi. A tip led police on a 1,000 mile trip that took the case in an unexpected direction. Mark Sievers believed there might be a tie to other suspicious deaths of doctors around the country. Eventually, Mark Sievers became a person of interest. Two months after the murder, police arrested two men in Missouri and charged them with Dr. Sievers murder: Curtis Wayne Wright (aka Wayne Wright), and Jimmy Ray Rogers (aka “The Hammer”) traveled from Missouri to Florida and murdered Dr. Sievers. What would be the motive? Police learned that Wayne Wright was a friend of Mark Sievers; that Mark had taken out five life insurance policies on Dr. Sievers; that the two had an open marriage, money problems and other serious issues. Eight months after the murder, facing the death penalty, Wayne Wright admitted to killing Dr. Sievers and accused Mark Sievers of being the mastermind behind the crime. Mark Sievers was then charged with the murder of his wife. Mark Sievers and Jimmy “The Hammer” Rogers have both pleaded not guilty and will be tried together. On-screen text graphic: Mark Sievers and Wayne Wright are being held in different jails. Teresa’s mother is now guardian of the Sievers children. No trial date has been set. On-screen text graphic for the 08/12/17 rebroadcast: Teresa Sievers’ brother filed a wrongful death suit against Mark Sievers. 08/19/17      48 HOURS: “Last Chance for Freedom” (8:00 – 9:00p) – an updated followup to “Reasonable Doubt” (OAD: 11/01/99), and its retitled rebroadcast, which included an update, “Impossible Mission” (OAD: 07/10/00). This followup continues the report on Crosley Green, who in 1990, despite his claims of innocence, was convicted of the murder of Charles “Chip” Flynn in a Titusville, Florida orange grove and sentenced to death. Green has spent the last 26 years, with help from lawyers and private investigators, trying to prove his innocence. This report reveals new evidence that suggests Crosley Green is innocent. At the time of the murder, Green was a small-time drug dealer who said he was two miles away when Flynn was killed. Green was arrested after Flynn’s former girlfriend, Kim Hallock, told police that she and Flynn had been carjacked by a black man with a gun and driven to a remote orange grove. Flynn was killed, but Hallock escaped. She identified Green from a picture photo lineup. Green’s state appeals -- nine of them -- are now exhausted, but his current attorneys Keith Harrison, Bob Rhoad and Jeane Thomas, along with an original private investigator Joe Moura (now a 48 HOURS consultant) have one last hope: federal court. They believe they have enough evidence that the conviction is part of a distinct pattern and practice of government misconduct in Brevard County. Three other men, Bill Dillion, Juan Ramos, and Wilton Dedge have had their convictions overturned; two of them were prosecuted by Christopher White. Green’s attorneys believe that what makes this case different is a mountain of evidence that demonstrates Crosley Green is actually innocent. At the heart of their case are notes from Assistant State’s Attorney Christopher White’s meeting with officers Mark Rixey and Diane Clarke (who speak to 48 HOURS for the first time). Green’s lawyer says that their notes say they think the girl (former girlfriend Kim Hallock) killed Flynn. White is asked about the possibility that Flynn’s death was a result of something other than intentional murder. He says he believes the judicial system worked. Update for the 08/19/17 updated followup: This past June, the 11th Circuit Federal Court of Appeals said it will allow Green’s attorneys to argue in person why his case should not have been dismissed. If the panel agrees, Green will finally get his case heard in federal court. On-screen text graphic: The Florida Attorney General’s Office is fighting to uphold Crosley Green’s conviction. They say Green failed to meet a filing deadline for his appeal. On-screen text graphic for the 08/19/17 updated followup: Crosley Green’s attorneys are expected to make their appeal in court in November 2017. Interviewed: Crosley Green; Keith Harrison, Bob Rhoad, Jeane Thomas (Green’s attorneys); Tim Curtis (bodyshop owner/friend of Chip Flynn); Joe Moura (private investigator/48 HOURS Consultant); Sheila Green (sister); Lisa DiMeo (criminologist); Mark Rixey and Diane Clarke (Brevard County officers); Christopher White (prosecutor); Bill Dillion (falsely convicted); Mike Pirolo (Dillion attorney); Wilton Dedge (falsely convicted). 08/19/17      48 HOURS PRESENTS: “Princess Diana: Her Life / Her Death / The Truth (9:00 – 11:00p) - a two-hour report examining the public and private life of Diana, Princess of Wales, who died on August 31, 1997 in a car crash with her boyfriend, Dodi Al Fayed, in the Alma tunnel in Paris. Through the words of those who knew her and admired her, through her own words, and through the archives of CBS News, this program examines the impact Princess Diana had on Great Britain, the monarchy and the world. From her 1981 wedding to Prince Charles until her tragic death, Diana was a complex, unpredictable woman who captured the hearts of the public -- during her royal marriage, her reemergence into public life following the royal divorce, her death and beyond. Her death was just as controversial as her life, as described through four independent investigations in two separate countries. The various theories are examined about what really happened the night she was killed in the car crash. The conclusion of the broadcast updates viewers on how her sons, Prince William and Prince Harry, are honoring their mother’s good works, which helped to bring the British monarchy into the modern age. Interviewed: Lana Marks (Diana’s friend); Patrick Jephson (Diana’s private secretary); Ken Wharfe (Diana’s Scotland Yard Royal Bodyguard); Sally Bedell Smith (author, Diana in Search of Herself); Ingrid Seward (editor, Majesty Magazine); Richard Kay (Diana’s friend, Royal Commentator, “Daily Mail”); Peter York (writer); Mary Robertson (Diana’s friend and employer); David Starkey (Royal Historian, CBS Consultant); Wayne Sleep (dancer); Trevor Rees-Jones and Kez Wingfield (Al Fayed Bodyguards); Roya Nikkahah (Royal Correspondent, “The Sunday Times”); Christina Lamb (Chief Correspondent, “The Sunday Times”); Tim Gunn (fashion consultant); Dai Davies (fmr. - 08/11/17      CBS NEWS SPECIAL: “Son of Sam” / The Killer Speaks - from 1976 to 1977, a serial killer terrorized New York City - killing six people and wounding seven others in seemingly random shootings. Originally dubbed the “.44 Caliber Killer” by New York newspapers, the victims were often couples in parked cars, and the women usually had shoulder-length, dark brown hair. As the victim count rose, the only substantial clues police had were two letters, one sent to the task force looking for the killer, and the other to newspaper columnist Jimmy Breslin, in which the killer identified himself as the “Son of Sam”. Diligent police work led to the capture of David Berkowitz, a 24-year-old postal worker from Yonkers, New York for the crimes. Now, in his first major television interview in a decade and his only interview about the 40th anniversary of his arrest, David Berkowitz speaks from Shawangunk Correctional Facility in Wallkill, New York. He tells Maurice DuBois (of WCBS-TV) about what led him to kill, his life before he became a murderer, and his life in prison today. 48 HOURS PRESENTS: LIVE TO TELL: “The Railroad Killer” - A report on the August 29, 1997 attack on two University of Kentucky students as they walked along the railroad tracks in Lexington, Kentucky. Chris Maier was killed by his attacker who then proceeded to stab, beat, and rape Holly Dunn, who miraculously survived her injuries. Fourteen months after Holly’s attack, Dr. Claudia Benton was murdered inside her Houston, Texas area home, located near railroad tracks. Lexington Detective Craig Sorrell received a call from ViCAP, a national crime registry database, linking the crimes. Through fingerprint analysis, they identified Rafael Resendez-Ramirez as the suspect. After his arrest, he was ultimately identified as Angel Maturino Resendiz. His trial started in May of 2000 in Houston; he was found guilty of capital murder. Holly testified in the penalty phase of the trial and identified Resendiz in court. The jury decided he was a future danger to society and the judge sentenced him to death. He was executed in June of 2006. Holly chose not to attend the execution. She has dedicated her life to helping other victims and founded Holly’s House, a child and adult advocacy center in Evansville, Indiana. Onscreen graphics: By the time of his execution, Resendiz was linked to at least fifteen murders in six states. Authorities learned he killed a teenage couple in Florida, just months before he attacked Chris and Holly. 48 HOURS: “Stalking: Out of the Shadows” (9:00-10:00p) and “Stalked” (10:00-11:00p) - a two-part investigation into stalking -- the victims, the stalkers, the dangers and long-term psychological damage this torment causes; and the efforts by actress Pauley Perrette to change ineffective laws that do not protect the victims. Also included: a report on the stalking death of singer Christina Grimmie, who was shot dead by an obsessed fan she didn’t even know was stalking her online; and an interview with Justin Massler -- a serial stalker with a diagnosed mental illness, who was arrested for stalking Ivanka Trump.

(1) Stalking: Out of the Shadows (9:00-10:00p) - the death of Christina Grimmie is detailed. She was shot dead by an obsessed fan she did not know was stalking her who showed up at a concert armed with two handguns and pulled the trigger, killing Grimmie and himself. The case was similar to the 1989 death of actress Rebecca Schaeffer, in that the stalker fantasizes that he is in a relationship with his victim and wants a permanent bond. Stalking is a silent crime with many victims afraid to speak out, fearing they will enrage their stalker. Also included: actress Pauley Perrette, a stalking victim herself, talks about her efforts to change stalking laws and the bonds she has formed with other victims. Perrette does not think her stalker will ever leave her alone. (OAD: 02/25/17)

(2) Stalked (10:00-11:00p) - some stalkers become obsessed with people they do not know. Leonora Claire has been stalked by a man she met only once, who read about her in a magazine and came to an art exhibit she curated. Serial stalker Justin Massler has been obsessed with her for nearly six years and she has lived in constant fear, believing he could harm her at any time. Massler, who has been diagnosed with a mental illness, will not leave her alone. In 2010, he was arrested for stalking Ivanka Trump, and previously targeted the Kardashian family. Now, the secret service is interested in him because of the Trump connection. Included is an interview with Massler, whom anchor Erin Moriarty tracked down and conducted an interview via the internet. His mother says he is living near her in Nevada and is getting medication. He has not contacted Leonora Claire in four months. On-screen text graphic: Christina Grimmie’s new single “Invisible” was just released by her family, ZXL Music and Republic Records. - 09/16/17      48 HOURS: “Hunted” - an investigation into the case of a serial rapist, who preyed on women young and old, in multiple states and over a period of years -- and the search to stop him. The rapist worked with military precision, tracking the women’s schedules, photographing them during the attacks and then forcing the women to shower or bathe as a way to clear out any evidence. Investigators from two Colorado police departments (Golden and Westminister) and the FBI pieced together the assailant’s trail through smart policing, collaboration and luck. In 2011, a Golden, Colorado case, led to a similar case in nearby Westminister, Colorado. In comparing details of the attacks, detectives realized they were on the trail of a serial rapist. That information and another nearby case led them to Marc O’Leary, a 32-year-old Army veteran, who was eventually arrested. O’Leary ultimately pled guilty to sexual assault charges and then agreed to talk about the crimes. This led to a rare glimpse into the mind of a serial rapist, something detectives could never have imagined. Also featured is the story of a young Washington woman who the detectives discovered had been raped by O’Leary. Initially, the Lynnwood, Washington police did not believe her story. After the truth came out, the police force received training regarding this mistake. On-screen text graphic: Stacy Galbraith is now an agent for the Colorado Bureau of Investigation. Edna Hendershot was promoted to the rank of sergeant with the Westminister Police Department. Galbraith and Hendershot both stay in contact with the women Marc O’Leary attacked. Interviewed: Mary (rape victim, not her real name); Stacy Galbraith (Golden CO police detective); Edna Hendershot (Westminister, CO police detective); Jonny Grusing (FBI Special Agent); Bob Weiner (Deputy Jefferson County District Attorney); Amy Wozny (O’Leary’s former girlfriend); Julie Pech (potential victim); Rodney Cohnheim (Lynnwood, WA Police Department Commander). (C: Maureen Maher - P: Chris O’Connell, Lauren Clark, Lindsey Schwartz) (OAD: 11/19/16)
- 09/23/17      48 HOURS: SOLVE THIS CASE: “Who Killed Kay Wenal” - an investigation into the unsolved murder of Kay Wenal, who was found murdered inside her Georgia home in 2008. The case has been difficult to solve because there were no fingerprints, no evidence of a break-in and the killer took the weapon with him. Kay did not seem to have any enemies and her husband had a solid alibi. The only clues in the case are an expletive-filled cut-and-paste note sent to a newspaper and a police sketch of a suspect seen the day before and the day of the murder by a neighbor. Investigators are asking the public-at-large to help solve the crime. Gwinnett County Police Sergeant John Richter and Lieutenant Steven Shaw, the current detectives assigned to the case, and investigators hired by Hal Wenal -- John Inosigna, Ned Timmons, a retired FBI agent and his ex-wife, investigator Kathleen Timmons, and retired Gwinnett County Police Lieutenant Charlie Bishop discuss the case --including their theories. Former FBI profiler Mary Ellen O’Toole discusses her opinions regarding the note sent to the Atlanta Journal-Constitution. The hope is that exposing critical evidence to a nationwide audience on television, online and on social media platforms will help to solve this case. Also interviewed: Pam Sleeper (Kay Wenal’s sister); David Hughes (contractor/business associate). On-screen text graphic: Anyone with information is asked to contact: Gwinnett County Criminal Investigation Division anonymous tip line at 770-513-5390. Crime Stoppers Atlanta: 404-577-TIPS/1-404-423-8477. (C: Erin Moriarty - P: Lisa Freed, Michelle Feuer) (OAD: 01/28/17)
- 09/30/17      48 HOURS SPECIAL: “OJ Simpson: Endgame” (9:00-10:00p) – on the eve of O.J. Simpson’s release from a Nevada prison after serving time on armed robbery charges, this report examines the ongoing fascination with former NFL star O.J. Simpson, the infamous and landmark trial for the murder of Nicole Brown Simpson and Ron Goldman, the controversy that surrounded it, the impact it had on race relations, how the verdict was more than just about a man on trial -- including the current and recent uproar over race, patriotism and free speech in America. Also included is the role of domestic violence in the murder trial and how the case impacted the careers of those involved. Interviewed: Fred Goldman (father of Ron Goldman); Tanya Brown (sister of Nicole Brown Simpson); Joe Bell (Simpson’s childhood friend); Harry Edwards (Prof. Emeritus, UC Berkeley); Ron Shipp (former LAPD Officer/Simpson friend); Jim Newton (former Los Angeles Times reporter); Sylvester Monroe (writer); Lili Anolik (Vanity Fair contributing editor); Kato Kaelin (infamous houseguest); members of Simpson’s defense team: Carl Douglas, F. 48 HOURS: “The Widow on Solway Road” (10:00-11:00p) – an investigation into the murder case against Raynella Leath for the death of her second husband, David Leath, who was found shot dead in his marital bed, the trial, and the mysterious death of the widow’s first husband, Ed Dossett, originally classified as an agricultural accident. Raynella and Ed Dossett were a power couple in Knoxville, Tennessee, where Dossett was the Knox County District Attorney General. Tragedy befell them, when Ed was diagnosed with terminal cancer; he then died in a freak accident on the family farm. Six months later, Raynella married David Leath, the local barber. After Leath’s death, the wheels of justice moved slowly, and Leath’s daughter, Cindy Wilkerson, filed a civil suit against Raynella. Prosecutors took notice and interest was revived in Dossett’s death. One theory was that Dossett’s unusual death was more about insurance money than cancer. His medical records were reviewed and the cause of death was ruled to be a morphine overdose. In 2009, Raynella went on trial for David Leath’s death but the jury deadlocked. In the second trial, she was convicted of first degree murder and sentenced to life in prison. After six years, the conviction was tossed out, because the judge was revealed to have been impaired by drug addiction. In 2017, fourteen years after Leath’s death, a third trial begins, but before the jury has a chance to deliberate, Judge Paul Summers (soon to be retiring), grants an acquittal (not guilty), dismissing the case; saying that prosecution had not met its case. Under Tennessee law, there is no appeal. Prosecutors are stunned. Jurors believe that, had they deliberated, they would have convicted her. Information also came to light about her trying to murder another man, Steve Walker, who had found out that his wife had given birth to Ed Dossett’s biological child. Raynella Leath is a free woman. On-screen text graphic: Prosecutors intend to file a petition to exhume the body of Raynella’s first husband, Ed Dossett, to gather more evidence. They will decide whether to review charges against her for his death. Raynella has moved back to the farm outside Knoxville on Solway Road. Interviewed: Diane Fanning (author); Cindy Wilderson (Leath’s daughter); Beth Roberts (Leath’s cousin); Steve Crump (prosecutor); Rebecca LeGrand and Josh Hedrick (defense attorneys); Dr. Greg Davis (Kentucky state medical examiner/defense consulting doctor); Steve Walker (intended victim); Paul Summers (trial judge, now retired); Michael Persicano, Jesse Caps, William McMichael (jurors) (C: Erin Moriarty – P: Josh Gaynor, Lisa Freed)

“Protecting the Sacred: Water, the Environment & Climate Change” – an interfaith special looking at how communities are responding to one of the greatest threats of our time. Featured are: (1) Dr. Christiana Zenner Peppard, associate professor of theology, science and ethics at Fordham University in New York, who discusses how water as a vital and life-giving resource is also one of the ways people feel the effects of climate change and what the implications are for individuals and society in the long term. (2) Last year, 10,000 Native American and non-native demonstrators took a stand against the construction of the Dakota Access Pipeline near Standing Rock Sioux Reservation in North Dakota. The construction of the fossil fuel pipeline near the tribe’s land put their only source of drinking water at risk. Tara Houska, national campaigns director for Honor the Earth and a member of the Couchiching First Nation in Ontario, reflects on native traditions, their role as environmental stewards and bringing attention to issues related to climate change. (3) Dr. Katharine Hayhoe, climate scientist and professor at Texas Tech University, speaks to the negative impact that climate change is having on the planet and how there is a narrow window of opportunity to mitigate further damage. (4) In Lancaster, PA, a grassroots coalition of people of faith and no particular faith formed “Lancaster Against Pipelines” three years ago to oppose the construction of a fossil fuel pipeline in the area. The Adorers of the Blood of Christ, a Catholic order of nuns, joined the resistance last year and recently filed a lawsuit against the Federal Energy Regulatory Commission (FERC) for authorizing the construction and operation of the Atlantic Sunrise Pipeline. Among those interviewed: Malinda and Mark Clatterbuck, co-founders, Lancaster Against Pipelines and Sister Sara Dwyer, ASC. (Narrator: Rolland Smith. Produce & Writer: Elizabeth Kineke.
