

4th Quarter Issues and Answers on KCLV FM, KCLV AM, KTQM FM and KWKA AM

October 10 -Guests from Clovis Evening Lions Club with their upcoming gun knife and coin show at our Event Center. October 13-15 (8 minutes )

October 11- New Mexico Workforce Connection director spoke on special Rapid Hire Event. We have a shortage of workers needed in many fields. Event asks to come dressed to interview and be ready to fill many jobs in area and at Cannon Air Force Base. ( 7 minutes)

October 16th several retired veterans were in studio to speak on second annual benefits event coming to our local VFW Post 3280. Bring your release papers for help with any government situation state or federal. ( 7 minutes)

October 20- New Director has been appointed to head our regions Girl Scouts. Covered new programs for the girls and their achievements. (7 Minutes)

October 20- Ben Salazar the local point person for Congress Woman Terresa Ledger Fernandez announced his help with area residents working thru many things, social security, disability, and many more to assist and offered his phone number to work to meet the citizens need in our state. (9 minutes)

October 21 Carl Terry the Director for the Roosevelt Chamber of Commerce in to announce this years Peanut Valley Festival in Portales. 2 days of fun and music all free for residents. Entertainment, food and locals gather for fun and celebrate our local peanut production. (7 minutes)

October 27- 3 guests with the World Military Rodeo event being held in Clovis. All 3 were veterans putting this big event on here. National level local event . Spoke on reaching this level in rodeo. (10 Minutes)

October 31, Mr. Priest New Administrator for Plains Regional Medical Center introduced 2 new providers to our local hospital. Their new additions compliment existing providers especially more in Women Health care. Spok on Covid and other concerns and mentioned several times the need for all adults to get a flu shot. A free clinic for local folks was announced with date and time. (12 minutes)

November 9- John Mantano with more than 50 years in the military invited everyone for this years event of Veterans Day. For 5 days each VFW Club had open house, the Auxiliary, and supporting clubs opened their doors to everyone.

The actual event on Veterans Day the 11th with a guest Speaker announced and spoke on Wreaths Across America to put a wreath on every service person who has passed protecting this nation. (10 Minutes)

November 1 Christy Mendoza the director of Clovis Community College's Cultural Arts Series spoke on show coming up with the Anderson Quartet (jazz group) at our downtown theatre. Some of the performers were local ENMU Students.

November 10 Leslie Obe guest with a holiday bazaar this weekend at the Clovis Civic Center. Christmas shopping early with arts and crafts available there.

Spoke on displays and cost to attend.

November 22 Guests Director of the Lighthouse Mission Richard Gomez and Dean Turvaville President of the Board spoke on city wide celebration on Thanksgiving Day. Meal there at Lighthouse and fed several hundred shut in's as well with a good dinner.

December 5th same guests with a toy drive for needy children. Toys being gathered at Mr. Turvaville's office and given out at party for youth in need.

December 12 same guests with Christmas Party for our youth. Donated sacks of candy with fruit to give out and a pizza meal, games and fun.

December 18, same guests with city wide Christmas party, and meal on Christmas Day at Lighthouse Mission, at no charge for everyone who attends.

December 7, Andy Mason one of our most well known local performers has returned from a time in Europe. He is back on our local stages singing and playing for his many fans. With a speciality in childrens music he has something for everyone. Featured on several songs in our library.

December 13, Jeff Green the director of the Baxter Curren Senior Center with this months activity calender and music line up for dances, group trip and senior events again this month.

3 Regular Guests on a weekly basis with community information,

United Way Kirsten , Joell Reed from Cannon Air Force Base with whats going on base, and K C Messick the Manager of the Curry County Events Center with upcoming events.