

WWBR-FM
ISSUES/PROGRAMS LIST
4th QUARTER 2013
OCT 1 THRU DECEMBER 31, 2013

Reviewed By: Jeff Scarpelli
Title: President
Date: 01/10/2014

ISSUE	PROGRAM	DESCRIPTION	DATE	TIME	LENGTH
Community Awareness	Morning Crew	Lenny Scheible is here to tell listeners about the Riley-McKenzie Fund. The fund is a non-profit effort to address the problem of unwanted pets and pet overpopulation. Assistance is offered to pet owners through spay and neuter services. Also a pantry for pet food is available. The group which spends about $30,000 per year to help pets and their owners, is having a fundraiser at the Big Rapids Eagles Hall on Saturday October 5 th beginning at 7:00 pm. There will be drawings, a silent auction and live music throughout the evening. The classic rock band "Free Flight" will perform. Donation is $10 at the door with children under 12 free of charge. Bring a bag of pet food to donate to the Manna Pantry for the pets.	10/2/13	8:10am	5 min
Community Awareness	Morning Crew	Jean Berglin-Murphy, a Zonta Club member, is in the studio today to tell listeners about the food drive that the club is hosting this Thursday October 10 th at the park next to the Big Rapids Community Library beginning at 5 pm. Four organizations will be on hand to accept donations of non-perishable food items, personal care products, baby items, and any household items. Money can also be donated to these organizations and the Community Fund will match that amount. WISE, Angels of Action, Manna Food Pantry, and Project Starburst are the recipients of the drive.	10/9/13	8:10am	5 min
Community Awareness	Morning Crew	Tara Braun from Ferris State University is here to tell us about the "Festival on Nations". A series of events designed to showcase the talents and traditions of the International students at Ferris, are scheduled over a three week period in Big Rapids. This runs from October 18 th to November 8 th . Downtown businesses will also participate, with students job shadowing at the stores to learn more about American Businesses.	10/11/13	8:10am	5 min

Community Event	Morning Crew	Betty Sealey, chair of the United Way Campaign is here to tell listeners about the United Way fund drive for 2014 which kicks off tomorrow night with the United Way Auction at the Big Rapids Holiday Inn. The silent auction starts at 6:30 pm and the live auction is at 7:30 pm. Over 100 items have been donated to benefit the campaign. The goal of $550,000 will help 28 programs in Mecosta and Osceola counties next year. The United Way will also benefit from a 5K fun run and walk this Saturday at 4:00pm at Hemlock Park. Donation on race day is $30.	10/23/13	8:10am	5min
Community Awareness	Morning Crew	John Ruggles of Eagle Village is here to help make us aware of abusive situations that some children must endure. Many of the teen at Eagle Village are recovering from past mistakes and abusive treatment. The Ferris State Football team is helping Eagle Village by spending time with some of these teens to help them focus on a positive direction.	10/31/13	8:10am	5min
Community Event	Morning Crew	Gail Wyatt from the Spectrum Health Big Rapids Hospital Foundation is reminding listeners about The Festival of Trees fundraising event to be held at Chemical Bank in downtown Big Rapids on Wednesday November 6th at 6:30 pm. Over 50 holiday items will be sold to the highest bidders with all of the proceeds assisting the upgrade of the Critical care unit and construction of single patient rooms. Holiday trees, gift baskets, and wreaths have been decorated and donated by area citizens. The items to be auctioned are on display at Chemical Bank until the benefit begins.	11/4/13	8:10am	5 Min
Community Event	Morning Crew	Jean from the Am vets Post of Big Rapids is in the studio to tell us about the special ceremony and dinner honoring the servicemen and servicewomen from the Vietnam Era. The Big Rapids American Legion Post is also sponsoring this event which is to be held on Friday, November 8th at 1:00pm at CK's Banquet hall in Rogers Heights. All Vietnam vets are encouraged to attend with their families. This is free for the vets.	11/6/13	8:10am	5 min

Community Awareness	Morning Crew	Sue Roeshack from Our Brother's Keeper is here to let listeners know about the shelter that the Big Rapids Community has created to provide for our homeless neighbors, during the cold weather months. The shelter is located at 405 South Third Street, sharing the same building as Hope Clinic. At present there are 16 individuals housed in the shelter. The Clinic and shelter are in need of financial support and especially volunteers to staff the center. The shelter hopes to provide meals, shelter, assistance with paperwork, while restoring dignity for those in need. If you can help call Our Brother's Keeper at 231-629-8033.	11/12/13	8:10am	5 Min
Community Event	Morning Crew	Marian Andres the Big Rapids Library director and Wendy Nystrom from the library board were here to ask the public to donate to the Community Foundation for the library on Match Day. Match day will take place at the Holiday Inn in Big Rapids from 11 am to 6pm on November 19th. Donations on Match day will be increased by $0.50 per dollar to the designated charity. Funds donated for the library will be used for new furniture for the facility that is currently under renovation.	11/15/13	8:10am	5 Min
Community Awareness	Morning Crew	Sonya VanAlstine and Santa are in the studio to let listeners know that on Saturday the Riley-McKenzie organization is offering pet pictures with Santa Paws in both Big Rapids and Reed City. The photographer and Santa will be at Big Rapids Tractor Supply from 9am to 11 am. They will be at Reed City Family Farm and Home from 2pm to 4 pm. Donation is $10 for a 4x6 color photo with as many pets in the picture as you want. Photos will be mailed within 7 days. This is the second annual photo shoot with Santa Paws to benefit the Reiley-McKenzie Fund.	12/4/13	8:10am	5 Min
Community Event	Morning Crew	Kelly Samuels, director of Women's Information Services in Big Rapids, is in the studio today to tell us about the open house at their facility. The open house will be this Thursday from 3 pm to 6 pm. Kelly is also letting us know about the WISE Dinner Theatre, which is a major fundraiser, set for 3/21/14 at the Holiday Inn and Conference Center in Big Rapids. The show "Rock Roll Remember" will feature local talent impersonation music stars and comedy acts from the 50's, 60's, 70's, and 80's. To audition, submit a video of your act by December 31st to: groberts@wiseagainstvoince.org.	12/10/13	8:10am	5 min

Community Awareness	Morning Crew	Chris Vallette was in the studio to tell us the progress of the Salvation Army's Red Kettle Donation Drive. With one week to go, Vallette reported that the total dollar amount donated is at 66% of the $75,000 goal. Several businesses have pledged to match donation at the Big Rapids Wal-Mart over the next four days. A few more volunteer are needed to staff the kettles and ring the bells.	12/18/13	8:10am	5 Min
Community Event	Morning Crew	Elaine Sanford was in the studio to thank all of the customers that participated in the benefit dinner held at the Wild Rose Café in Big Rapids. The dinner was held to support the Manna Food Pantry which provides food for those in need in the community. Over 650 food items were collected for the pantry plus over $400 was contributed to the pantry at the benefit dinner.	12/19/13	8:10am	5 min
Community Awareness	Morning Crew			8:10am	5 min
Community Awareness	Morning Crew			8:10am	5 min
Community Event	Morning Crew			8:10am	5 min
Community Awareness	Morning Crew			8:10am	5min