

4TH Quarter 2014 Community Issues Report Summary

WYLN'S LATE EDITION – This is an hour-long news program that features news stories of local, regional and statewide issues, regularly featuring comments from local officials with roles in those stories and their effects. It also provides the viewing audience with information on daily events happening in the area and reports on local and national sports stories. Regional weather forecasts are also provided. It is produced live and runs Monday through Friday between 10 PM and 11 PM. It is rebroadcast the following morning at 8 AM. (Video copies of this program are available upon request or may be viewed at WYLN's studios and offices during normal business hours. Scripts of the headlines run each day may be viewed at WYLN's studios and offices during normal business hours.

TOPIC A LIVE AT 5 – This is a program produced live every Friday. Hosted by Gary Perna, formally hosted by Ann Gownley. Guests on the show talk about issues of local, regional and statewide importance, along with important upcoming events that concern the public. This program is community oriented, and features local politicians, community leaders, and non-profit organizations. Topic A Live at 5, rebroadcasts seven times over the course of a week. This program is a continuation of two earlier programs, Topic A and 35 Weather. Those two programs had the same goals, but were done in separate half-hour programs. They began in 2010. They were combined into one program in the second quarter of 2011 and official changed during the 2nd quarter.

THE STORM - Each week host, Tiffany Cloud, discusses issues and concerns of a political nature and important issues that are taking place in the area. Previously known as Storm Politics, which main focus was on political issues. The name change was made to increase the topic matter, and allow more guests to voice their opinions and concerns on the program. (video copies of shows available at WYLN in Hazleton).
