

Arts

30 minute weekly program
Fridays at 8:30pm on KLRN

Asia Ciaravino, President of the Playhouse, is your local guide to art openings and music and theater performances from the San Antonio arts and culture scene as well as breathtaking art from around the country.

Program number: 231
Program length: 26:46
First air date/time: Oct 3, 2014 8:30pm

We meet up with art collector Aissatou Sidime-Blanton who recently exhibited "Her America" at the Carver Community Center. The exhibit explores our country and culture through the eyes of 20 female African-American artists from around the country, including nine women who have ties to Texas.

Deborah Martin from the Express-News joins us with what's new on stage in October.

Program number: 232
Program length: 26:46
First air date/time: Oct 10, 2014 8:30pm

The Wizard of Oz blows into San Antonio at The Playhouse. We go behind the scenes and meet a few of the cast and crew. The new Children's Museum, soon to be named the Do Seum is taking shape at its new location on Broadway. We will take you inside the new building and find out what we can expect when it opens next summer.

Program number: 233
Program length: 26:46
First air date/time: Oct 17, 2014 8:30pm

The Witte Museum recently announced their partnership with the Smithsonian. We'll find out what that means to the museum and to museum goers in San Antonio. Tami Kegley joins us with her picks of art events for the rest of October.

Program number: 234
Program length: 26:46
First air date/time: Oct 24, 2014 8:30pm

On this Halloween special of ARTS we'll go behind the doors of the 13th Floor Haunted. We'll find out what it takes to put on this spooky production each night.

Program number: 235
Program length: 26:46
First air date/time: Nov 7, 2014 8:30pm

It has been four years since the untimely passing of local Artist Chuck Ramirez. We'll reflect on the artist and his impact he made on San Antonio's art community and how his legacy continues; both locally and internationally.

Program number: 236
Program length: 26:46
First air date/time: Nov 14, 2014 8:30pm

Local Artist Ricky Armendariz's latest exhibit "In The Belly of the Beast" recently opened at the Ruiz-Healy Art Gallery. We will meet the artist and learn what inspired his latest works. The San Antonio Clay Festival 2014 opens next weekend. Find out what's new this year and what you can expect.

Program number: 237
Program length: 26:46
First air date/time: Nov 21, 2014 8:30pm

Local students learn about the creation and business of art through Blue Star Contemporary Art Museum's Mosaic Program. Cinnabar Gallery presents "Memory & Forgetting", a two part exhibition curated by Catherine Lee.

Program number: 238
Program length: 26:46
First air date/time: Dec 5, 2014 8:30pm

Blue Star Contemporary Art Museum's new exhibit Spatial Planes opens. We go behind the scenes as Executive Director Mary Heathcott guides us through the exhibit.

Program number: 239
Program length: 26:46
First air date/time: Dec 12, 2014 8:30pm

Local renowned Scenic Designer Steve Gilliam introduces us to the magical world of set design. We'll learn about the role of set design in theatrical productions and how it opens up the imagination of the viewers.

Program number: 240

Program length: 26:46

First air date/time: Dec 19, 2014 8:30pm

St. Mark's Episcopal Church is an architectural landmark, listed in the National Register of Historic Places. We'll look at the history and the art inside this 156 year old treasure.