

Issues and Programs

KISR

3rd Quarter July 1st -September 30th

2018

7/6/18

Issue: There is no funding for the construction and planning for the expansion of our trail system in Fort Smith.

Program: Casey was on the air on Kisser Good Morning from 8:01-8/14am to explain that all the money raised at the annual Trails For Ales event and concert go right into our community. The Ales for Trails event and concert is scheduled for Saturday 6/7/18. This was a last day plea for advanced ticket sales and walk up to the event. This year not only is Ales for Trails having the same great contests and demonstrations but they are also presenting Eve 6 as their concert. All proceeds from the event goes to our own community trail system.

8/13/18

Issue: The impact of Domestic Violence on our community.

Program: Steve Weaver from the Van Buren Police Department discussed the impact and effect of domestic violence and also services available to victims of domestic violence was on the air on Kisser Good Morning 8:02-8:14 am

8/22/18

Issue: Under privileged students need help to pay for their musical instruments.

Program: Shawn Bailey from UAFS was on the air on Kisser Good Morning from 8:11-8:17 am to promote the Shane Bailey Benefit. This is an annual event that provides support to local area musicians learn the music business, meet other musicians, and pay for under privileged students instrument cost.

8/28/18

Issue: Funding for the community's foster care programs and a shortage of foster parents in our area.

Program: Emily Treadway Director of The Call was on the air on Kisser Good Morning at 9:10am-9:21am on August 28th to urge everyone to come and support their big fund raising event "Restoring Hope A Night For The Waiting" Thursday October 4th 6:30-8:30pm at the Bonneville House 318 North 7th Street in Fort Smith. Emily also sent out a plea to our listeners urging them to consider becoming foster parents.

9/14/18

Issue: Financial help for families who have children who are suffering from spinal injuries or disease

Program: Bobby Banck was on the air on Kisser Good Morning at 7:57am-8:09am promoting “Play For Luke Tennis Tournament” with special guest speaker Andre Agassi. This event helps the families from our area with expenses for treatment and care.

9/19/18

Issue: Affordable Child Care for working parents who cannot afford it.

Program: The Director of the Lincoln Child Care Center was on the air on Kisser Good Morning at 8:02-8:12am to promote a fund raiser for the facility at the Little Theater for a performance of The Walking Dead. This fund raiser will enable the center to continue to provide affordable child care to families based on their income.