

WWBR-FM
ISSUES/PROGRAMS LIST
3rd QUARTER 2013
JULY 1 THRU SEPTEMBER 30, 2013

Reviewed By: Jeff Scarpelli
Title: President
Date: 10/10/2013

ISSUE	PROGRAM	DESCRIPTION	DATE	TIME	LENGTH
Community Event	Morning Crew	Josh Eling, Rotary Club member is in the studio to remind listeners that the Rotary Club Chicken Barbeque is taking place today through Thursday at the Mecosta County Fair. The meals are served by club members from 11 am to 7pm each day on the midway at the Rotary Pavilion. Drive up take -out service is also available jus outside the fairgrounds on West Avenue. The price of a meal for adults is $9 and $6 for children. This is the clubs largest fundraiser of the year and a portion of the proceeds will go to the Wheatlake Cancer Center.	7-09-13	8:10am	5 min
Community Awareness	Morning Crew	Seth Wenger is here to tell us about this years Troutarama Festival in Baldwin. This is the 57 th annual Troutarama which runs Thursday through Sunday in downtown Baldwin. Events include a 5K run and walk on Saturday morning at 9am. There will be a kids fishing derby both Friday and Saturday morning. Live music, with The Scottville Clown Band and also two other concerts will be held at the Wenger Pavilion. There will be a parade, carnival games and amusement rides. Businesses will feature sidewalk sales. Artist will hold a craft show.	7-17-13	8:10am	5 min
Community Event	Morning Crew	Jennifer Hitzman from the Chamber of Commerce is here to tell us about the second annual Dam Festival in Rogers Heights, which will be tomorrow. The Chamber is hosting the festival which has many activities that are free of charge. A fishing tournament, pancake breakfast and concert featuring Stolen Horses on Saturday at Ulrich Park are planned. There will be demonstrations of a hovercraft and from a dive team. A portion of the proceeds will be donated to the victims of the flooding of the Muskegon River that happened this spring.	7-19-13	8:10am	5 min

Community Event	Morning Crew	Eric Little of the Big Rapids Department of Public Safety is here to tell us about National Night Out, a special evening across the nation where citizens are encouraged to meet and have fun with their neighborhood public safety officers. The event is designed to encourage public trust and cooperation with local law enforcement. The Big Rapids Department of Public Safety is hosting the event on Tuesday August 6 th from 6-9pm. There will be food, games, prizes, face painting, child fingerprinting, a dunk tank and more. Kids can tour police cars and fire trucks. All events are free.	8-2-13	8:10am	5min
Community Event	Morning Crew	Kim Rogers is in the studio to let listeners know that the Stanwood Eagles Club is celebrating their 16 th year of service with a free open house this Saturday, August 17 th at 1pm. Planned, is an afternoon packed with fun family events and children's games. A free pig roast dinner is featured and live music in the evening. Donations will gladly be accepted but all is free of charge. Membership in the Eagles is available as the organization hopes to continue their many community service projects. Two other benefit dinners are planned in the next few weeks to help two area citizens with health issues.	8-15-13	8:10am	5min
Community Awareness	Morning Crew	Mo Scarpelli is in the studio to tell us of her venture in making a documentary film that focuses on Afghan photo journalists and the dangers that they face as they report on happenings throughout the country of Afghanistan. Mo recently returned from Afghanistan where until recently photography was outlawed. She hopes to return to complete this project. She is looking for additional funding to this end. She hopes to complete the film by next spring.	8-23-13	8:10am	5 Min
Community Awareness	Morning Crew	Kelly Samuels, director of WISE, a non-profit that provides shelter and services for women and children who are victims of domestic abuse, is here to tell us about the 100 Men Campaign. This is an effort to generate funds and awareness of domestic violence. The 100 Men Campaign, last year asked men to donate $100 per year for 3 years to the WISE program. 140 men signed up to support the mission. Todd Carnai urged the men to send in their pledge dollars for the second year. Improvements to the shelter were detailed.	8-27-13	8:10am	5 min

Community Awareness	Morning Crew	David Marion and Doug Fitzgerald are to tell us about the opening of a re-sale store that will raise funds for Habitat for Humanity. Habitat for Humanity is a non-profit organization that assists lower income families in buying their own home. Through volunteer labor and sweat equity from the new homeowner, the program makes homeownership possible. The store located just south of Rogers Heights on Northland Drive will open this Saturday, September 7th. The store features household items like furniture and appliances. The store accepts donations and will even pick-up and haul the items to the store. Plans are that the store will be open every Saturday. Volunteers are needed to staff the store. Call 231-972-2100. Habitat for Humanity just completed their 29th house in Mecosta County.	9-4-13	8:10am	5 Min
Community Event	Morning Crew	Lynn Scheible and Tom Hogansen are in the studio to remind listeners of the Paint Big Rapids Pink campaign. Several events are scheduled in October to remind people about the importance of early detection of cancer. On October 7th several events will be held in downtown Big Rapids to help raise funds for the Wheatlake Resource Center in Big Rapids. A Stiletto Race, a girl's night out party, and a boy's night out are all planned to generate funds.	9-16-13	8:10am	5 Min
Community Awareness	Morning Crew	State Farm Insurance agent Bill Scheible is in the studio today to make listeners aware of the Red Cross Blood Drive scheduled for tomorrow September 24th at the Big Rapids Holiday Inn ballroom. This 9th annual blood drive is hosted, promoted and organized by The Bill Scheible State Farm Office. This drive has become one of the largest drives in our part of the state. It is recommended that donors schedule a specific time to make their donation. Call the State Farm Office to make your appointment. One can give blood every 59 days	9-23-13	8:10am	5 Min
Community Event	Morning Crew	Rickie Aldrich from Natural Beauty Salon and a number of Big Rapids personnel were in the studio to make listeners aware of the two upcoming fundraisers that are for the benefit of the Wheatlake Cancer and Wellness Center located in Reed City. On October 7th at Natural Beauty Salon a girl's night out party will feature food, manicures and a fashion show. Donations are $30 to attend. Simultaneously a boy's night out is planned at Cankers Brewery with drawings, games Monday night football and playoff basketball on the big screens. Donations are $10.	9-27-13	8:10am	5 min