Job Postings - When a position becomes available, it is the general practice of the Station to internally post the job opportunity for all station personnel so they may apply for consideration for these positions. The notices list the titles and requirements for the positions. These job opportunity/postings are also sent to various community outreach groups, schools, and universities as well as other FOX Owned & Operated

Stations across the country. In addition, station openings are sent to www.21CF.com/careers and Foxcareers.com when the position is posted to the www.ktvu.com or www.kicu.com websites.

Section 3: Supplemental Outreach Activities – October 8, 2014 – July 31, 2015

KTVU/KICU regularly participates in national career/job fairs. Job Fairs provide applicants and potential candidates with the opportunity to learn about Fox Television Stations and the job opportunities and internship/mentoring programs available with our group. During this reporting period KTVU/KICU participated in the following national job fairs: 8/13 & 8/14/15: The Asian American Journalists Association Career Fair attended by KTVU/KICU HR Manager, Chris Nohr, KTVU/KICU VP News, Dana McDaniel and Linda DiStefano from TVHO HR. 8/18-8/20/15: Iris Sierra, FTS Regional HR Director, Jean Fromm, HR Director WOFL/WRBW/WOGX and Jeffrey Zeller, VP News Association (RTDNA), the Society of Professional Journalists (SPJ) and the National Association of Hispanic Journalists (NAHJ). 6/23 & 6/24/16: The Emma Bowen Foundation Career Fair attended by WNYW/WWOR HR Director, Roselyn Barranda and Fox Station Sales HR Director Dorian Kasuba. Prior to the Career Fair, Fox Television Stations hosted a Networking Reception with Emma Bowen fellows. Present at the FTS Networking Reception was Jean Fuentes, Linda DiStefano, and Heather Frascella from TVHO HR as well as Roselyn Barranda, WNYW/WWOR HR Director and Dorian Kasuba, Fox Station Sales HR Director.

Internship Program: KTVU/KICU has an internship program which provides opportunities for individuals enrolled in colleges and universities to receive academic credit for internships at KTVU/KICU. The program is structured to give students the opportunity to receive instructions and training from broadcasting professionals in an authentic work situation. The interns have the opportunity to participate in daily operations of various departments and develop skills that will be useful in their job search following graduation. The students work approximately 16 – 24 hours per week and receive college credit upon successful completion of their internship. Generally, internships are available in News, Creative Services and Community Affairs. During the reporting period, the Stations' Human Resources Manager, Chris Nohr and Program Administrator, Lisa Yokota, provided internships for 36 students.

Employee Enrichment/Training: KTVU/KICU conducts employee training throughout the reporting cycle to increase current skills and enable the staff to be more effective in their positions. This training included: Vemba training on new web content sharing procedures, Bitcentral CORE News, Edius Beginner, Edius Advanced, Bitcentral Story Creation, Bitcentral Production Control, Bitcentral Ingest/Edit, Grass Valley iTX Master Control, Investigative Reporting training through IRE which included training on use of social media and watchdog reporting, CPR/First Aid/Defibrillator, Hazardous Materials Business Plan, Hazardous Waste Handling, Spill Prevention Control and Countermeasure – to name a few.

“Career Awareness”/Station Tours: Throughout the reporting period, KTVU/KICU conducts station tours for various groups to explain television broadcast operations and careers. A total of four tours were conducted during this reporting period with a total of over 60 outside participants. Attendees included a Cub Scout group, a group of Laney College students, and a group of both high school and college interns from the Port of Oakland summer internship program.

“Career Awareness”/Student & Community Outreach Program: Throughout the reporting period, KTVU/KICU participated in student and community outreach programs to various elementary/middle and high schools; colleges and community groups to promote broadcast objectives and broadcasting career opportunities. KTVU/KICU participated in seventeen events held at local schools/colleges/community group events and fourteen employees presented information about the television industry and career opportunities in broadcasting. One of the major events participated in by KTVU was the Laney College Women's History Month Speaker Series where a KTVU News Anchor presented to a group of over 35 college students regarding broadcast careers.

WWW.KTVU.COM and WWW.KICU.COM serve the community by providing Californians with the latest news, weather, and traffic information including breaking news, severe weather alerts and traffic jams. Through this vital and active tool, news and information is widely disseminated. Station information available on our websites includes: internship program, employment opportunities and the Annual EEO Public File Report. In addition, the website also has direct links to many national sites. Our websites attract approximately 4.5 million page views and over 1 million unique visitors per month.

Community Board participation: KTVU/KICU participates, with other community leaders, on the following community board: A KTVU employee is President of the local chapter of NATAS (National Association of Television Arts and Sciences). TVHO HR President, Jean Fuentes, is on the Board for the Emma Bowen Foundation.

Mentoring: A KTVU employee is participating in a year-long mentoring program through 21st Century Fox's collaboration with American Corporate Partners. This is a mentoring program for veterans.
