20120918 – 3 Ultimate Issues Hour: The Search for Utopia

It always sounds noble and it always leads to terrible results. Communism is an example. Seek to make the world better, but don't seek to make it a utopia. A Best of Prager Hour. Originally broadcast on July 10, 2007.

20120919 – 1 Dennis Returns

After two days off for the Jewish New Year, Dennis dives back into the events of the day. The big one: Romney's 47% comments.... A Rhode Island school district bans father-daughter dances because it excludes those daughters with two mommies... What are the President's foreign policy successes?

20120919 – 2 Male/Female Hour: Divorce after 25 Years

Dennis wonders why a couple would get a divorce after a long marriage. Callers weigh in with their personal stories.

20120919 - 3 47%

Yes, Romney made a mistake when he focused on the 47% figure and, yes, he made a very valid point about the danger of becoming a European-style entitlement state. He needs to articulate that danger very clearly. If he does, he'll win. If not... Academy Award winning composer, Randy Newman, accuses America of being racist nation, teaming with racists who want to choose their President solely by race... The Left is very good at demonizing the Right.

Thursday, September 20, 2012 Radio Show

20120920 - 1 The New Leviathan

Dennis talks to David Horowitz, Founder of the David Horowitz Freedom Center. His new book is The New Leviathan: How the Left-Wing Money-Machine Shapes American Politics and Threatens America's Future. A Best of Prager Hour. Originally broadcast on July 16, 2012.

20120920 - 2 Base Jumping

A pregnant Swedish woman base jumped to her death last week when her parachute failed to open. That she went base jumping while four months pregnant is questionable to say the least. But the most telling part of this story is her pre-jump statement that she was bored by "real life." ... Why can you mock any religion, except Islam? "The Book of Mormon" won multiple Tony Awards. Seen any Mormon riots?

20120920 - 3 DSK

Dennis talks to investigative journalist, John Solomon. He's new book is DSK: The Scandal That Brought Down Dominique Strauss-Kahn... Dennis also talk to Peter Ferrara, columnist for Forbes, about QE3, the latest effort by the Fed to pump up the economy.

Friday, September 21, 2012 Radio Show

20120921 - 1 A European American

Mitt Romney's campaign is struggling. But there is a way out. He just has to articulate with clarity and passion that we are at risk of becoming Europe West. The values the President and the Left push for are not American values. They are European values... Did Chick Fil A cave to gay activists to get Chicago franchises. That's how it looks now... Obama's Muslim Mideast policy is in shambles. Can you imagine what the media would be saying about GW's foreign policy if these protests had happened during his term?

20120921 - 2 Happiness Hour: Drama Kings and Queens

It's very difficult to be happy living with a Drama King or Queen. It is also hard to be happy if you are one. Can the King or Queen change?

20120921 - 3 Open Lines

Per usual, callers set the agenda. Issues raised include: what would Dennis say if he meet Jesus in heaven; can you support a company whose largest shareholder supports causes you don't approve of; why don't Muslims appreciate America.

Monday, September 24, 2012 Radio Show

20120924 – 1 Early Voting

When did this early voting fad start? We have made it too easy to vote. But ask for an ID, as every country does in Europe, and you're advocating "Voter Suppression."... Our quick exit from Iraq has been devastating both to that country and to our interests there and the Middle East. Have we once again snatched defeat from the jaws of victory?

20120924 – 2 Bill Kristol

Dennis talks to Bill Kristol, editor of The Weekly Standard, about the state of the election... The President and Mitt Romney were on "60 Minutes" last night. The way each talked about Israel was very instructive.

20120924 – 3 Jimmy's Monologue

Dennis plays a clip from Jimmy Kimmel's Emmy monologue last night. At least he acknowledged that it's tough to be a Republican in Hollywood... What if we had a Republican President and suffered through this economy and these setbacks in the Middle East? What storylines would the press be pushing then?... Despite the tide of "bad news," Romney supporters have reason for cautious optimism.

Tuesday, September 25, 2012 Radio Show

20120925 – 1 Transforming America

The President famously promised to transform America five days before the last election. If he wins a second term, he may succeed. Romney and Ryan should hammer that theme. We don't want America transformed.

20120925 – 2 Making Sense of Ahmadinejad

It's very hard to do. Yesterday he denied Israel's history in the Middle East. Does he believe his own lies?... France bans the use of the words "mother" and "father" from official documents. Now that they have same sex marriage, the government consider the words politically incorrect... Dennis talks to Michael Leven, President of The Las Vegas Sands Corp. Business leaders are reluctant to speak out against the government. If they do, they risk investigations, sanctions and other forms of intimidation. This trend has grown much worse during the last three years.

20120925 – 2 Ultimate Issues Hour: Forgiveness and Yom Kippur

On the eve of the Yom Kippur, the holiest day of the Jewish Year, Dennis addresses a subject that is at the heart of the holiday – forgiveness. Callers weigh in.

Wednesday, September 26, 2012 Radio Show

20120926 – 1 Imperial Academia

Dennis talks to David Gelernter, professor of computer science at Yale University, contributing editor at The Weekly Standard and keen observer of American culture. His new book is America-Lite: How Imperial Academia Dismantled Our Culture (and Ushered In the Obamacrats). A Best of Prager Hour. Originally broadcast on July 9, 2012.

20120926 – 2 Male/Female Hour: Bedtime

Is it important for couples to go to bed at the same time? What do you do if you are morning person and your spouse is a night owl? A Best of Prager Hour. Originally broadcast on January 6, 2012.

20120926 – 3 Angrier at Relatives: Liberals or Conservatives?

At family get-togethers, who gets angrier – liberal relatives at conservative ones or conservative relatives at liberal ones? All callers said it was their liberal relatives who more likely to express anger. Dennis acknowledged that since most of his audience leans conservative, this was not a scientific poll. Nevertheless, it is his opinion that the liberal relative is more likely to express anger at the conservative relative rather than vice versa. A Best of Prager Hour. Originally broadcast on February 17, 2012.
