

WBRT Bardstown, KY

Quarterly Issues/Programs List

1st Quarter, 2023

WBRT operating in the public's interest provides several weekly shows covering a wide range of topics that are researched and produced.

WBRT also provides daily newscast, weather forecasts, and issues special news bulletins when it impacts our listening area. We are able to do this with our staff of local announcers and reporters.

We also frequently invite into the studios for live interview and updates on items of current community interest in our listening area. Unless noted all shows air at 11 a.m. on the date listed.

The following page outlines the weekly program topics.
