PROGR AM	RELEASE DATE	TITLE	DESCRIPTION
SUMMER
EXP 16-41	WEEK OF JULY 4	ROARING 20'S	In the 1920s, concert halls rocked with everything from jazz to airplane propellers and radio became a multi-billion dollar industry.
EXP 16-42	WEEK OF JULY 11	THE SYMPHONY PART 6	The symphony has been fertile ground for composers throughout history and around the world.
EXP 16-43	WEEK OF JULY 18	ARIAS AND BARCAROLLES	Taking a cue from President Eisenhower's famous remark to Leonard Bernstein, this week is a sampling of arias, overtures, barcarolles, and other melodic delights that deserve more time on the airwaves.
EXP 16-44	WEEK OF JULY 25	PORTS OF CALL PT 1	Many years ago, Gustav Mahler and another composer were traveling by train across the Alps when Gustav turned to his friend and said, "Don't bother looking at the view; I have already composed it."
EXP 16-45	WEEK OF AUGUST 1	PORTS OF CALL PT 2	This week Exploring Music continues traveling with composers around the world.
EXP 16-46	WEEK OF AUGUST 8	THE WIND QUINTET	We'll explore some of the glorious music written for the popular chamber music combination of flute, clarinet, oboe, horn and bassoon.
EXP 16-47	WEEK OF AUGUST 15	UNDER THE HOOD PT 2	Back by popular request, Bill takes us through the inner-workings of five great symphonies by Haydn, Beethoven, Brahms, Tchaikovsky and Sibelius.
EXP 16-48	WEEK OF AUGUST 22	CLAUDE DEBUSSEY	Claude Debussy, who once said he learned more from poets and painters than from the music conservatory, is considered the figurehead of Impressionist music (though he would vehemently argue against it).
EXP 16-49	WEEK OF AUGUST 29	MUSIC IN 19TH	Music in Paris during the middle of the 19th century was dominated by one supreme composer and a stellar

		CENTURY PARIS	supporting cast whose works remain in heavy rotation to this day.
EXP 16-50	WEEK OF SEPTEMBER 5	ANTON DVORAK	A five-part biography on the life of Bohemia's most celebrated composer.
EXP 16-51	WEEK OF SEPTEMBER 12	THE GATHERING STORM: MUSIC FROM THE GREAT DEPRESSION	With the stock market crash of 1929 and the Great Depression settling in, orchestras and record companies closed their doors, composers stopped getting commissions, and musicians joined the unemployment lines.
EXP 16-52	WEEK OF SEPTEMBER 19	DISTANT NEIGHBORS	This week we'll explore the music of Mexico and Central America.
EXP 17-01	WEEK OF SEPTEMBER 26	THE SYMPHONY PT 1	In the beginning, there were Haydn, Mozart and Beethoven, or so we thought.
