Re: Retransmission Consent Election

Dear Mr. Ergen,

Although individual retransmission consent election letters have been sent to the individual headends of each of the systems owned by Dish Network, L.L.C. ("Dish") with respect to the television stations listed on Exhibit A hereto (the "Stations"), in order to avoid any doubt with respect to the elections by the Stations, pursuant to the provisions of Section 76.66(d) of the rules and regulations of the Federal Communications Commission, this letter shall serve as written notification that each of the licensees set forth on Exhibit A hereto, elects retransmission consent for carriage of the digital signal of television station listed together with such licensee's name, for the digital channels and virtual digital channels listed together with such licensee's name, licensed to the city of license, and serving the designated market area (DMA), all as listed together with such licensee's name. This election shall apply to all communities located wholly or in part of each such DMA, including all headends of Dish serving such communities, for the period beginning on January 1, 2012, and ending on December 31, 2014.

Any correspondence regarding retransmission matters with respect to any Station should be addressed to the name of the individual listed together with the name of licensee for such Station on Exhibit A hereto, the official contact person for retransmission consent issues at the address for such Station set forth on Exhibit A hereto, the station's address for receiving official correspondence.

If you have any questions concerning this election please contact me at (615) 259-5617.

Sincerely,

Michael Lambert
