

WWBR-FM
ISSUES/PROGRAMS LIST
1ST QUARTER 2013
JAN 1, thru MARCH 31, 2013

Reviewed By: Jeff Scarpelli
Title: President
Date: 4/09/2013

ISSUE	PROGRAM	DESCRIPTION	DATE	TIME	LENGTH
Community Event	Morning Crew	Matthew Chaney, director of Multi-Cultural Affairs at Ferris State University is here to tell listeners that Ferris State is presenting a 3 day celebration to honor the memory of Dr. Martin Luther King, Jr. Monday January 21st will feature the 27th annual freedom march... a time to bring the diverse campus community together for a common goal... greater awareness, cooperation and support of each other. Many students will help to offer a soup kitchen for those in need, on Monday fro 11am till 2pm. A student symposium will be held Tuesday evening. Wednesday night the featured presentation "Race Off" will be at Williams Auditorium at 7pm. The Jim Crow Museum of racist memorabilia will be open for tours all three days.	01/16/13	8:30am	5 min
Community Awareness	Morning Crew	Marta Johnson a registered dietician from Mecosta County Medical Center is in the studio today to offer several tips, to assist listeners who are trying to lose weight, or adjust their diet fro a healthier lifestyle. One important tip that Johnson offered was to eat more healthy carbs. Carbohydrates are another term for sugars. They exist naturally in foods, but also may be added to the food. Naturally occurring carbs are deemed the healthier carbs... and include whole grains, starchy vegetables, fruit, milk and yogurt. Other tips included allowing time to enjoy your meal... as you won't eat quite as much. Planning ahead can help curb the quick meals that may not be as healthy. A meal of half vegetables, a quarter whole grains or starches, and a quarter lean proteins is recommended. For more healthy tips visit, Choosemyplate.gov.	01/22/13	8:30am	5 min
Community Event	Morning Crew	Kelly Samuels, director of Women's Information services, is here today to tell listeners that this Valentines Day, a worldwide action day is planned to end domestic abuse and violence toward women and girls. One third of women and girls worldwide will be an abuse victim... adding up to one billion victims. WISE agency in Big Rapids will host a gathering at the Gypsy Nickle Lounge to stand up against abuse toward women. A powerful presentation begins at 5:30pm. Then at 6:30pm, brightly lit lantern balloons will be launched from the patio deck. Lanterns are available at the Gypsy Nickle, The Mecosta County Chamber of Commerce Office, and at the WISE Fabulous Finds store. The cost is $5 or tow for $8.	01/29/13	8:30am	5 min

Community Awareness	Morning Crew	Barbara Ross a volunteer with Festival of the Arts, is here to inform listeners of the month long series of events connected with Festival of the Arts. Art Immersion Day will introduce visitors to several types of art activities. Sessions are free, with experts on hand to demonstrate and help participants create their own craft. Sessions include creative writing, prose, poetry, basket weaving, stained glass, pottery, drawing with pencil, charcoal, and pen and ink. Also, there are sessions in dance, wood carving, pre-school are and more. Immersion day runs from noon till 4pm at Crossroad Charter Academy.	2/01/13	8:30am	5 min
Community Awareness	Morning Crew	Nancy Burmeister is a member of Women Heart, a national organization dedicated to eliminating the nation's number one killer ... heart disease. Nancy is in our studio to let listeners know that Women Heart, The Heart Association, Delta Zeta Sorority, and the Ferris Student Nurses are making healthy heart information available to the community during February, national heart healthy month. Information will be available tomorrow at the FSU Basketball game, and on Friday at Chemical Bank. Free blood pressure checks will also be available on Friday at the downtown Big Rapids Chemical Bank location. For more information visit womenheart.org.	2/13/13	8:30am	5 min
Community Awareness	Morning Crew	Saffel Gardner is in the studio to tell listeners about his participation in the Festival of the Arts in Big Rapids. Gardner, a master painter and mixed media artist, will have selection of his work on display throughout February at Artworks in downtown Big Rapids. In addition, Gardner will be joined by his wife Marion Hayden for a mix of music and painting. Hayden and her jazz ensemble will perform in concert on March 1st at Crossroads Charter Academy at 7pm. During the performance Gardner will create an original work of art on stage inspired by the music. There is no charge to attend the unique presentation	2/12/13	8:30am	5 Min
Community Event	Morning Crew	Christine Burke from the Big Rapids High School Band Boosters is in the studio to inform listeners about the Winter Concert performed by both the Concert Band and the Wind Symphony. The concert will be held in the High School Auditorium on Tuesday February 26th at 7pm. The audience is encouraged to come early and support the music program's silent auction. Dozens of items will be up for bidding beginning at 5pm. Proceeds from the auction will be used for equipment and instrument needs. The goal of the auction is $5000.	2/22/13	8:30am	5 min

Community Awareness	Morning Crew	Mrs. Hastings, kindergarten teacher and 10 of her students are in the studio to remind us about St Mary's Catholic School Kindergarten and pre-school registration. The event runs from 5:30pm to 7pm at St. Mary's School in Big Rapids. Teachers and students will be on hand to answer questions. Get a tour of the school and have dinner. The kindergarten students that are here told us about some of the things that they have learned this year including math, reading, about God and the Bible.	3/07/13	8:30am	5min
Community Event	Morning Crew	Andrea Nerbonn and Eric Little from Big Rapids Public Safety and Todd Purcell of Mecosta County Sheriff's Department are here to explain an important benefit Bowl-A-Thon, that will take place at The Gate Bowling Center on March 23 rd . Proceeds from the Bowl-A-Thon will be donated to Big Brothers and Big Sisters of Mecosta and Osceola counties. Listeners are encouraged to put a team together and solicit pledges for Big Brothers and Big Sisters programs. Area law enforcement agencies have challenged each other to try to win the "Pig Bowl Trophy". Ferris State Campus police and Reed City Police will also be included in the bowling showdown.	3/08/13	8:30am	5 Min
Community Awareness	Morning Crew	Karen Ripke a health educator from the District Health Dept.#10 is here to make us aware that March is Colon Cancer Awareness Month. Early detection is the best way to beat the disease. As you reach the age of 50, it is recommended that you have regular check-ups from your doctor or with a check-up kit. Those over 50 are encouraged to schedule a colonoscopy exam every 5-10 years. Those without insurance are encouraged to call Karen Ripke at the District Health Dept #10 for assistance with check-ups. Call 592-0130	3/18/13	8:30am	5 Min
Community Event	Morning Crew	Sue Johnson from the Big Rapids Elks Club is in the studio to tell us about the fundraiser that the Elks Club is hosting. They are having a ham dinner and raffle on Saturday March 23 rd from 4pm to 10pm. Tickets are available for $8. The Elks will raffle off several hams. There is also a ladies only raffle. All proceeds will go to various community projects hosted by the Elks. Recent projects that the Elks have supported include a free dinner for veterans, free skating party for area children, donations to a Veterans home in Grand Rapids, and holiday dinners for less fortunate families. The Elks is located at 203 Pine Street, downtown Big Rapids	3/22/13	8:30am	5Min
Community Awareness	Morning Crew	Jennifer Thede is here to tell us about Mecosta County Cares a non-profit group dedicated to eliminating problems associated with unwanted pets, pets in need of care, and pet owners in need of help. The group offers assistance with spay and neuter services, vaccinations and health care for animals. Their benefit concert is coming to Crossroads Charter Auditorium on Saturday April 7 th , featuring Elvis tribute artist Jake Slater. Tickets are $15 or $5 for students. Tickets are available at the Old Pioneer Store, Great Lakes Books, Country Inn and Suites and at the door.	3/27/13	8:30am	5 Min