| Technology | Commonwealth Club | 1/5/14 5:00am | :30 minutes | The Business of Innovation: Today and Tomorrow Padmasree Warrior, Chief Technology and Strategy Officer, Cisco Marina Gorbis, Executive Director, Institute for the Future – Moderator Today's innovation and success landscape is much different than just 10 years ago. Major technology trends are converging and shaping how we live, how we work, how we learn and how we play. In turn, there are business imperatives that result and Warrior says that only those who can encourage and ride this wave of ongoing innovation will thrive. |
| Health | Tuned In with Mike Johnson | 1/5/14 5:30am | :30 minutes | Autoimmune The Cause and the Cure is a revolutionary book that has brought together scientific research from around the world, showing autoimmune sufferers, not only the cause of their disease, but also a diet-based means for a cure. The symptoms of autoimmune disease can now be clearly explained and traced back to their origin. The evidence proves that these diseases share a common source, and that this source is not viral, bacterial, or genetic, but originates with a fundamental lack of nutrients that are essential to the functioning of your body. What began as a personal journey of pain and suffering for the author, has resulted in life-saving knowledge for autoimmune sufferers everywhere. |
| Economy | Commonwealth Club | 1/12/14 5:00am | :30 minutes | Chris Matthews Host, "Hardball with Chris Matthews," MSNBC; Author, Tip and Gipper: When Politics Worked Michael Moritz, Managing Member, Sequoia Capital – Moderator. An established Washington insider, Matthews spent six years as a top aide and chief-of-staff to legendary Speaker of the House Tip O'Neill (D-Mass). During that time he witnessed the inner workings of the highest levels of American politics, including the evolving relationship between two of the most powerful men in the country – O'Neill and then-President Ronald Reagan. Now Matthews focuses on the unlikely friendship between the pair, which endured philosophical differences and bipartisan |

| Political | Commonwealth Club | 2/9/14 5:00am | :30 minutes | Ron Paul: Liberty Defined Former U.S. Congressman The term "liberty" is so commonly used in our country that you might say it has become a mere cliché. But do we know what it means? What it promises? How it factors into our daily lives? And most important, can we recognize tyranny when it is sold to us disguised as a form of liberty? Paul posits that to believe in liberty is not to believe in any particular social and economic outcome. It is to trust in the spontaneous order that emerges when the state does not intervene in human volition and human cooperation. It permits people to work out their problems for themselves, build lives for themselves, take risks and accept responsibility for the results, and make their own decisions. In fact, Paul calls liberty the seed of America. |
