Beer & Arthritis Researchers found the number of children with type-one diabetes has increased "21%." They found a "30%" increase in type-two diabetes. Doctors say tooth decay is on the rise in children ages five and under because many of them don't see a dentist. We've heard an aspirin a day can help prevent a heart attack... but the F-D-A now warns... that daily pill isn't for everyone. A few beers a few times a week might help women lower their risk of rheumatoid arthritis. |
| Healthy You | 5/18/14 at 11:00am | Michigan E. Coli, Who: MERs Threat Increased, Kent Health Survey, FDA & Kids Smoking, Too Much Exercise? Red Wine Not So Good A severe strain of the bacteria sent at least one person to the hospital in Kent County and some health officials believe there are more cases they don't know about yet. Health officials say hundreds may have been exposed to the MERS virus, so airlines are working w/the CDC to contact passengers who flew with the infected patients. The Health Department is expanding on a recent C-D-C survey taken in the county. The F-D-A wants you to join the fight to keep children away from tobacco, tell on people or businesses that sell to underage kids or don't ask for an ID. Researchers say there is such a thing as too much exercise, moderate exercise is best for heart health. You may have heard drinking red wine will help people live longer but research suggests it's not effective as first thought. |
| Healthy You | 5/25/14 at 11:00am | MFB MSU Announcement, Spectrum Neuropace, Fighting Cancer in Space, Measles Cancer, States Ranked for Senior Health, Fashion has Heart This week... Mary Free Bed Rehabilitation Hospital and the M-S-U College of Human Medicine announced a new partnership to transform Mary Free Bed into a research and teaching hospital. One innovation created to treat severe epilepsy is now helping patients here in West Michigan. Spectrum Health was the first hospital in the state to implant a device called the 'neuro-pace.' The new study performed on the International Space Station looked for new parts of thyroid cancer cells that new drugs could one day target. Researchers at the Mayo Clinic may have come up with a cancer breakthrough... they found a "massive" dose of an engineered version of the measles virus... wiped out one woman's cancer. Michigan seems to be a pretty healthy state for senior citizens to live in, 20th in the nation. The program 'Fashion has Heart'... teams veterans with designers from around the country. |
| | | Tick Boom on Michigan, Tick Protection, MI Mammogram Bill, Tomoxifen & Breast Cancer, |

| | | |

| Healthy You | 6/1/14 at 11:00am | Cholesterol & Fertility We are already in the peak of tick season and it will last through mid-July. Experts w/the MSU Extension say they're occurring where ticks were rare a few years ago. To protect yourself... apply insect repellent to your shoes... socks and inside your pant legs. Tuck your pant legs into your socks. A state senate health policy committee has approved a bill that would add to mammography guidelines. Speaking of breast cancer... new guidelines could mean an even longer course of a medicine, millions take to keep cancer from coming back. High cholesterol may be hurting some couples' chances of having a baby. Researchers say the finding may show cholesterol plays a role in our bodies' hormones. |
| Health You | 6/8/14 at 11:00am | FDA & Tanning Beds, A Dermatologist's Take, Melanoma Drug Study, Lyme Disease Victim, Tick Protection, New Grads & Obamacare The F-D-A issued a black-box warning, its strongest warning, saying children under 18 should not use tanning beds because they emit radiation that may cause skin cancer. Dr. Diana Castanon, a dermatologist with Forefront Dermatology in Grand Rapids joins us. You've talked about the dangers of tanning beds with us before, what do you think about the F-D-A's new action? Researchers have made a breakthrough in treating patients with stage three and stage four melanoma. The F-D-A approved Yervoy in 2011 but they have not approved the second drug. Today, we want to show you the impact Lyme disease has on a person. WZZM 13's Peter Ross introduces you to a woman who says, because of the condition, she feels like the walking dead. To keep ticks off of you, spray insect repellent onto your shoes, socks and inside your pant legs. Tuck your pant legs into your socks. The class of 2014 has to think about more than a job after college, they need to think about health insurance. |
| Healthy You | 6/15/14 at 11:00am | Special: Young Mother, Home Births, Peach & Pistachio Conserve Holly plans to take part in a new program at Mercy Health that matches up survivors with those who are newly diagnosed, so she can help other women. So here's your reminder to contact your friend for life on this May 13. There's a new trend among expectant mothers... delivering their babies at home. I wanted to find out why more moms are choosing their home over the hospital. As we get into the summer time... more fresh fruits will appear at markets around West Michigan. Diane Devereaux, the Canning Diva, joins us to show you how to make 'Peach Pistachio Conserve'... a recipe you created last summer. |

|-------------|---------|--|
| Healthy You | 6/29/14 | Mosquitos Bite, Mosquitos Remedies First today, good news for women who breastfeed. Now in MI, no business can force you to leave for nursing a baby. State Senators approved a bill requiring mammogram reports including information regarding breast density & doctors must warn patients in writing. A new study suggests a 3-D mammogram would do better than the FDA approved a few years ago. African American women have a higher risk of having dense breast tissue that causes a higher death rate. An outreach program in Gris turning a community into a friends for life. According to MSU entomologists, there are 3 times the number of mosquitoes. Snow melted that left water pockets, not hot enough to evaporate, perfect breeding ground for mosquitoes. Certain people attract mosquitoes & home remedies that actually work. |
