Radio Ad

- M: And this is Mark Hornbrook, coach of the Woodland Lady Dragons.
- S: The last time our teams face each other for the season has been designated as a Pink Zone game.
- M: Calais Community Hospital is sponsoring the Pink Zone Game to raise awareness about breast cancer screening.
- S: We are asking all fans to drop the team colors for just this one night and unite together by wearing pink to the game— and we even mean the men!
- M: Early detection and educating yourself about breast cancer can be two of the best possible “medicines” toward fighting the disease.
- S: Screening mammograms should begin at the age of 40. Remember, once is not enough – the key to mammography screening is that it be done routinely each year.
- M: Women in their 20’s and 30’s should have clinical breast exams at least every 3 years.
- S: Calais Community Hospital will have Breast Cancer screening information and promotional items available at the game.
- M: So, join us at the Pink Zone Game and show off your Pink Side! Pink Zone supporter, PCT Communications, will also be onsite with a special prize drawing as well.
- S: Wear something positively pink as we unite to raise awareness, remember those touched by breast cancer and celebrate the many survivors.
- M: On this night we may be opposing each other on the court, but we will be united in our message on the importance of breast cancer screening.

Announcer: This year's Pink Zone Game is on February 4 at Calais High School at 1:30 p.m. There will be chances for great prizes and fun events – come early to check it all out!
