3. Fire has burned over one million acres, in the panhandle, and 40 plus, families in Canadian Tx, have lost their homes & all of their possessions.

Action: Means Methodist Church announced a trailer is parked at the church to accept, food, clothing, household items, water, Gatorade, & toys, to be taken to Canadian, Tx on Tuesday March 5th.

FM: Announced 35 times from March 2nd thru 5th, 2024, on KACT FM.
4. With wildfires burning over a million acres in the panhandle, there is more than the human need as we helped with earlier-there is the need to feed & care for livestock & other animals, as their food supply (pasture grass) has burned up, & for those who had wooden fence post, their fencing is gone.

Action: Announced a list of items furnished by the Agricultural Extension Office in Andrews, that can be taken to the extension office or Tractor Supply, to leave for Canadian Tx, Friday morning March 8th, 2024 with these feed and fencing items & other items for the care of livestock.

FM: Announced 20 times on KACT FM.
5. Lots of stray dogs running loose in town.

Action: Announced that the city has waived the adoption fee, of strays at the pound. You can adopt, no fees. You are required to have the pet spayed or neutered. The City of Andrews as an adoption incentive will pay 75.00 of that cost.

FM: Ran 270 announcements from Jan 1, 2024 through March 31, 2024.
