

Issue	Program Information	Date	Time/Duration	Description
Community	In The Community Public Affairs Program	10/04/2020	6:30 am/ 25 min	Tom Friedle discusses details of the Boy Scouts Pinewood Derby, and info on getting involved with the Boy Scouts Organization
Health	In The Community Public Affairs Program	10/11/2020	6:30 am/ 25 min	Kathleen discusses the mission to educate the community on CPR and AED use, upcoming community health day and history of Gwyneth's Gift Foundation
Community	In The Community Public Affairs Program	10/18/2020	6:30 am/ 25 min	Humbling Experiences founder Ceyonna Lewis informs listeners about their youth mentoring program to help those struggling with a variety of social issues
Family/Health	In The Community Public Affairs Program	10/25/2020	6:30 am/ 25 min	Kelly Cassay the founder of Mason's Toy Box discusses needs for families with a sick or injured child, financial help and volunteer needs were primary topics
Health	In The Community Public Affairs Program	11/01/2020	6:30 am/ 25 min	Devlin Reiley discussing the growing need for exercise in the Covid era, and what families can do to stay fit as the weather turns colder and we stay inside more.
Community	In The Community Public Affairs Program	11/08/2020	6:30 am/ 25 min	Elizabeth Gilkey from the Fredericksburg Regional Food Bank talks about need for volunteers, donations and how those in need can get meals from the Food Bank.
Community	In The Community Public Affairs Program	11/15/2020	6:30 am/ 25 min	Humbling Experiences PART 2- founder Ceyonna Lewis discusses upcoming food drive event for holidays the Humbling Hungry Gobblers, and the increased need for families this year because of Covid.
Family	In The Community Public Affairs Program	11/22/2020	6:30 am/ 25 min	United Methodist Family Services, Angela Rivers shares information on adoption services, virtual resources available and the need for volunteers in the community.
Community	In The Community Public Affairs Program	12/06/2020	6:30 am/ 25 min	Stacy Franklin, the manager of Central Virginia Horse Rescue discusses the challenges faced in rehoming rescued horses in the area and how the winter months always present a spike in abandonment and neglect.
Community	In The Community Public Affairs Program	12/13/2020	6:30 am/ 25 min	Capt. Shauntrice Williams of the Salvation Army talks about the need for both money and toys this holiday season. Also, what people need to know on how the Salvation Army is doing things differently this year because of Covid-19.
Financial	In The Community Public Affairs Program	12/20/20	6:30 am/ 25 min	The CEO of Rappahanock Electric Co-op talks about what they are doing to help struggling families keep the power on this winter, and future plans to expand and bring broadband to areas that currently have no access.
Family	In The Community Public Affairs Program	12/27/20	6:30 am/ 25 min	Lisa, the CEO of Loisann's Hope House discusses the homeless problem in the area and how her organization is helping. Also covered were how people facing homelessness can get help and how to volunteer for those who wish to help.
Community	WWUZ Programming	10/01/20-12/31/20	1.1 hours	During the quarter, station aired 140 live liners and 630 recorded promos urging listeners to support local business affected by the pandemic.						