Roseales says this is the biggest fundraiser of the year for special olympics. all funds raised will go to local athletes and their equipment.	2/17/19	9am
Area School makeup days due to snow. Tim Haist BRPS	After an onslaught of snow, ice and arctic temperatures over the past several weeks resulted in multiple canceled school days, local superintendents are looking for ways to make up for the missed time. Big Rapids Public Schools Superintendent Tim Haist said the district will now be having a full day of school on Friday, April 19, a day that was previously not on the schedule.	2/23/19	10am

	Haist explained a survey was sent out to staff and parents/guardians asking them to indicate whether or not they thought students would be able to attend class on these days. The survey also asked about having school on Monday, May 27.
District 10 Health Dept. Heart Health Campaign	Karen Ripke and Sarah from D10HD stopped by to talk about the new Live Well 4 Health campaign. This new program will allow people to schedule free heart health exams and also talked about the resources available at the health department.	3/13/19	08:30am
Nebraska Flood fundraiser	Area residents have an opportunity to reach out to the flood victims in eastern Nebraska and the surrounding area. A large trailer was on hand at the parking lot of Family Farm and Home in Big Rapids to fill with donated items to help those devastated by the flooding disaster. Volunteers with Andy Jahn Wildfires and Great Lakes Ag Relief are seeking support from several Michigan communities with a relief drive. There is still an opportunity for residents to donate to the drive from noon to 7 p.m. on Thursday, April 4. The relief truck will be parked at Family Farm and Home.	3/31/19	11am
