- Ida Christmas Parade
  - December 14, 2013...5-7PM
  - December 25, 2013...7-9AM
  - For the 5th straight year, WUPW staff shot and produced a 2-hour special entitled "CHRISTMAS IN IDA: THE 2012 PARADE OF LIGHTS" that was broadcast from 5-7PM ET on Saturday, December 14, 2013. The special featured footage from the Ida, Michigan Christmas Parade. WUPW news talent hosted the parade and the special.

The Christmas in Ida Festival was founded in 1982 by the Ida Civic Club and sponsored by local area service organizations and businesses to share the holiday cheer from small town America.

From a small craft show, children's lunch with Santa, and a three-unit parade, the festival has become a family tradition and Midwest destination where over 40,000 visitors attend the weekend event.

The Parade of Lights is an extravaganza that features over 135 parade units sparkling with thousands of lights including, fire trucks, floats, parade balloons, cartoon characters, bands and marching groups that join farm implements in lighted displays that entertain an estimated 32,000 yearly visitors. The parade is telecast annually on broadcast and cable television.
