

Community Issues and Program

2018 NEWS

Oct - Dec	Date	Time	Description of News segment	Other Misc comments
10	3	1'24"	Kamehameha Highway in Pearl City will soon go back to 3 lanes each way	For roughly two years, the commute along Kamehameha Highway has been a rough ride for drivers, residents and businesses because of rail construction.
10	8	1'17"	Lawsuit accuses Head Start operator of inflating enrollment with 'ghost children'	A recently unsealed lawsuit by former Head Start worker Bethany Lewis said staffers felt pressured to invent "ghost children" to qualify for federal and state grants.
10	24	1'31"	Kauai residents receive enticing letters to list homes as short-term vacation rentals	Kauai's prosecuting attorney has a warning Tuesday for vacation rental companies who may be encouraging illegal rentals.
10	29	1'19"	Raising a child is expensive, but the Hawaii Diaper Bank can help with one fundamental expense	Hawaii's first diaper bank received a huge boost this weekend. The new non-profit is raising awareness about families struggling to afford enough diapers to keep their baby clean and healthy.
11	13	1'41"	Thousands vie for units in new property near Ala Moana Center priced below market	About 1,000 people lined up on Monday to get a first look at developer SamKoo's newest condominium project: The Central Ala Moana. Over the weekend, about 2,000 people came out, many seeking to apply for units.
11	13	1'27"	Biki hits a milestone in one month with expansion on the horizon	In the month of October, the number of Biki rides soared. A total of 100,954 Biki rides were taken last month, which shows a major increase in ridership compared to one year ago.
11	14	1'14"	They can't get you through traffic, but the Freeway Service Patrol has helped ease it	As the nation marks National Traffic Incident Response Week, Kendro said its a good time to remind drivers that should they break down on the freeway, FSP is just a phone call away at 841-HELP or 841-4357.
11	20	1'23"	Bill Gates wants to bring a new kind of technology to Hawaii: The reinvented toilet	The futuristic models are self-contained, waterless, and use chemicals to transform waste into fertilizer, which Gates himself says doesn't smell or have any diseases.
12	5	1'37"	Maui County's ban leaves restaurants searching for alternatives	Restaurants are gearing up for Maui County's ban on polystyrene food and beverage containers that starts on December 31. Environmentalists are thrilled,

