We talk to two pirate researchers about who these men were, their exploits, and what their lives were really like.

Host: Marty Peterson. Guests: Charles Ewen, Prof. in the Dept. of Anthropology, East Carolina University, co-editor of "X Marks the Spot: The archeology of piracy"; Pat Croce, author of "The Pirate Handbook: A rogue's guide to pillage, plunder, chaos & conquest".

SYNOPSIS: This summer, a case came to the U.S. Seventh Circuit Court of Appeals involving the use of the characters of Sherlock Holmes and Dr. Watson in new works. The case was unusual in that the bulk of Sir Arthur Conan Doyle's stories of the great detective were in the public domain – but some weren't. The question was, if there are still some stories that are copyrighted, does that keep the characters copyrighted also? We talk to a Holmes aficionado and a copyright attorney about the case and its current resolution.

Host: Marty Peterson. Guests: Ed Fizzle, Portal editor for Everything Sherlock Holmes.com (www.everythingsherlockholmes.com); Edward Lee, Professor of Law, IIT Chicago-Kent College of Law, Dir. of the Intellectual Property Program (www.kentlaw.edu).

Host: Gary Price. Guests: Harlow Giles Unger, author of "John Marshall: The Chief Justice Who Saved the Nation," (www.harlowunger.com).
