

Community Issues and Program

2018 NEWS

April - June	Date	Time	Description of News segment	Other Misc comments
4	3	1'10"	Hawaii airline pilots report pair of mid-air near misses with drones	Two near misses with drones have rattled Hawaii airline pilots in recent weeks, and the Federal Aviation Administration confirms they're concerned with the increased number of reported drone sightings nationwide.
4	10	1'28"	Surveillance video shows suspect stealing safe from Pearl Harbor restaurant	Honolulu police need help finding a suspect who broke into a Pearl Harbor restaurant the early morning of March 25th. A security camera captures a man wearing a hoodie and a hat breaking into the office of Restaurant 604 next to the USS Arizona Memorial.
4	11	1'38"	New Medicare cards were supposed to cut down on identity theft. Then scammers got involved	The federal government is starting to mail out new Medicare cards without Social Security numbers to help prevent identity theft. They'll feature an 11-digit identification number instead.
4	18	1'43"	Planned power outage to affect several Ala Moana businesses, condos	With several Kauai residents and visitors without power or unable to return home after severe rainstorms caused heavy floods over the weekend, there are many people who need assistance.
4	25	1'02"	State legislature approves 'momentous' $570M affordable housing deal	State lawmakers approved a bill on Tuesday that allocates $570 million to creating thousands of affordable housing units in the Aloha State.
5	14	1'10"	Here's where the 18 active lava fissures are in lower Puna	Eighteen active lava fissures have opened in lower Puna, where lava has destroyed dozens of homes and is threatening more.
5	16	1'09"	Change in winds to bring vog up the island chain	Winds will be light and variable with just enough southeast flow to bring some volcanic haze up the island chain. Those with respiratory issues should take appropriate precautions.
5	25	1'19"	DOH warns of elevated bacteria levels at 3 beaches across the state.	In an email to users Biki says, this mini expansion added 58 docking points, bringing the system total to 1713 to accommodate the heavy use and growing demand in certain areas around Honolulu.
5	30	1'20"	FBI offers $20K reward for information on man's 2016 disappearance	The FBI is offering a reward of up to $20,000 for information leading to the arrest of those responsible for the disappearance of a young Honolulu man.

