

KPNT-FM

ISSUES/PROGRAMS

FOR

April 1, 2016 – June 30, 2016

Placed In File On:

July 8, 2016

ISSUES AND PROGRAMS REPORTApril 1, 2016 – June 30, 2016

| DATE | TIME | LGTH | TITLE | GUESTS | DETAILS |
|---------------------------------|-------------|-------------|--|---|--|
| Sunday, April 03, 2016 | 6:00a | 25 | Today's Issues: The 6th Annual Teen Talent Competition and Why I Married You, plus Missouri Viewpoints | Tony Parise- FoxPACF Teen Talent Show Producer and Mentor and Chana Levitan, Author of "That's Why I Married You" | It's a FREE Broadway Style Teen Talent Competition happening at the Fabulous Fox on April 23rd. St. Louis' own Broadway legend Tony Parise gives us the scoop. After that, did you know that it's most likely the very thing that annoys you most about your spouse is the thing key to a long-lasting marriage? We'll tell you why with marriage therapist and author, Chana Levitan. After that, it's Missouri Viewpoints. It's all coming up next on Today's Issues. |
| Sunday, April 03, 2016 | 6:30a | 30 | Missouri Viewpoints: Ferguson, MO Update – Impact on Missouri and America | Ferguson City Councilman Wesley Bell and State Rep. Courtney Curtis (D), | Ferguson City Councilman Wesley Bell and State Rep. Courtney Curtis (D), who represents Ferguson in the Missouri Legislature, provide updates on the rebuilding of the city physically, economically and culturally. They also discuss the impact of the violence and other reactions to the shooting death of Michael Brown on the entire state and nation. |
| Sunday, April 10, 2016 | 6:00a | 25 | Today's Issues: March of Dimes/March for Babies | Diane Droegge- Communications Specialist with the March of Dimes and Molly Lubeiweski, Nurse and mother of two sets of twins. | What can you do to help support the health of all babies and their moms? Participate in the oldest and longest-held walk event in St. Louis, The March of Dimes March for Babies. We'll tell you more with representatives from the March of Dimes. After that I tell you how a St. Louis non-profit is in the running for a $63,000 award, but they can't win if you don't participate. Which non-profit is it? We'll tell you coming up. And then we'll finish up the hour with Missouri Viewpoints |

ISSUES AND PROGRAMS REPORT

April 1, 2016 – June 30, 2016

| DATE | TIME | LGTH | TITLE | GUESTS | DETAILS |
|------------------------|-------------|-------------|--|--|---|
| Sunday, April 10, 2016 | 6:30a | 30 | Missouri Viewpoints: Public Policy & Cultural Debate/SJR39 - Religious Freedom or anti LGBT Discrimination | Monsanto's Duane Simpson and State Rep. Paul Curtman (R) | The debate over "SJR39 is among the most heated in the state right now. If approved by voters, it would amend the state constitution to protect clergy and some businesses that refuse business for same-sex weddings based on religious beliefs. Monsanto's Duane Simpson explains why his company, and several others, opposes the idea. State Rep. Paul Curtman (R) discusses his support for the measure. |
| Sunday, April 17, 2016 | 6:00a | 25 | Today's Issues: Spirit of St. Louis Air Show and Stem Expo | John Bales, President of Spirit of St. Louis Air Show & STEM Expo. Megan Davies, Director of Global Corporate Citizenship, Boeing Defense, Space & Security and Maureen Hergenroether, Business Leader, Corporate Philanthropy & Citizenship, MasterCard | It's an event that covers almost 60 acres and it's sure to inspire and excite both in the air and on the ground. And it takes off May 14th and 15th. Why you won't want to miss this event coming up. After that it's a look at our community calendar followed by Missouri Viewpoints. (Mo. Marijuana Laws |
| Sunday, April 17, 2016 | 6:30a | 30 | Missouri Viewpoints: Medical Marijuana in Missouri | Jack Cardatti from New Approach Missouri an Joy Sweeney and Bridget Klotz are the co-directors of Keeping Missouri Kids Safe | Jack Cardatti from New Approach Missouri describes the ballot initiative his organization is promoting that would legalize marijuana for medical use in the state. Joy Sweeney and Bridget Klotz are the co-directors of Keeping Missouri Kids Safe, which opposes efforts to legalize marijuana. They explain why they are opposed to this and other decriminalization efforts. |
| Sunday, April 24, 2016 | 6:00a | 25 | Today's Issues: Paws for Pets and Missouri House Rabbit Society | Deb Dubis Foster – Executive Director of HelpingStrays.org and Marjorie Mannahan – Educator and Director of Outreach for the House Rabbit Society of Missouri-St. Louis Chapter. | It's another edition of A Paws for Pets with the Executive Director or the Humane Society of Monroe County, Deb Dubis Foster. After that, many families purchase cute little bunnies during the Easter holiday season, only to realize that they are a little more work than anticipated and then they no longer want them. Where do unwanted bunnies go. |

ISSUES AND PROGRAMS REPORT

April 1, 2016 – June 30, 2016

| DATE | TIME | LGTH | TITLE | GUESTS | DETAILS |
|------------------------|-------------|-------------|--|---|---|
| Sunday, April 24, 2016 | 6:30a | 30 | Missouri Viewpoints: Union Reforms and Worker Rights in Missouri | Pat White from Missouri AFL-CIO, John Wright from the Show Me Institute | Pat White from the Missouri AFL-CIO and John Wright from the Show Me Institute offer two very different opinions on efforts to change laws impacting organized labor in the state. Much of the discussion centers on public sector unions including firefighters, police officers, teachers, etc. and on bills commonly called "Paycheck Protection" and "Right To Work". |
| Sunday, May 01, 2016 | 6:00a | 30 | HB2055 Joint Custody Bill.Air Show.MoVpts | Scott C Trout- Executive Managing Partner and CEO of Cordell and Cordell, Kristen Zurek, Lead Litigations Partner with Cordell and Cordell St. Louis. John Bales, President of Spirit of St. Louis Air Show & STEM Expo, Megan Davies, Director of Global Corporate Citizenship, Boeing Defense, Space & Security, and Maureen Hergenroether, Business Leader, Corporate Philanthropy & Citizenship, MasterCard | Equality is a hot topic in the news these days. There's Racial Equality, LGBT Equality, Pay Equality and more. But what about equality in the family court system especially as it pertains to Men's rights? Today, we'll discuss House Bill 2055. A Bill that's moving the Missouri legislature that some proponents say will even out the playing field for men. After that, the Blue Angles and Canadian Snow Birds are coming! We'll tell you when and where. |
| Sunday, May 01, 2016 | 6:30a | 30 | Missouri Viewpoints: Environmental Issues Updates | David Stokes from Great Rivers Habitat Alliance and Heather Navarro from Missouri Coalition for Environment | David Stokes from the Great Rivers Habitat Alliance and Heather Navarro from the Missouri Coalition for the Environment each address various debates and concerns affecting the environment in Missouri. |
| Sunday, May 08, 2016 | 6:00a | 25 | Today's Issues: Pay Equity Best Practices for Employers/MoVpts | Sonja Erickson, the author of the report and Wendy Doyle, executive director and CEO of the Women's Foundation | According to research, women in Missouri are paid an average of 71 cents to every dollar a man earns. The Woman's Foundation of Missouri in conjunction with Missouri University has released guidelines that employers should follow to eliminate the disparity. We'll tell you |

ISSUES AND PROGRAMS REPORT

April 1, 2016 – June 30, 2016

| DATE | TIME | LGTH | TITLE | GUESTS | DETAILS |
|----------------------------|-------------|-------------|--|--|---|
| Sunday, May 08, 2016 | 6:30a | 30 | Missouri Viewpoints: Campaign 2016 – Candidates Bush and Hanaway | Democrat Cori Bush is running for the US Senate. Former Missouri Speaker of the House Catherine Hanaway is running for Governor. | more. After that, It's a look at our Community Calendar, followed by Missouri Viewpoints. Guests: Sonja Erickson, the author of the report and Wendy Doyle, executive director and CEO of the Women's Foundation This week, we hear perspectives on state and national issues from two candidates. Democrat Cori Bush is running for the US Senate. Former Missouri Speaker of the House Catherine Hanaway is running for Governor |
| Sunday, May 15, 2016 | 6:00a | 25 | Today's Issues: Judge Jimmie.Ollie Mae Stewart. | Judge Jimmie and .Ollie Mae Stewart. | On this program, we'll discuss the SAFER program with Judge Jimmie Edwards of Innovative Concept Academy, plus we'll speak with Ollie Mae Stewart who is presenting the 36th Annual Bringing it Together HealthFest at Forest Park, Followed by Missouri Viewpoints. |
| Sunday, May 15, 2016 | 6:30a | 30 | Missouri Viewpoints: Legal Resources Available to Missouri's Low Income and to Crime Victims | Lee Camp - Attorney with Legal Services of Eastern Missouri and Kim Case - Work- Victims Advocate Program from Mo. Sheriffs Association. | Lee Camp is an attorney with Legal Services of Eastern Missouri. He describes some of the legal resources available from legal aid offices throughout the state that help low income Missourians facing evictions and other challenges. Also, Kim Case now works with the Victims' Advocate program for the Missouri Sheriff's Association. She's a victim of a violent crime and that experience has led her to help others. She describes what the Association does and why it is important for crime victims to have advocates during the legal process. |

ISSUES AND PROGRAMS REPORT

April 1, 2016 – June 30, 2016

| DATE | TIME | LGTH | TITLE | GUESTS | DETAILS |
|----------------------------|-------------|-------------|--|--|---|
| Sunday, May 22, 2016 | 6:00a | 25 | Today's Issues: Motorcycle Safety Awareness and Moving Kids Off the Autism Spectrum | Bill Kempker, Freedom of the Road Riders and Dr. Bart Colman and Tracy Colman, Founders of Moving Kids Off the Spectrum non-profit. | May is Motorcycle Safety Awareness Month. Today we'll hear safety tips from the Freedom of the Road Riders Organization. After that, it's an event to help Move Kids Off of the Autism Spectrum and features everything from princesses to BBQ, from canoe rides to a 60 Mile bike ride. |
| Sunday, May 22, 2016 | 6:30a | 30 | Missouri Viewpoints: Campaign 2016 – Candidates Morrison and Brunner | Eric Morison (D) and John Brunner (R) | Eric Morrison (D) and John Brunner (R) both want to be Missouri's next Governor. Both have to get through their parties' primary elections first, though. The candidates detail their stands on important issues and describe their visions for the state if they are elected. |
| Sunday, May 29, 2016 | 6:00a | 25 | Today's Issues: Paws for Pets Show #17 (How the Zika Virus and other Mosquito Borne Diseases May Be Dangerous to Your Pet) | Guest(s): Deb Dubis Foster – Executive Director of HelpingStrays.org and Andre Jermain, a 42-year old MMA Fighter from Collinsville, Illinois. | Description: Mosquito transmitted viruses are a hot news topic. From Zika to the West Nile, and others. Today on a Paws for Pets, we'll discuss mosquito transmitted viruses and its impact on your furry friend. After that it's a look at our community calendar, followed by Missouri Viewpoints. |
| Sunday, May 29, 2016 | 6:30a | 30 | Missouri Viewpoints: Jermaine Andre | Jermaine Andre | Jermaine Andre, a two-time world mixed martial arts champion, tells the story of his life in hopes of teaching others, especially young people, about the consequences of crime and violence. Andre spent part of his life in prison for a violent crime and now is a sought after inspirational speaker and author. His message includes anti bullying, anti-crime, anti-violence and fitness. |

ISSUES AND PROGRAMS REPORT

April 1, 2016 – June 30, 2016

| DATE | TIME | LGTH | TITLE | GUESTS | DETAILS |
|-----------------------------|-------------|-------------|---|---|--|
| Sunday, June 05, 2016 | 6:00a | 25 | Today's Issues: Miracles N Progress: Marrying Music and Medicine to help kids with cancer/Missouri Viewpoints | Trina Eakins – Founder of Miracles N Progress and Lisa Rothweil – Administrative Assistant. | Many have said that music has healing powers. Well, one St. Louis organization is setting out to prove that it's true with their FREE music therapy programs and Music themed wishes granted to kids with cancer. After that, it's a look at our Community Calendar followed by Missouri Viewpoints. It's all coming up next on Today's Issues. |
| Sunday, June 05, 2016 | 6:30a | 30 | Missouri Viewpoints: Technology & Changes in Missouri | Caleb Arthur, President of the Missouri Solar Industries Association, and John Sondag, President of ATT Missouri | Caleb Arthur, President of the Missouri Solar Industries Association, and John Sondag, President of ATT Missouri, discuss how technology is changing our homes, businesses and economy. Arthur provides insight into the availability of renewable energy to individual homes as well as to businesses. Sondag discusses access to broadband technology and how that is changing urban and rural communities as well as education, public safety, health care, business opportunity and entertainment. |
| Sunday, June 12, 2016 | 6:00a | 25 | Today's Issues: Judge Edwards Part 2: Innovative Concept Academy | Judge Jimmy Edwards – 22nd Circuit Judge and Founder of Innovative Concept Academy, Esther Williams Henderson – the assistant vice principal of community program services and Tyree Wilson – ICA Student and soon-to-be graduate | Many of today's youth and young adults are caught in a snarl between the judicial system and the educational system. Today's guest says that Innovate Concept Academy helps remove the snarl and replaces it with a step up on the ladder to success. |
| Sunday, June 12, 2016 | 6:30a | 30 | Missouri Viewpoints: Education & Hunger: The Challenge of Summer for Missouri Children | Missouri's Assistant Commissioner of Education, Dr. Sharon Helwig and Monica Palmer from Feeding Missouri | For most children in Missouri, summer is the time to relax and enjoy the break from school. For others, summer is the time some experts say children - particularly those in low income homes - fall behind their classmates. This week, Missouri's Assistant Commissioner of Education, Dr. Sharon Helwig, explains why being away from the classroom impacts poorer children more than those from middle and upper income homes. Also, for thousands of Missouri children, |

ISSUES AND PROGRAMS REPORT

April 1, 2016 – June 30, 2016

| DATE | TIME | LGTH | TITLE | GUESTS | DETAILS |
|-----------------------------|-------------|-------------|--|--|--|
| Sunday, June 19, 2016 | 6:00a | 25 | Today's Issues: Preventing Suicide: The Unique Challenges that Veterans Face and the Help Available through the VA | Elizabeth Baiocchi and Megan Voorhees – Suicide Prevention Social Workers with the St. Louis Veterans Medical Center | it's also about food because the free and reduced meals may be the only solid nutrition they get. Monica Palmer from Feeding Missouri has the startling numbers about "food insecurity" in the Show Me State. When school ends for the year, so does the supply of free or reduced meals for some children. For those still in need during the summer, Palmer has advice on accessing nutrition for the whole family. According the Department of Veterans Affairs, an average of 22 veterans commit suicide each year. Out of those, 17 veterans were not seeking or using medical benefits from the VA. And that a problem. This spring, the VA ramped up efforts to help veterans facing a crisis. Today we'll learn how and what you can do to help prevent suicide on Today's Issues. |
| Sunday, June 19, 2016 | 6:30a | 30 | Missouri Viewpoints: Legal Issue Updates | Lee Camp from Legal Services of Eastern Missouri and Tim Case from the Missouri Sheriff's Association | Legal Issue Updates Description: Lee Camp from Legal Services of Eastern Missouri discusses the help that is available to low income Missourians when facing challenges like evictions. These services are available throughout the state from the various regional legal aid offices. Also, Kim Case from the Missouri Sheriff's Association explains the organization's victims' advocacy efforts. She also tells her story of being a victim of violent crime and why she's chosen a career in victim services and advocacy. |

ISSUES AND PROGRAMS REPORT

April 1, 2016 – June 30, 2016

| DATE | TIME | LGTH | TITLE | GUESTS | DETAILS |
|-----------------------------|-------------|-------------|--|--|--|
| Sunday, June 26, 2016 | 6:00a | 25 | Today's Issues: A Paws for Pets: Let the Dogs Play! Plus The Anthony Smith 3-on-3 Basketball Tournament benefiting | Deb Dubis Foster – Executive Director of Helpingstrays.org and Jeremy Jones founder of the Anthony Smith 3 on 3 Basketball Tournament Please click on the links highlighted below to access the show. | Enrichment programs are a very hot thing right now in shelter pet care. Today we'll tell you about the Let The Dogs Play program, after that we'll tell you about the Annual Anthony Smith 3 on 3 Basketball Tournament |
| Sunday, June 26, 2016 | 6:30a | 30 | Missouri Viewpoints: Union Reforms and Worker Rights in Missouri | Pat White from the Missouri AFL-CIO and John Wright from the Show Me Institute | Topic: Union Reforms and Worker Rights in Missouri Description: Pat White from the Missouri AFL-CIO and John Wright from the Show Me Institute offer two very different opinions on efforts to change laws impacting organized labor in the state. Much of the discussion centers on public sector unions including firefighters, police officers, teachers, etc. and on bills commonly called "Paycheck Protection" and "Right To Work". |