

For the WSPS Public File

October 4, 2017 [Updated February 28, 2018, see notation below]

Quarterly Issues/Programs List, WSPS 90.5 Concord

For the 3rd Quarter, July 1 – September 30, 2017

WSPS FM is licensed to St. Paul's School, a four-year high school. Issues of concern to the Concord community addressed in WSPS programming during the reporting period included the following:

- Civil Affairs/politics
- Civil Rights
- Income Inequality
- Racism
- Homelessness
- Health
- Diversity
- The Environment
- Women's Issues

WSPS seeks to provide an alternative voice to mainstream media (e.g., commercial stations, other non-commercial stations, newspapers, etc.) and address issues of concern to segments of the Concord community that are or may not otherwise be served.

In the third quarter the following programs were broadcast in the public interest of SPS and the community of Concord, NH.

1) Making Contact (syndicated program): Making Contact is a weekly public affairs program that presents perspectives rarely heard in the mainstream media.

During the quarter, the following shows were broadcast (all at 10PM unless noted otherwise) [and ran for 30 minutes]:

7/7/2017	10:00 PM	Dr. Keeanga-Yamahtta Taylor "From #BlackLivesMatter to Black Liberation" (Encore edition) [Issues addressed: social justice]
7/14/2017	10:00 PM	Finding Home: Displacement and Homelessness from Cape Town to California [Issues addressed: social justice, homelessness]
7/28/2017	10:00 PM	Walk the Talk: Stories of Indigenous-led resistance to oil and waste [Issues addressed: environmental stewardship]
8/4/2017	10:00 PM	Reclaiming Public Schools: Education in the Trump Era ENCORE [Issues addressed: access to education]
8/11/2017	10:00 PM	The Struggle Inside: The Murder of George Jackson [Issues addressed: racism, anti-prison movement]
8/18/2017	10:00 PM	Alicia Garza: On Historical Amnesia, and Fighting White Supremacy [Issues addressed: social justice]
9/1/2017	10:00 PM	Staying Rooted: Community Focused Economic Models, Cooperative Housing, and the New Economy Coalition [Issues addressed: community economic models and cooperative housing]
9/8/2017	10:00 PM	Women Rising Radio: Rescuing The Isolated and Displaced, Women of Doctors Without Borders [Issues addressed: social justice for displaced women]

9/15/2017	10:00 PM	The Ghosts of the Gwangju Uprising [ Issues addressed: world politics and impact of global instability ]
9/22/2017	10:00 PM	The Arrival: Trump's Travel and Refugee Ban [ Issues addressed: racism and discrimination ]
9/29/2017	10:00 PM	Language Is Life, Land is Sacred [ Issues addressed: importance of protecting culture and language ]
10/5/2017	10:00 PM	Mrs. Hamer, Echoes [ Issues addressed: social justice and racism ]

2) Live student broadcasts: during the 3rd quarter 2017, live student broadcasts took place during one week of the School's Advanced Studies Program (ASP). ASP is a five week program specifically for New Hampshire students from public high schools. Students were given the opportunity to participate in live broadcasts under the direct supervision of their teacher. These broadcasts took place in the evenings on of July 10th to July 13th.

3) Public Service Announcements: during live broadcasts SPS airs one 30 second or one minute PSA per hour. PSAs are kept in a wallet from which broadcasters pick. Broadcasters log the PSA along with the other items in the show log.

Signed,

Deborah J. Brann
General Manager
WSPS 90.5 Concord

Notation: Information noted above in bold italics and bracketed "[ ]" was added as additional information by the General Manager on February 28, 2018.

For the WSPS Public File

October 4, 2017

Quarterly Issues/Programs List, WSPS 90.5 Concord

For the 3rd Quarter, July 1 – September 30, 2017

WSPS FM is licensed to St. Paul's School, a four-year high school. Issues of concern to the Concord community addressed in WSPS programming during the reporting period included the following:

- Civil Affairs/politics
- Civil Rights
- Income Inequality
- Racism
- Homelessness
- Health
- Diversity
- The Environment
- Women's Issues

WSPS seeks to provide an alternative voice to mainstream media (e.g., commercial stations, other non-commercial stations, newspapers, etc.) and address issues of concern to segments of the Concord community that are or may not otherwise be served.

In the third quarter the following programs were broadcast in the public interest of SPS and the community of Concord, NH.

1) Making Contact (syndicated program): Making Contact is a weekly public affairs program that presents perspectives rarely heard in the mainstream media.

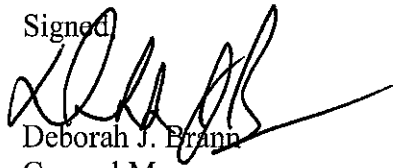

During the quarter, the following shows were broadcast (all at 10PM unless noted otherwise):

7/7/2017	10:00 PM	Dr. Keeanga-Yamahtta Taylor "From #BlackLivesMatter to Black Liberation" (Encore edition)
7/14/2017	10:00 PM	Finding Home: Displacement and Homelessness from Cape Town to California
7/28/2017	10:00 PM	Walk the Talk: Stories of Indigenous-led resistance to oil and waste
8/4/2017	10:00 PM	Reclaiming Public Schools: Education in the Trump Era ENCORE
8/11/2017	10:00 PM	The Struggle Inside: The Murder of George Jackson
8/18/2017	10:00 PM	Alicia Garza: On Historical Amnesia, and Fighting White Supremacy
9/1/2017	10:00 PM	Staying Rooted: Community Focused Economic Models, Cooperative Housing, and the New Economy Coalition
9/8/2017	10:00 PM	Women Rising Radio: Rescuing The Isolated and Displaced, Women of Doctors Without Borders
9/15/2017	10:00 PM	The Ghosts of the Gwangju Uprising
9/22/2017	10:00 PM	The Arrival: Trump's Travel and Refugee Ban
9/29/2017	10:00 PM	Language Is Life, Land is Sacred
10/5/2017	10:00 PM	Mrs. Hamer, Echoes

2) Live student broadcasts: during the 3rd quarter 2017, live student broadcasts took place during one week of the School's Advanced Studies Program (ASP). ASP is a five week program specifically for New Hampshire students from public high schools. Students were given the opportunity to participate in live broadcasts under the direct supervision of their teacher. These broadcasts took place in the evenings on of July 10th to July 13th.

3) Public Service Announcements: during live broadcasts SPS airs one 30 second or one minute PSA per hour. PSAs are kept in a wallet from which broadcasters pick. Broadcasters log the PSA along with the other items in the show log.

Signed

A handwritten signature in black ink, appearing to read 'Deborah J. Brann', written over the printed name.

Deborah J. Brann
General Manager
WSPS 90.5 Concord