

WWUZ-FM 96.9, Fredericksburg Quarterly Issues/ Programming Report for 2023
Issue	Program Information	Date of Airing	Time/Duration	Description
Community	In The Community Public Affairs Program	4/2/2023	6:30am / 19:00	516 Project - The founder of the 526 project came in to discuss how 516 Project builds access to hope through wheelchair ramps, handicap access bathrooms and more in the community.
Arts/Culture	In The Community Public Affairs Program	4/9/2023	6:30am / 21:37	Louisa Arts Center- Executive Director Karen Welch discusses how the Louisa Arts center came to be her pride project, what types of events they have to serve the community, how people can get involved and volunteer and whats next for the Center.
Community/Every	In The Community Public Affairs Program	4/16/2023	6:30am / 24:00	FXBG City Social- Co-Founder of the FXBG City Social, Kyle Crawford, discusses how the event came about and what this event means for the community of Fredericksburg. The FXBG City Social is a first time event occurring in April that allows organizations in the community that provide services for free to the community such as police, firefighters, bookmobile and more and allow the community to learn of new ways to get involved.
Community/Every	In The Community Public Affairs Program	4/23/2023	6:30am / 23:36	Rappahannock Soap Box Derby- Bob Denecke, Chairman, discusses what exactly a soap box derby is, how the community can get involved and support the racers and all the ins and outs of the race days.
Education	In The Community Public Affairs Program	4/30/2023	6:30am / 30:00	Bookmobile FXBG- Founder of the Bookmobile, Hollis, discusses the creation of the project, the growth of the organization in less than a year, how he is serving the community, future plans and how the community can get involved.
Health	In The Community Public Affairs Program	5/7/2023	6:30am / 23:52	VCU Children's Hospital- Jeniece Roane discusses the new Children's Tower – Richmond's new home for pediatric inpatient emergency and trauma care
Community	In The Community Public Affairs Program	5/14/2023	6:30am / 21:30	Allen & Allen - Emily Smith discusses the Hometown Heroes project to highlight local heroes
Education	In The Community Public Affairs Program	5/21/2023	6:30am / 25:25	Dolly Parton's Imagination Library- Elizabeth DiDonato discusses the local Fredericksburg branch of the DPIL and how getting books in kids hands serve the community.
Education	In The Community Public Affairs Program	5/28/2023	6:30am / 26:26	VA 529- Devon discusses why the month of May is the best time to start saving with VA529 for higher education needs.
Women's Concerns	In The Community Public Affairs Program	6/4/2023	6:30am / 31:00	Hope House- Cait Woodward discusses the history of Loisann's Hope House, how they serve the community and the needs they are asking from the community
Girl Empowerment	In The Community Public Affairs Program	6/11/2023	6:30am / 19:12	Girls on the Run Piedmont- Kathy Butler discusses the history of the organization and how they serve 3rd-8th grade girls on confidence, womanly issues and make sure to include some form of exercise while doing so. Also discussed was how the community can get involved and become role models for these young women.
Mental Health	In The Community Public Affairs Program	6/18/2023	6:30am / 20:03	The Hero Academy- Danique discusses what the Hero Academy is, who they serve in the community and how service animals are involved.
Homelessness	In The Community Public Affairs Program	6/25/2023	6:30am / 29:40	Brisben Center- CEO Dave Cooper discusses the needs the Brisben center serves and the different programs the community can contribute to help with the homeless situation.