

KAYS Q1 Issues and Programming List

April 1 – June 30, 2021

Issue	Program	Description	Guest	Date	Time	Duration
COVID 19	Sunday Sessions	Some people are more reluctant to get the COVID vaccine	Condos	April 4	6:05	4:47
COVID 19	Sunday Sessions	The COVID-19 pandemic's impact in children	Wiles	April 18	6:05	4:10
Energy	Sunday Sessions	Some say Kansas doesn't have a plan	Grimmett	April 25	6:04	4:33
Health	Sunday Sessions	The popularity of telemedicine exploded during the pandemic	Llopis-Jepsen	May 2	6:05	4:55
Fire Safety	Sunday Sessions	Chief Hagans presents some summer fire safety tips	Hagans	May 9	6:04	11:15
Bike Safety	Sunday Sessions	Hays PD Bike Officer Dakota Reese talks bike safety	Reese	May 16	6:04	10:45
Food Safety	Sunday Sessions	Follow food safety guidelines to prevent foodborne illness	Blakeslee	May 23	6:05	5:25
Water	Sunday Sessions	The water stored in the Ogallala Aquifer is drying up	Condos	May 30	6:05	4:50
Earmarks	Sunday Sessions	Earmarks are back after nearly a decade	Censky	June 13	6:04	4:46
Summer School	Sunday Sessions	Schools across Kansas are offering summer programs	Perez	Jun 20	6:05	5:10
Fireworks Safety	Sunday Sessions	A look at July 4 th and summer safety tips	Hagans	June 27	6:04	15:00

Intellectual and developmental disabilities/DSNWK – A $16,000 grant from the Beach Family Foundation will help Developmental Services of Northwest Kansas support their efforts to “energize the brand of DSNWK.”

DSNWK/Fam-link – Fam-Link helps parents form better relationships with their children and boosts brain development in the children.

COVID - Ellis County ranks near the top of all Kansas counties in the number of COVID-19 vaccines given out, according to Health Services Director Jason Kennedy

Rural Airports - Airports across Kansas are getting new federal money to help them offset losses from a drop in travel during the pandemic

COVID - After the initial surge of rural Kansas residents getting vaccinated against COVID-19 state health officials say the numbers of leveling off

Arbor Day - The City of Hays and Fort Hays State University will celebrate Arbor Day 2021 tomorrow

Girl Scout honored – A Girl Scout from Hays recently earned an award for cataloging a cemetery near Bunker Hill

COVID - Some people are skipping their second COVID shot. Doctor Steve Stites says that's not a good idea

National Day of Prayer - Today marks the National Day of Prayer and the Ellis County Ministerial Alliance will once again host a local gathering

Future Educators Day - Fort Hays State recently hosted its second annual Future Educators Day in an effort to increase interest for students in the teaching profession

Literacy – The Hays Area Children's Center has purchased KODO Kids toys to donate to the Beach Early Childhood Area at the Hays Public Library

Education – Schools across Kansas are offering summer programs to help kids catch up after the pandemic

Retiree economy - Retirees are the top economic driver in the Hays, said Grow Hays Executive Director Doug Williams during a recent lecture

Mental Health - New data shows increased depression and thoughts of suicide among Kansas middle- and high-schoolers

Pandemic careers - The COVID-19 pandemic is causing more young people to explore careers in health care

Tornado Warnings – Meteorologist Mike Smith says modern storm forecasting system is truly a life-saver, but it's not perfect

Rural Telehealth - A new program will help overcome the challenges of delivering telehealth services to parts of rural Kansas

Mental health – FHSU's Kelly Center launched Tiger Thrive, a virtual mental health platform this spring

Intellectual and developmental disabilities/DSNWK - A recent grant award from the Heartland Community Foundation will help support Developmental Services of Northwest Kansas Custom Creations new downtown store

American Red Cross - On Monday, Eagle Radio staff and leaders from the American Red Cross and the Schmidt Foundation gathered together to celebrate the purchase of a new Blood Community Emergency Vehicle