PRONUNCIATION

March 2023

Dear Andrew,

You can give the children something special!

Dear Warren Business Leader,

You are invited to sponsor the first event of its kind locally and what we hope to be an annual premier event in Warren County: The Children's Interactive Festival, May 6 in downtown Warren on Second Avenue. In addition to the festival, Kids Town Books will participate in National Free Comic Book Day. Over 1,000 comic books for all ages will be available free.

On that day there will be hands-on interactive events for all ages – lego building center, make a pine cone bird feeder, make slime, magic show and more. See the enclosure.

This will be a great opportunity for your business to be recognized at a unique children's event unlike anything offered anywhere else in our region: hands-on activities that span different age groups and different interest areas from general knowledge to citizenship questions. We will be advertising this event in the 10 rural counties that Northern Pennsylvania Regional College serves. This 10-county area has no children's bookstores. In addition, we are listed on the Remake Learning Days website.

The goals for this day are:

- To nurture the joy of reading by providing free comic books on a first come first serve basis,
- To foster a love of learning by providing children's interactive activities- a unique educational experience,
- To showcase what makes Warren special,
- To raise funds for Free Books to continue and expand its mission: children's literacy and education.

Make the bold decision today to support an event that will establish Warren as a special community for children. This will be a zero landfill event showing our children how to care for the planet by not creating unnecessary trash.

Best regards,

Ruby
