part of wichita's history is now being dismantled. crews began the process of tearing down the old mid-continent airport terminal today. ANNA AULD WAS THERE WHEN WORK STARTED. SHE JOINS US NOW LIVE.

WHENEVER YOU COME TO THE AIRPORT YOU ALWAYS PASS BY THE OLD MID CONTINENT TERMINAL... MANY WODERING WHATS GOING TO HAPPEN WITH IT...BUT SOON YOU'LL BE PASING BY CREWS WORKING TO GET IT TORN DOWN.

IT'S DEMO DAY AT WICHITA'S OLD MID -CONTINENT AIRPORT TERMINAL. YOU'LL BE HEARING A LOT OF THIS FOR THE NEXT SEVERAL MONTHS.

AND DRIVING BY IT EVERYTIME THEY COME BACK TO WICHITA.

14:01:22 " it was kind of small and hard to get around at times, but i love the new airport haha."

SO WHY DID IT TAKE SO LONG TO COME DOWN? THE AIRPORT SAYS THERE WERE SOME ISSUES THAT DELAYED THE DEMOLITION... LIKE ABSESTOS AND HAVING TO MOVE OUT IMPORTANT I.T EQUIPMENT. IT SAYS 20 PERCENT OF THE BUILDING WILL BE KEPT AND EVENTUALLY RENNOVATED.

13:58:05 " oh no i never wonder when its going to come down ... could it be put to better use or come down? i dont even worry about it because this one is nice."

the city says... last winter they had some planting that didn't survive.... and all the rain we've had of late... has produced the weeds. making things worse... every time the city sprays... it rains so the product does not have the chance to work properly. professionals have told the city that one strategy to fight the weeds... is to let the grass grow taller than usual. the city tells us... they are now at the point where they can't follow that advice anymore. they do plan to mow in the near future.

THE STORMS THIS YEAR HAVE DAMAGED WHEAT FIELDS. IT'S ALSO IMPACTING HARVESTING SCHEDULES - BUT SOME FARMERS SAY IT ISN'T IMPACTING ALL OF THEIR CROPS.

farmer walking through wheat

NORMALLY THIS TIME OF YEAR FARMER MAX TJADEN WOULD BE CUTTING HIS WHEAT CROP BUT AS YOU CAN SEE IT'S NOT IN THE BEST SHAPE

this one is beat to a pulp this one is all knocked apart

AND THE REASON TJADEN LOST HALF OF HIS WHEAT CROPS IN THIS FIELD IS DUE TO THE STORMS WE'VE HAD THIS YEAR.

I've just figured up with the last rain we've got I've had almost 64 inches of rain in the last year

HE HAS CROP INSURANCE SO HE'LL RECOVER THE MONEY HE COULD LOSE BUT HE'S NOT THE ONLY ONE AFFECTED BY NOT HARVESTING.

A lot of the people who's business relies on what we do are kind of suffering to because they are not being able to sell stuff because we don't need it. You know I don't need any seed because I'm not gonna be able to plant this or whatever so you know this kind of a snowball effect. It affects a lot more than just producers

TJADEN SAYS EVEN THOUGH HE LOST HALF OF HIS WHEAT FIELD TO THE STORMS THIS YEAR HE'S EXCITED ABOUT WHAT THE RAIN HAS DONE FOR HIS CORN CROP.

What's out there really looks tremendous right now and it's just getting ready to tassle and there's a lot of good sub soil moisture

TRACTOR DRIVING BY

AND HE HOPES THE OTHER HALF OF HIS WHEAT FIELD THAT'S LEFT, HE CAN CUT HIS CROPS IF THE RAIN CAN STOP.

Everybody would love that a couple of dry weeks and they can probably get everything done that they needed to, I know I could BURNING IN THE FLINT HILLS CONTINUES ALL MONTH. WE TOLD YOU LAST NIGHT.... WHY THIS IS IMPORTANT FOR FARMERS AND RANCHERS. THEY SAY... IT HELPS KEEPS THE PRAIRIES CLEAN. ON SOME DAYS... WHEN THE WIND IS BLOWING RIGHT... THE SMOKE FROM THESE CONTROLLED BURNS CARRIES UP TO NEBRASKA.

THIS IS WHAT LINCOLN, NEBRASKA.... LOOKED LIKE A COUPLE YEARS AGO DURING THIS TIME. YOU MAY REMEMBER... THE CITY WAS CONSIDERING LEGAL ACTION OVER CONCERNs ABOUT HOW THE BURNS IMPACTED THEIR AIR QUALITY.

we reached out to the city to see if that was still the case. a spokesperson for their county health department tells us... at this point... they are not pursuing legal action. they tell us... they will continue to work closely in a cooperative and collaborative manner with the kansas department of health... the e-p-a... and other agencies.... to develop strategies aimed at mitigating downwind smoke impacts from the flint hills burns.

ANNA AULD IS TRACKING THE STORM IN WICHITA. SHE JOINS US LIVE NEAR DOWNTOWN.

WEVE BEEN DRIVING AROUND FOR THE PAST HOUR IN THE WICHITA METRO... REALLY JUST WET ROADS AND SOME LIGHTNING WE ARE SEEING NOW. BUT EARLIER I WAS IN GODDARD WHERE WE STARTED TO SEE DARK CLOUDS ROLL IN AROUND 7PM...THEN ABOUT A HALF HOUR LATER WE STARTED TO SEE SOME LIGHT RAIN. THEN WE STARTED TO SEE MUCH HEAVIER RAIN... BUT STILL HAVENT SEEN ANY HAIL. I TALKED WITH A MAN IN GODDARD EARLIER WHO WAS WAITING FOR THE STORM TO ROLL IN.

jennifer herrera shows us what else is turning up at the bottom of the lake.

"it's pretty sad because it's supposed to be a lake not a trash can."

ANEL COX AND HER FAMILY HAVE STOPPED BY THE LAKE TO FISH FOR CRAW FISH BUT AND TO SEE WHAT ELSE THEY FIND.

"I saw a purse, I saw clothes, I saw a commode..yea there's a commode in here which is crazy."

THE LAKE IS POPULAR FOR FISHING AND CAMPING.

"we ended up just looking for a lot of craw fish and finding a lot of random things on the bottom of the lake."

BUT LAST YEAR'S FLOODING CAUSED DAMAGE. NOW, THE COUNTY IS DRAINING IT AND WILL REBUILD.

"it is a good idea that it's being drained out because we can clean it out and it'll be better for everybody....and we'll have more fish in here."

A FEW OF THOSE RANDOM THINGS THAT WERE RECENTLY FOUND WAS A PICK-UP TRUCK AND A HAND GUN.

"there's always weird stuff to find now so it's just something to do whenever I'm not in school."

AN EXAMPLE OF THAT WEIRD STUFF AND YOU HEARD IT MENTIONED...IS THIS TOILET, AND THE LAKE SUPERVISOR SAYS THEY NEED YOUR HELP...THEY WANT VOLUNTEERS TO COME OUT AND HELP CLEAN UP THIS MESS.

"im hoping to come out here and help clean it up that's what I want to do, help clean it up and make it look better."

THE LAKE WILL BE DRAINED BY THE FIRST OF MAY, AND REPAIRS WILL BE MADE BY MID LATE TO JUNE.

FROM FLOODED STREETS AND WATERWAYS... TO FLOODED BASEMENTS... OR AT LEAST THE HOPE YOURS DOESN'T FLOOD. ALEX FLIPPIN TAGGED ALONG WITH A MASTER PLUMBER TODAY... TO FIND OUT WHAT YOU NEED TO KNOW TO KEEP YOUR BASEMENT DRY.

<(Nats of water being poured into sump pump)

MASTER PLUMBER JAY LOIBL SAYS EVEN A LITTLE SPRING RAIN CAN CAUSE MAJOR ISSUES FOR HOMES...ESPECIALLY IN BASEMENTS.

People think concrete is impervious to water, but it is not.

AND IF YOU SEE WATER ON THE CONCRETE WALLS OF YOUR BASEMENT...

That's bad. That's bad.

LOIBL SAYS ANY CRACKS IN THE CONCRETE WALLS SHOULD ALSO BE ADDRESSED A-S-A-P...BUT THAT MAKING SURE A BASEMENT'S SUMP PUMP IS WORKING SHOULD TOP SPRING TO-DO LISTS.

HE SAYS THAT'S AS SIMPLE AS POURING WATER INTO THE BASIN AND....

You hear it click on and it's working...water goes down.

Once you've made sure your basement is prepared if water gets in, experts say it's more important to make sure it never does.

The idea is to keep as much water out as you can but also to make sure you have the means to get it back outdoors and keep it away from the house.

LOIBL SAYS WHETHER WATER IS BEING PUMPED FROM THE BASEMENT OR WHETHER IT'S FALLING FROM THE SKY, IT NEEDS TO BE DIRECTED AWAY FROM THE FOUNDATION OF A HOME.

you can see the erosion that's it's caused and that water just seeps right back in along that foundation and into the sump basin. Now that can overload the sump pump because it's having to work twice as hard.

HE SAYS THE SIMPLE RULE IS, SEND THAT WATER ELSEWHERE.

Downspout coming down, taking all the roof water down and out twenty feet away from the house. It's a perfect example of how to get the water away from the house.

5/13 6pm

CITY CREWS IN WINFIELD HAVE PLENTY OF WORK AHEAD OF THEM... AFTER SEVERAL FEET OF WATER CAME THROUGH THE AREA LAST WEEK.

" you can see good video of it sweeping across the fairground.. so not something we are totally not used to seeing... but this was a lot of water."

CITY CREWS FOUND WATER AS HIGH AS FIVE FEET IN SOME AREAS...CAUSING THE MOST DAMAGE TO

ONE OF THE BUILDINGS.

STANDUP: THE CITY MANAGER SAYS WHEN IT'S FLOODING THEY ACTUALLY OPEN THE DOORS TO BUILDING 4 HERE AND LET THE WATER PASS THROUGH IT.

BUT THIS TIME... SIDING WAS RIPPED OFF DUE TO THE VOLUME OF WATER.

13:33:29 " it will be a significant amount...we lost a restroom ."

CONCRETE IS ALSO ERODED FROM WATER PUSHING ITS WAY THROUGH...CAUSING SMALL POOLS TO FORM THROUGH OUT THE FAIRGROUNDS.

13:34:25 " they will go through every breaker, every leaf , there goal is to make sure when someone plugs in here the next time, they will be good to go."

BUT THAT WON'T BE FOR A WHILE... AS THEY NEED TO FIX THE PAVEMENT BEFORE LETTING THE PUBLIC IN...

WHILE THEY ARE USED TO FLOODING IN THIS AREA... THEY ARE NOW HOPING THEY WILL GET HELP FROM THE STATE TO MAKE THE NECESSARY FIXES...ONCE THEY SUBMIT A DAMAGE ASSESSMENT.

WITH ALL OF THE RECENT RAIN--YOU MAY HAVE STANDING WATER LIKE *THIS NEAR YOUR HOME. THAT WATER IS A *BREEDING GROUND FOR MOSQUITOES... THAT CARRY WEST NILE VIRUS. KANSAS IS AT A MODERATE RISK FOR WEST NILE RIGHT NOW... so it's important to check your yard for standing water - where mosquitoes lay their eggs. think - your dog's water bowl... old tires... plants... the owner of "germadic pest company" says-- there is one place you should check for standing water and mosquitoes - before anywhere else.

OO "With all the moisture and with all the wind storms that we've had this year, this is the year to be proactive on checking your gutter drainage to make sure that you do have adequate flow and that you don't have any additional standing water right above you in the gutters."

wallace also says that are natural remedies you can plant in your garden. magnolias, lemongrass, and geraniums - are all common repellents

TAKE A LOOK AT THIS VIDEO... THOUSANDS OF ANTS INSIDE A SHED IN NEWTON. THE OWNER SAYS... THIS HAPPENED AFTER ALL THAT RAIN WE SAW OVER THE WEEKEND. RACHEL SKYTTA SPOKE TO A PEST CONTROL EXPERT....

LL IN: 48:48 this time of year is always busy for pest control companies especially after a heavy rainfall. i spoke to an expert who says all that rain pushes insects out of their natural environment and into your home. but there ways you can prevent it. 49:00

THIS IS NOT WHAT ANY HOMEOWNER WANTS TO FIND...THOUSANDS OF ANTS INVADED THIS SHED IN NEWTON...AFTER A HEAVY RAIN.

THE MAN WHO TOOK THIS VIDEO SAYS IT WAS EVEN WORSE IN PERSON.

36:07 just really having that longer period of rain has really kind of made our job more difficult-JORDAN RANDALL

JORDAN RANDALL WITH PATTON TERMITE AND PEST CONTROL SAYS THEY'RE WORKING MORNING TO NIGHT...DEALING WITH EVERYTHING FROM ANTS TO SPIDERS.

37:27 I always suggest doing more prevention and maintenance so you can always get a pest professional out before you start having trouble - it's a lot easier for us to come out and control them instead of waiting until you have thousands of ants in your kitchen and we're trying to cut back the population. 37:44

LL OUT:49:56 randall says the most important things to remember are keep any moisture away from your home - also seal up any holes or cracks on any doors, windows or pipes...and finally keep insect food sources away from your home as well. in wichita, rachel skytta, eyewitness news

A KANSAS SUPERINTENDENT WANTS TO CLEAR THINGS UP ABOUT THE SUMMIT LEARNING PROGRAMS. IT COMES AFTER THE NEW YORK TIMES RELEASED THIS ARTICLE ABOUT SEVERAL KANSAS DISTRICTS USING IT.

we first told you about this program earlier this year when several in mcphee held this protest. the superintendent of mcphee schools says... summit learning is a web-based curriculum that personalizes learning for each student. the new york times piece highlighted multiple parents against the program... some who have even pulled their kids from the district altogether.

anna auld talked with the superintendent and a parent who's against it.

THE PROGRAM ISNT ONLY BEING USED HERE IN MCPHEE... WELLINGTON AND NEWTON DISTRICTS ALSO USE SUMMIT LEARNING FOR SELECT GRADES

A LETTER TO MCPHEE PARENTS...

"we dont replace our teachers with technology."

AFTER A NEW YORK TIMES ARTICLE COMES OUT ABOUT THE SUMMIT LEARNING PROGRAM BEING USED IN MULTIPLE KANSAS SCHOOL DISTRICTS.. HIGHLIGHTING PARENTS AGAINST THE PROGRAM.

MCPHEE SUPERINTENDENT GORDON MOHN SAYS SUMMIT LEARNING IS PART OF A DISTRICT REDESIGN PROCESS... CERTAIN GRADES ARE SELECTED TO USE THE WEB BASED CURRICULUM THAT IS AIMED AT MAKING INDIVIDUALIZED INSTRUCTION FOR EACH STUDENT.

"i think the article was accurate in... we have some people who are very passionately opposed to what we are doing...we recognize that."

ONE OF THOSE PARENTS AGAINST THE PROGRAM...JESSICA TAYLOR...WHO'S SON AND DAUGHTER USE THE PROGRAM IN NEWTON SCHOOLS...SHE SAYS SHE WAS ORIGINALLY ON BOARD WITH THE PROGRAM AS A DIFFERENT WAY FOR HER KIDS TO LEARN.

" it has not panned out to be that...its been a disappointment."

SHE SAYS HER DAUGHTER'S BEHAVIOR CHANGED WHEN HER CLASS STARTED USING IT.

" i found a note that she had written on the back of a school paper that she wrote over and over i dont want to be here, i dont want to be alive, why am i alive.. it was very troubling to me that there was this much of a disconnect in the classroom for her."

SHE... AND OTHER PARENTS HAVE CONCERNS ABOUT SCREEN TIME, HOW THE GRADING PROCESS WORKS, STUDENTS INTERACTING LESS WITH TEACHERS AND DATA PRIVACY...

THOSE ARE ALL THINGS MOHN WANTED TO CLEAR UP IN HIS LETTER TO PARENTS IN THE MCPHERSON DISTRICT... HE SAYS STUDENTS AREN'T ON SCREENS ALL DAY...AND MANY SCHOOLS NATIONWIDE ARE USING THE CURRICULUM SUCCESSFULLY.

"i want parents to know we have outstanding teaching staff, administration , board of education..always does our best to operate in the best interest of students... we are not going to implement something and not give parents some kind of choice... and especially if its counter productive to kids."

HE SAYS WHILE TEN STUDENTS HAVE TRANSFERRED FROM THE DISTRICT BECAUSE OF THE PROGRAM...HE HAS SEEN AN INCREASE IN ACCEPTANCE... HE SAYS NEXT YEAR PARENTS IN THE MCPHERSON DISTRICT WILL HAVE AN OPTION TO "OPT" OUT OF THE PROGRAM.

TAYLOR SAYS SHE HOPES THAT'S SOMETHING THE NEWTON DISTRICT WILL IMPLEMENT AS WELL...

" our kids deserve an education and we are going to fight this for them... and the other kids using this program.

5/2 5pm

OVER THE NEXT SEVERAL WEEKS...STUDENTS ACROSS THE COUNTRY WILL BE GRADUATING COLLEGE ALONG WITH THAT DIPLOMA COMES STUDENT LOAN DEBT FOR MANY. THERE MAY BE RELIEF AHEAD IF YOU QUALIFY FOR A STUDENT LOAN FORGIVENESS PROGRAM.

FOR JESSIE SUREN, ATTENDING COLLEGE WAS A COSTLY AFFAIR. SHE TOOK OUT OVER $70,000 IN STUDENT LOANS TO COMPLETE HER DEGREE IN CRIMINAL JUSTICE AT LA SALLE UNIVERSITY IN 2010.

WHILE SHE WAS AT SCHOOL, HER FOCUS WAS ON GETTING GOOD GRADES, BUT NOT SO MUCH THE FINANCES...

(SOT: Jessie Suren)

"I didn't have a plan for how I was going to pay them off. I didn't even really know how much I'd end up borrowing, so it was something I just didn't worry about until after graduating."

JUST A FEW YEARS AFTER GETTING HER DEGREE, JESSIE'S STUDENT DEBT BALLOONED TO A TOTAL OF 90,000-DOLLARS. AND SHE ISN'T ALONE. TODAY IN THE U.S., MORE THAN 44 MILLION BORROWERS COLLECTIVELY OWE A TOTAL OF 1.5 TRILLION DOLLARS IN STUDENT LOAN DEBT.

(SOT Donna Rosato, Consumer Reports Money Editor)

The reality is that more than half of college graduates today have to borrow money to pay for school, and some of those people really struggle to pay their loans back. The good news is that some of them may qualify for student loan forgiveness programs that would erase some or all of their debt.

A TURNING POINT FOR JESSIE WAS WHEN SHE STARTED RESEARCHING THESE PROGRAMS. AT THAT TIME JESSIE'S MOTHER, WHO TOOK OUT A FEDERAL LOAN FOR HER, WAS DIAGNOSED WITH A BONE DISEASE THAT FORCED HER TO GO ON DISABILITY.

AFTER SUBMITTING THE PROPER PAPERWORK, ABOUT 45 THOUSAND DOLLARS OF JESSIE'S LOAN WAS COMPLETELY FORGIVEN.

(SOT: Donna Rosato)

"There are more than 100 federal and state-based loan forgiveness programs. They have very specific requirements, but if you make regular payments over a certain period of time, your loans may be forgiven."

BUT WHILE MILLIONS OF BORROWERS COULD QUALIFY FOR LOAN-FORGIVENESS PROGRAMS, ONLY A FRACTION OF THOSE ELIGIBLE TAKE ADVANTAGE OF THEM.

THAT'S WHY YOU NEED TO DO YOUR RESEARCH – LIKE WHAT JESSIE DID.

TO SEE IF YOU QUALIFY FOR A FEDERAL STUDENT LOAN FORGIVENESS PROGRAM, CHECK WITH THE DEPARTMENT OF EDUCATION AND THE INSTITUTE OF STUDENT LOAN ADVISORS WHICH INCLUDES STATE-BASED PROGRAMS. WE HAVE A LINK TO BOTH OF THEM ON THE KWCH APP.

FARMING REMAINS ONE OF THE MOST DANGEROUS PROFESSIONS IN AMERICA. THE ACCIDENT IN NORTON IS THE FOURTH DEADLY FARMING ACCIDENT THIS YEAR IN KANSAS. AND LISTEN TO THESE STATISTICS... MORE THAN 700 FARMERS DIED IN ACCIDENTS NATIONWIDE EVERY YEAR, 120 THOUSAND ARE HURT AND MORE THAN 100 CHILDREN DIE. AND THERE ARE TEAMS OUT THERE NOT JUST TO EDUCATE FARMERS ON HOW TO STAY SAFE, BUT ALSO RESCUE THEM WHEN NEEDED. THEY SHARED TIPS WITH CAROLINE ELLIOTT ON HOW TO PREVENT FARM ACCIDENTS.

FOR THE FOURTH TIME THIS YEAR...A KANSAN IS KILLED ON THE FARM. THE MOST RECENT...A NORTON COUNTY HIGH SCHOOLER.

ALTHOUGH FEW DETAILS HAVE BEEN RELEASED...THE SHERIFF SAYS THE TEEN WAS KILLED USING FARM MACHINERY.

SOT Guillermo Jaso, Fire Rescue Team 20:23:40

Most accidents involve equipment, tractors.. making sure your equipment is locked out tagged out... being properly trained on the equipment. Wearing your seatbelts, having situational awareness around you.

GUILLERMO JASO WORKS WITH THE RESCUE TEAM AT SEDGWICK COUTNY FIRE..... HIS TEAM IS TRAINED TO RESPOND TO ACCIDENTS WHEN THEY HAPPEN.

THEY ALSO SPEND A LOT OF TIME TYRING TO PREVENT THEM IN THE FIRST PLACE.

HE SAY THE MOST COMMON ACCIDENT INVOLVES GRAIN ELEVATORS--IT WAS JUST LAST YEAR TWO PEOPLE WERE KILLED IN A GRAIN ELEVATOR ACCIDENT IN SEDGWICK COUNTY. THE VICTIMS BECAME TRAPPED IN GRAIN.

JASO SAYS IT'S IMPORTANT TO USE A BUDDY SYSTEM WHEN YOU'RE IN A GRAIN ELEVATOR .. SO IF SOMETHING GOES WRONG, SOMEONE ELSE CAN GET HELP.

((SOT)) 20:26:07

Just try to stay calm.. try not to move.. the more someone moves in a grain elevator, whatever is in there can keep coming down on them... Struggling actually makes it worse when you're in that situation.

OTHER COMMON ACCIDENTS INCLUDE BECOMING TRAPPED IN MOVING PARTS LIKE AN AUGER THAT MOVES GRAIN, OR A P-T-O...FOUND ON TRACTORS THAT TURN AND POWER EQUIPMENT. JASO SAYS KEEPING CLOTHING AND HAIR AWAY FROM THOSE PARTS IS IMPORTANT. AND IN KANSAS...YOUNG PEOPLE WORK ON FARMS A LOT...HE SAYS IS IMPORTANT TO ALWAYS BE TALKING TO THEM ABOUT FARM SAFETY AND START AS EARLY AS POSSIBLE.

Kids in our rural areas of our state are exposed to that type of machinery all the time, whether they want to or not, at some point of their life they're going to be around it. And they should know how to act around that equipment.>

summer doesn't just mean we're seeing more mosquitoes. it also means a rise in ticks. the C-D-C is warning people about the importance of avoiding ticks. the biggest ways you can prevent the spread of disease?--checking yourself and your pets for ticks... and showering shortly after you spend time outdoors. mowing your lawn regularly can also keep ticks out of your yard. 2017 saw a record number of cases of tickborne diseases--with around 59-thousand-300.

WE ARE FOLLOWING DEVELOPMENTS FROM THE STATEHOUSE... WHERE JUST OVER AN HOUR AGO... LAWMAKERS TAKE A STEP TO INCREASE SCHOOL FUNDING... THE HOUSE APPROVED A BILL... THAT MANY HOPE PUTS AN END TO YEARS OF LITIGATION.

jacob albracht is at the breaking news desk. jacob, what's the latest?

MIKE... THIS AFTERNOON LAWMAKERS IN THE HOUSE PASSED A SCHOOL FUNDING MEASURE THAT WOULD INCREASE SPENDING TO SCHOOLS BY ROUGHLY 90-MILLION DOLLARS. NOW THE MEASURE MOVES BACK TO THE SENATE... WHERE A VERSION OF THIS BILL ALREADY PASSED ONCE.

this is the bill democratic governor laura kelly has been pushing... as a way to end a education funding lawsuit the measure ties new money to several education policy changes favored by republican lawmakers including a requirement for a new one-page online performance report on each school. many hope this will be enough to end a lawsuit that goes back to 2010... that says kansas isn't meeting its constitutional obligation to fairly or adequately fund schools. the kansas supreme court has issued six rulings...directing lawmakers to increase spending for schools in a little more than five years. some republicans question whether the state can sustain the proposed increase without future tax increases.

SPECIFICALLY on the question of obstruction of justice.

"What we may or may not see depending on redactions is the extent to which there may have been wrongdoing and then people can make a judgment for themselves."

barr and deputy attorney general rod Rosenstein will give a press conference when the report is released tomorrow. they'll hold a press conference at 8-30 in the morning. we'll carry it live right here on k-w-c-h.

She was left critically wounded, put in a medically induced coma, and endured multiple operations to save her life. Authorities believed she was the target of someone planning to shoot a judge. Onyeri was arrested a few days after the shooting and eventually found guilty. Judge Kocurek discusses the terrifying moments of the shooting, how she found the strength to survive, and her efforts to protect other public officials. On screen text graphic: Other states are now following Texas’ lead, moving to improve judicial security. 04/20/19 48 HOURS: “What Happened In Apartment 4C?” (9:00 - 10:00p) – an updated rebroadcast on the 2016 disappearance and murder of Joey Comunale after a night of partying in New York City. While out clubbing, Comunale accepted an invitation to a party at a Sutton Place apartment with people he had just met. That was the last time he was seen. His family’s search led to Larry Dilione who had been with Comunale at the Grand Sutton apartment of James Rackover, an aspiring model and the surrogate son of Jeffrey Rackover, the so-called “Jeweler to the Stars”. Dilione provided information that made no sense to Comunale’s father or his friend Max Branchinelli, who had located Dilione on Instagram. Dilione then provided information about Rackover and Max Gemma, whose father was once the mayor of Oceanport, NJ to the police. The investigation revealed that after the murder, Comunale’s body was dumped out of a window at the Sutton Place address, driven to Oceanport, and left in a hole in the ground in a wooded area behind a florist shop. Rackover and Dilione were charged with the brutal murder of Comunale and other crimes. Max Gemma was charged with hindering prosecution and tampering with physical evidence. After the arrest, police discovered that Rackover, was not really the son of the celebrity jeweler, but an ex-con from Florida named James Beaudin, who Jeffrey Rackover had befriended, explaining he was the son he never knew about. At trial, both Rackover and Dilione said the other was responsible. The primary witness in the case was Louis Ruggiero, the troubled son of popular New York television anchor Rosanna

Scotto. Ruggiero, a close friend of Rackover's, testified about what Rackover told him happened that night, becoming the first witness who directly implicated James Rackover in the crime. On November 2, 2018, the jury reached a verdict: the former James Beaudoin, now James Rackover, was convicted on all counts for the murder. Dilione's trial is set for January, with Gemma being tried at a later date. Original on-screen text graphic: James Rackover will be sentenced on December 5th. Jeffrey Rackover has moved out of the Grand Sutton and has cut ties to James Rackover. On-screen text graphic for the 04/20/19 updated rebroadcast: James Rackover was sentenced to twenty-eight and two/third years to life in prison, the maximum. Larry Dilione pleaded guilty to manslaughter for a sentence of twenty-three years in prison. Max Gemma pleaded guilty to hindering the prosecution and tampering with evidence for a sentence of six months in prison. Jeffrey Rackover moved out of the Grand Sutton and cut ties to James Rackover. Interviewed: Preetham Dhivakarabu, Stephen Naso, Mac Branchinelli, Todd Green, Mike Mullon (friends of Joey Comunale); Pat Comunale (father); Lisa Comunale (mother); Alex Comunale (sister); Murray Weiss (NY crime reporter); Bob Abrams (Comunale attorney); Maurice Sercarz and Rob Calilendo (Rackover attorney). After his wife died, Corbett hired American Molly Martens to care for his children. Their relationship soon turned romantic and they married, moving to the United States. Tracy Lynch, Corbett’s sister, says that before his death, Jason professed his unhappiness in the marriage. She believes Martens acted in fear of the family’s separation. Both Martens and her father, former FBI agent Tim Masters, maintain Jason had become abusive and they acted in self-defense when he tried to strangle Molly during an argument. The prosecution said it was murder. They were both convicted of second-degree murder in 2017, but have maintained their innocence. Lynch and the children went back to Ireland. In 2019, the state appeals court moved to allow oral arguments in the case. Lynch waits for the appeals court’s decision and has written a book about the case. On-screen text graphic: A wrongful death lawsuit on behalf of Jason’s children was settled by Tom Martens. 04/27/19 48 HOURS: “A Death in Payson Canyon” – a report the 2017 death by suicide of 16-year-old teenager Jchandra Brown and the discovery that her friend Tyrell Przybycian, who had many opportunities to stop her, helped her complete the act instead. After moving from Idaho to Utah, Brown became depressed and started getting into trouble at school. Brown was discovered dead in the woods in Payson Canyon, Utah after not returning home from work one day. The scene initially looked like a clear-cut case of suicide. Then, police found a video on Brown’s cell phone of the suicide, shot by someone else. During the search of the area, Przybycian approached police saying he wanted to explain what happened. He said he was merely helping Brown do what she wanted to do. At the time, there was no law against assisting a person in a suicide. Detectives later discovered new evidence, such as a text Przybycian sent to a friend saying “it’s like getting away with murder,” and prosecutors charged him with first-degree murder. As the trial approached, Przybycian was charged with witness tampering after urging friends not to testify. He asked for a deal and eventually pleaded guilty to child abuse/homicide and received a sentence of 5 years to life. A law was passed in Utah which considers assisting in a suicide to be manslaughter. On-screen text graphic: If you are thinking about suicide or know someone who is, please call the National Suicide Prevention Lifeline 1-800-273-8255. Though SAMSAM has gone quiet since an FBI indictment, 26% of cities and counties in the United States now report having to fend off a ransomware attack every hour, and Mike Christman of the FBI says “everyone should expect to be attacked.” Includes interviews with Hancock Regional Hospital CEO Steve Long; Mayor David Miller of Leeds, Alabama; head of the FBI cybercrime unit, Mike Christman; Tom Pace, vice president of BlackBerry-Cylance; and Howard Shook, a councilman and chair of the finance committee in Atlanta, Georgia. - 05/04/19 48 HOURS: “The Case Against Enrico Forti” – an investigation into whether Enrico Forti, a former television producer and windsurfing champion, was wrongly convicted of murder 20 years ago. Forti negotiated a deal to buy a hotel in Ibiza, Spain owned by Tony Pike. Tony’s sons, Dale and Brad, felt the property was worth much more due to celebrity clientele. Dale Pike flew from Australia to Miami and was found dead on a beach. When questioned, Forti lied to the police about picking up Pike from the airport. As he was the last person to see Pike alive, Forti became the prime suspect. Forti was tried, convicted of murder, and sentenced to life in prison in 2000. One juror on the case, who voted to convict, does not believe Forti is guilty. In Italy and other parts of Europe, the case has become infamous. 48 HOURS reported on new information regarding the case and traveled to Italy and Germany to find leads on an alternate suspect. On-screen text graphic: Enrico Forti is hoping to have his sentence commuted. - 05/11/19 48 HOURS: “#FindPeterChadwick” – a report on the investigation into the search for a multimillionaire real estate investor accused of killing his wife and staging a kidnapping plot. Peter Chadwick and his wife, Q.C. Chadwick, seemed to have the perfect life. College sweethearts, they were married for 21 years and had three sons. They lived in a gated community in Newport Beach, California. That dream life collapsed one day in 2012 when neither of the Chadwicks turned up to pick up their sons from the bus stop. Investigators had little idea that day the search for the couple would lead them on an international manhunt. The next morning, San Diego authorities got a 911 call from Chadwick, claiming a house painter named Juan murdered Q.C. and forced Peter Chadwick to get her body out of the house. He said a man helped Juan and they were planning to cut up his wife’s body and dispose it south of the border. Law enforcement didn’t believe Chadwick, and he was arrested and charged with Q.C.’s murder. He was released on $1 million in bail. Then he vanished. Members of the U.S. Marshals team reveal they’ve had some key clues to where he is. Chadwick is one of the U.S. Marshals’ 15 most-wanted fugitives. The U.S. Marshals have been getting a lot of leads about Chadwick, many from around the globe, and at least one from a scammer. On-screen text graphic: Have you seen Peter Chadwick? 48 HOURS (continued)

05/18/19 48 HOURS: "What Happened to Rachael?" – a report on the investigation into the murder of Rachael DelTondo, a popular teacher who was gunned down outside her home in Aliquippa, Pennsylvania. It is the ninth unsolved murder in a city with an underfunded and understaffed police department, leaving many to wonder if the case will be solved. The investigation has led to several potential leads for the police to follow, including the actions of DelTondo's ex-fiance Frank Catroppa and her friendship with Sheldon Jeter, a young Aliquippa High School athlete. Before the murder, Catroppa, was allowed access to a police report about DelTondo with a lot of sensitive personal information, but he denies showing it to anyone. Jeter, through his attorney, also denies anything to do with the murder. There is also the belief, that Sheldon Jeter was obsessed with DelTondo and there may have been some sort of inappropriate relationship. Her mother, Lisa DelTondo, also says her daughter told her she was cooperating in an ongoing investigation by state police, into alleged corruption in the Aliquippa Police Department, and had received death threats. It has been a year since the murder: her parents distrust the police, the authorities not saying anything, and a consultant believes if things were not the way they were in Aliquippa, Rachael DelTondo would still be alive. On-screen text graphic: Anyone with information on Rachael DelTondo's murder should call the Beaver County Detective Bureau at 724-773-8569. 05/25/19 48 HOURS PRESENTS: "Pvt. Needham's War" - a report on the case of Pvt. John Needham, a decorated soldier diagnosed with traumatic brain injury (TBI) and post-traumatic stress disorder (PTSD), and who investigators say beat his 19-year-old girlfriend Jacque Villagomez to death with his bare hands in September 2008. Needham took responsibility for the murder, but remembered little of the crime, recognizing only that something inside him had snapped. After serving in Iraq, Needham returned home, shattered physically and emotionally. He suffered from combat injuries and was prescribed drugs which he downed with alcohol. He knew Villagomez, who had also struggled with drug addiction, for only a few months when she moved in with him. His drinking escalated. After his father, Mike Needham Sr., told Jacque that she had to move out and she had agreed, an old girlfriend came to the house upsetting Villagomez. An argument between the two women broke out, resulting in his ex's departure and a call to 911. When police arrived, they found Jacque Villagomez battered and near death, with John Needham naked, crying, and smeared in blood. There was no evidence that anything other than Needham's fists were used to beat Villagomez. Released on bail, his father sought to get his son the care he believed he needed and insisted that the crime was not murder. The father argued that if not for Needham's war injuries, Villagomez would be alive today. Mike Needham Sr. allowed investigative reporter Michael de Yoanna and a team of filmmakers to document the unraveling of his son's life. Before his trial, John visited his mother in Tucson, AZ in 2010 for additional back surgery. His brother, Mike Needham Jr., came to visit from California. Shortly after his arrival, Mike found his brother unresponsive -- he was dead at the age twenty-six. His death was determined to be from an overdose of painkillers, but the question remains as to whether it was an accident or suicide. The prosecutors in the Villagomez case says that John Needham may have been a good soldier, but he needed to be held accountable for what he did. Original on-screen text graphic: 48 Hours Mystery reached out repeatedly to the Army for a response to John Needham's story. The Army declined to comment. This investigation, in collaboration with the Newport News Police Department – led agents on the trail of twisted relations, lies, and secret double-lives. Investigators learned that everyone had nothing but good things to say about Voss himself. They learned his wife, Cat, made up many stories about herself and took up with various men while Voss was away at sea. She went on a spending spree using almost all of a $100,000 death benefit she received on vacations, jewelry and restaurants. They came to suspect her friend, Michael Draven, spending months listening to wiretaps and conducting around-the-clock surveillance on their suspects. They ultimately learned a third party involved in the murder. Eight months after Voss was killed, his wife and two men were arrested and charged with murder. Includes interviews with Gregory Ford, Executive Assistant Director of NCIS Criminal Investigations; NCIS team members Dana Shutt, Maureen Evans, Larry Rilee, Jim Grebas, and Sandra Barrow; Ashley Doyle, a friend of Cat; Carol |

NCIS: THE CASES THEY CAN'T FORGET: "Heartless" (10:00-11:00pm) – a report about the challenging detective work that went into cracking the murder of Lt. Lee Hartley, who fell mysteriously ill while serving aboard the USS Forestal while deployed in the Mediterranean Sea. Lt. Hartley was airlifted to a Naval hospital where his illness baffled doctors. Months later he died. His autopsy revealed he died of acute arsenic poisoning. Toxicology tests indicated he was poisoned while on duty aboard the ship. After a year, with no obvious suspects, the case went cold. Nearly thirteen years later, the NCIS cold case squad reopened the old casefile. Family, friends, and potential witnesses were re-interviewed before investigators discovered information which led them to the killer. His wife, Pamela Hartley, was unhappy in her marriage and sent homemade food to the ship which Lt. Hartley consumed. She says she didn't want to hurt him with a divorce and thought death would be a better option. She pled guilty and was sentenced to 40 years in prison. She was released six-and-a-half years later. Thirty-six years later, his daughter and her former step-mother met again. Includes interviews with retired NCIS Special Agents Pete Hughes and David Early; Gregory Ford, Executive Assistant Director of NCIS Criminal Investigations; NCIS Investigative Review Specialist Lou Eliopoulos; NCIS team member Jim Grebas; Hartley's wife Pamela; and Hartley's daughter Stephanie. When first responders arrived, the cut was so deep, police questioned whether it was really a suicide attempt. Medical experts claim there is no physical way she could have committed the act herself. Later, Mead changed her story: it wasn't suicide, it was her estranged husband Kris Ertmann, who tried to kill her. Mead claimed she met Ertmann in a secluded park to get a child support check. He suddenly grabbed her in a bear hug and slit her throat. Thinking she was about to die, she drove the car to a parking lot which became a second crime scene. An investigation led to Ertmann being arrested and charged with attempted murder. He claimed he could not remember anything and had PTSD. Additional investigating revealed Ertmann ultimately trying to arrange a hit on his estranged wife, resulting in an undercover cop posing as a hit man and getting instructions from Ertmann to kill his wife. The case never went to trial. Prosecutors offered a deal to plead no contest, and will spend the rest of his life in prison. Tiffany Mead lives with her new husband and her emotional support dog. - 06/08/19 48 HOURS: "The Lost Boy" (9:00 - 10:00p) - a report on the 1979 disappearance of Etan Patz, a 6-year-old New York City boy who was allowed to walk to the school bus stop just two blocks from his home; and the case against Pedro Hernandez, the man charged in 2012 with killing him. The disappearance shocked the city and still haunts law enforcement investigators who have spent decades trying to find Patz. This case changed the way in which parents watch over their children. Police searched for him extensively, but the case grew cold. There was one suspect, a pedophile named Jose Ramos, but the case against him never moved forward because it lacked corroboration. In 2010, new District Attorney Cyrus Vance, Jr. vowed to take a fresh look into Etan's disappearance. In 2012, the NYPD got a tip from a relative of Pedro Hernandez, who had talked about hurting a boy around the time of the Patz disappearance. Police questioned him and he confessed to the crime. He also took them to locations near the Patz home where he said he disposed of the body. His court-appointed attorney says he's unreliable because of his psychiatric condition. In 2015, he went on trial, but the jury deadlocked and there was no verdict. At a second trial he was convicted and sentenced to 25- years-to-life. On-screen text graphic: Etan would be 45 years old. His remains have never been found. Pedro Hernandez's legal team is working on an appeal.

06/08/19 48 HOURS: "Jayme Closs: Hometown Hero" (10:00-11:00p) – a reedited and updated rebroadcast of a 48 HOURS SPECIAL: "Jayme Closs Comes Home" (OAD: 01/12/19), which includes new interviews by Gayle King, newly released evidence photos, the 911 call that came from her home during the kidnapping, and Closs' powerful statement read at the sentencing hearing of Patterson who pleaded guilty to kidnapping her and murdering her parents. Jayme Closs' story captured the world's hearts when she disappeared from her family's home in Barron, Wisconsin on October 15, 2018. She fled her captor 88 days later. The report focuses on the heroism Closs showed in outwitting her kidnapper, Jake Patterson. Closs was discovered missing after police responded to a strange 911 call from her family home. There, police found both of her parents dead. The search for Closs made national headlines. She was found alive on January 10 when she approached a woman walking her dog in a Wisconsin town about 70 miles from her home. The one-hour broadcast highlights the incredible strength and determination Closs used to survive the ordeal and how that has played into her life since returning home. Gayle King explores the impact her story has had on the community and the world at large. On-screen text graphic: Friends say Jayme is doing very well since coming home. She is seeing family and friends, and has started therapy. Includes interviews with Jayme's aunt Jennifer Smith; Baron County Sheriff Chris Fitzgerald; Neighbor Jeanne Nutter, who found Jayme; neighbors Kristen and Peter Kasinskas; Jayme's aunt Sue Allard; Jayme's cousin Lindsey Smith; and other children who have been kidnapped and members of their family. 06/15/19 48 HOURS: "Portrait of a Killer" - a report about a new controversial California law that could free Daniel Marsh, who was convicted of the murders of Oliver "Chip" Northup and Claudia Maupin. Both the victims were savagely stabbed to death as they slept inside their Davis, California home. Police found no physical evidence. Investigation had ruled out family members and police were running out of clues. Then two months after the April 14, 2013 murders, the police received a phone call from a teenager who said his best friend, the then 15-year-old Daniel Marsh, had bragged about the murders. In an interview with police, Marsh told them what happened. Experts diagnosed him as a psychopath and said he killed for pleasure. Marsh was tried as an adult - convicted and sentenced to 52 years to life. Four years after the conviction, a new California law, Proposition 57, has thrown his sentence into jeopardy. His lawyers are arguing that he should be re-sentenced as a juvenile. If successful, Marsh, now 21, might be able to be released from prison on his 25th birthday. At a hearing, a judge listened to the evidence to determine if Marsh should be re-tried as a juvenile and receive a lighter sentence. The prosecution continued to maintain he is a psychopath. In a surprise move, Daniel Marsh took the stand. In the decision, the judge found the evidence and Marsh's testimony to be credible, but determined it was not a chance worth taking. Marsh will remain in prison. In 2018, a new law was signed into effect, saying that anyone younger than 15-years-old would never be tried as an adult. His lawyers want Marsh included retroactively. On-screen text graphic: In California, there are at least three other pending cases where juveniles have been convicted of murder and sentenced as adults.

On-screen text graphic for the 06/15/19 rebroadcast: Daniel Marsh's lawyers appealed the Court's ruling and were denied. They are now considering filing an appeal to have Marsh included under SB 1391. Interviewed: Victoria Hurd and Sarah Rice (daughter and granddaughter of Marion Maupin); Robert Northrup and Mary Northrup (son and daughter of Chip Northup); Paul Doroshov (Davis Police Lieutenant); Chris Campion (former Special Agent); Jeff Reisig (District Attorney); Alvaro Garibay (Daniel's friend); Amanda Zambor (Deputy District Attorney); Dr. Mathew Soulier (psychiatrist); Dr. Matthew Logan (forensic psychologist). 48 HOURS (continued)

- 06/22/19 48 HOURS: “Defending DJ” - a report about Danroy “DJ” Henry and the dedication and struggles his family endured trying to restore their son’s reputation after he was shot dead in Pleasantville, New York, by police officer Aaron Hess in 2010. This event triggered a seven-year journey for the family as they searched for answers about what really happened. During a night out with his teammates, a fight broke out among other restaurant patrons and police were called to the scene. DJ and his friends decided to leave. They were waiting in his car in a fire lane prior to their departure. Police approached the vehicle and told DJ he should move; his friends said DJ started to slowly move away. The police claim that DJ tried to mow officers down with his car when Officer Hess approached and that was how Officer Hess ended up on the hood of the car, shooting his weapon and fatally injuring DJ as he sat behind the wheel. The police claimed Officer Hess shot because he feared for his life. DJ’s friends painted a far different version of the incident. Witnesses agreed, also saying that medical attention was slow to respond. The Henry family vowed to learn the truth – even it was bad. They wanted to know what happened to their son and filed a lawsuit. Four years after the shooting, the family was still hopeful. In 2016, the Henry family accepted the decision in a wrongful death suit against the Village of Pleasantville and Aaron Hess and were awarded $6 million. In 2017, they settled a wrongful death suit with the town of Mount Pleasant for an undisclosed amount and something more valuable to them: a public apology. Seven years after DJ’s death, they cleared his name. No criminal charges were brought in the case. Today, Aaron Hess works in private security. The Henry family has founded the DJ Henry Dream Foundation to honor their son’s memory. On-screen text graphic: Chief Louis Alagno retired in 2013. In 2015 New York State law changed. Police shootings of unarmed civilians are now automatically assigned to a special prosecutor. Interviewed: Dan Henry (father); Angella Henry (mother); Kyle Henry (brother); Amber Henry (sister); Desmond Hines, Brandon Cox, Daniel Parker (DJ’s friends); Michael Sussman (Henry family attorney); Brian Sokoloff (Aaron Hess attorney) (C: James Brown – P: Alvin Patrick, Sarah Prior) (OAD: 12/01/18)
- 06/29/19 48 HOURS: “Missing Marsha” (9:00 – 10:00p) - a report on the 2009 disappearance of Marsha Brantley, a Cleveland, Tennessee woman who suddenly vanished, with no one, including her husband, Donne Brantley, family, or friends reporting her missing for several months, until her hairdresser, Kelly DeLude, became concerned over a missed appointment and called the police. Her husband immediately became a suspect, but there was no physical evidence of a crime. He claimed she left him, leaving everything behind, including her dogs and her home. In 2013, Brantley was arrested, but prosecutors dropped the charges after deciding they did not have enough evidence for a conviction, even though he pleaded the Fifth Amendment or said he could not remember over 100 times in a civil suit brought against him. Family members believe her husband is responsible for her disappearance. Friends from her book club would not be surprised if she turned up sometime. Following the election of a new District Attorney, Brantley was again charged with police using essentially the same evidence. Then in 2018, two days before the trial, the charges were dismissed. Police cannot prove Marsha was murdered and were afraid the judge would throw out the case. On-screen text graphic: Donnie kept the dogs. They still live with him today. To call in a tip, contact the Bradley County Sheriff's Office at (423) 728-7336. On-screen text graphic for 06/29/19 rebroadcast: To call in a tip, contact the Bradley County Sheriff's Office at (423) 728-7336. 48 HOURS (continued)

06/29/19 48 HOURS: "Knock" (10:00 – 11:00p) - an investigation into the murders of two beloved grandmothers, Betty Jones and her friend Kathryn Crigler, who were brutally attacked in 1990 after answering a knock on the door at Crigler's Starkville, Mississippi home; and how a driven detective and cutting-edge technology helped to solve the nearly three-decades old murder and rape. The intruder forced his way into the house and immediately killed Betty. He then raped Kathryn, who died months later of complications from her injuries. The leads went nowhere and current lead Detective Bill Lott struggled for years to solve it. Jason B. Jones, a Nashville album designer and step-grandson of Betty, wanted to know what happened. He knew little about the case, but in 2005, a chance meeting between Jason's mother and Kathryn's granddaughter Juky Holt led to his renewed interest. In 2017, he launched a podcast as a way to work through his own questions about the incident and perhaps uncover new information. Jason subsequently learned that Betty had sponsored a family who escaped the Khmer Rouge regime in Cambodia and the family named their daughter after Betty. In 2018, as his podcast was coming to an end, there was no finality, because no one knows who killed Betty and Kathryn. However, Detective Lott's quest led him to Parabon NanoLabs in Reston, Virginia. Parabon NanoLabs has developed technology called genetic genealogy, which can predict what someone looks like through their DNA. The results led to a name, Michael Wayne DeVaughn, and his DNA was a match to the DNA taken from Crigler the night of the attack. Twenty-eight years after the crime, the suspected attacker was charged with Betty's murder and the rape and sexual battery of Kathryn Crigler. All may now know who knocked on the door that night, but the storyteller in Jones still needs to know how this tale ends. On-screen text graphic: Prosecutors are presenting their case against Michael DeVaughn to a grand jury. To date, there has been no indictment and DeVaughn has not entered a plea. Sergeant Bill Lott has been promoted to Lieutenant. On-screen text graphic for the 06/29/19 rebroadcast: Michael DeVaughn pleaded not guilty in January 2019. He is awaiting trial. Sergeant Bill Lott has been promoted to lieutenant. Interviewed: Jason Jones (podcaster); Bill and Colleen Jones (his parents); Anne McWhorter (Betty's sister); Julia Crigler Hold (aka Juky Holt) (Crigler's granddaughter); David Lindley (retired lead detective); Sergeant Bill Lott (current lead detective); Dr. Ellen Greytak (Parabon's lead scientist for DNA phenotyping); Thom Shaw (forensic artist); Betty Hong (daughter of the family Betty Sponsored) (C: Richard Schlesinger - P: Lourdes Aguiar) (OAD: 01/19/19)

NCIS: THE CASES THEY CAN'T FORGET

06/05/19 NCIS: THE CASES THEY CAN'T FORGET: "Shattered Glass" (9:00 – 10:00p) - Naval Criminal Investigative Service agents bring viewers inside the investigation into the attack on a marine stationed in Kuwait, which at first looked like terrorism but led them on an unexpected trail to something else. Chief Warrant Officer James "Houston" Glass was nearly killed when a grenade exploded in a guard shack in Kuwait. He barely survived the blast, suffering severe wounds to his neck, back and legs. NCIS agent Matt Timmons was stationed in Kuwait and immediately responded. The agent reveals they soon had doubts about it being a terror attack. As they dug in, they found the secret double lives of those closest to Glass, which turned the case in an unexpected direction. NCIS agents take viewers inside the case, which took shrewd detective work, including mind games on potential suspects, to find out who would want Glass dead. The case took them back to the United States, where investigation revealed a shocking conspiracy; Larry Framness, who was having an affair with Glass' wife, admitted to throwing the grenade. (Host: Rocky Carroll – Producer: Kim Kennedy)

- 06/12/19 NCIS: THE CASES THEY CAN'T FORGET: "Unbreakable" (9:00 – 10:00p) - Naval Criminal Investigative Service agents take viewers inside the emotional investigation into the brutal attack, torture and murder of Marine Corps Sergeant Jan Pawel Pietrzak and his wife, Quiana Jenkins-Pietrzak. Sgt. Pietrzak was known as a tough disciplinarian. It was also known around the base that he had gotten a $30,000 bonus months earlier and had told some people he had kept the money at their home, which was near Marine Corps Air Station Camp Pendleton in California. Whoever attacked the couple also tried to burn their home down. NCIS agents, who worked with the Riverside Sheriff's Department on the investigations, reveal the shrewd detective work that went into the case. Early clues, including different footprints at the crime scene, led investigators to believe they were looking for more than one suspect. The investigation took a turn when agents learned someone used Quiana Jenkins-Pietrzak's card at an ATM right outside the gate of Camp Pendleton, which helped lead them to unraveling the ties that bound the four suspects and the victims together. It was later found out that four Marines entered the Pietrzak home, sexually assaulted Jenkins-Pietrzak and tortured the couple before killing them. Two of the four accused Marines worked under Pietrzak's command. Riverside County authorities maintain the motivation was robbery, and the pending murder with special circumstances and sexual assault charges do not include an assertion that the crime was racially motivated. All four of the accused plead not guilty to murdering Pietrzak and his wife. After meeting with the families of the deceased, District Attorney Rod Pacheco decided to seek the death penalty on January 22, 2009. The preliminary trial hearings to determine whether the four assailants would stand trial occurred on March 26, 2009, and April 3, 2009 in San Diego. On 24 June 2013 a jury rendered a verdict of death for two of the four assailants and life in prison without parole for a third. The fourth assailant was later also sentenced to death. (Host: Rocky Carroll – Producer: Elena DiFiore)
- 06/19/19 NCIS: THE CASES THEY CAN'T FORGET: "The Enemy Within" (9:00 – 10:00p) - When Naval Criminal Investigative Service agents and their counterparts from the Air Force Office of Special Investigations probe the murder of an Air Force sergeant in Japan, they are led on a dark, twisted trail of deception, fraud, and witchcraft. Air Force Technical Sergeant Curtis Eccleston was found brutally stabbed to death in his apartment off base in Okinawa, Japan. The respected airman had no known enemies and a career on the rise. His death shocked the Japanese island. Agents Lindsay Temes and Heather Bellar from Air Force Office of Special Investigations were among the first to arrive at the gruesome crime scene. Air Force OSI agents called in NCIS to help solve murder. NCIS and Air Force OSI agents were initially concerned because Eccleston's wife Barbara was nowhere to be found until hours after his body was discovered. Investigators soon learned Barbara was cheating on her husband. At the time of his death, the couple had been in the process of getting a divorce. She told them he had been dealing drugs and she was concerned he was killed because of a drug deal gone bad. But as agents began to look into the drug angle, something just didn't seem right. When those leads ran cold the agents went back to the scene of the crime. What they uncovered through digital forensics would reveal that the cover-up and diabolical premeditation was almost as brutal as the crime itself. Evidence revealed another airman, Nicholas Cron, murdered Eccleston because he was having an affair with his girlfriend. Both Cron and Barbara Eccleston were charged with murder. In January 2012, Cron pleaded guilty to 3 charges in an attempt to avoid the death penalty; he received life without parole. At Barbara's trial in April 2012, Cron was a witness. She was sentenced to 20 years of hard labor in a Japanese prison. (Host: Rocky Carroll – Producers: Matt Goldfarb, Lucy Craft)
