The Ventura County Fairgrounds receives no tax dollars and therefore depends on event revenue and community donations.

The Ventura County Fairgrounds' proximity to the ocean is great for sweeping views and cool summer breezes, but the damp, salt air wreaks havoc on the meeting facilities and structures, many of which were built more than 75 years ago.

The mission of the Ventura County Fairgrounds Foundation is to provide financial support for improvements to the grounds, capital projects, equipment and programs in order that the Ventura County Fairgrounds continue to be an exemplary multi-use community resource.

Concerned community leaders have established the Ventura County Fair Foundation, a non-profit organization dedicated to raising and allocating the funds necessary to preserve and enhance the vitality of the Fairgrounds for generations to come.

This 501(c)3, non-profit organization is dedicated to preserving the Fairgrounds position as one of the most beloved and unique public facilities in all of Ventura County.

The City Center is Ventura's only transitional housing center that does not receive government funding. The City Center truly offers a hand up...not just a handout.... through extensive case management as well as mentoring programs provided for its residents.

The City Center was built upon the premise that together we can help end homelessness in Ventura. By your generous donations, mentoring provided by churches, and support by our community and local businesses, we will accomplish our vision. Your donations help provide skilled, professional case management as well as around the clock on-site management at our mid-town location.. Opportunities abound for local businesses to partner with us by providing building supplies, meals or monetary donations. More than 40 years ago, eight citizens performed a good deed by distributing food to those who were in need underneath a Ventura bridge. The early philanthropic movement quickly formed into what is now Ventura County's regional food bank, FOOD Share, which has grown from serving a few hundred hungry people per month to 74,500 people.

Today, staff and volunteers distribute more than 12 million pounds of food annually from its distribution site; more than 180 partner agencies, which include neighborhood and church food distributions and soup kitchens; as well as hunger assistance programs.

A 501(c)3 non-profit organization, FOOD Share is a member of the Feeding America network, the nation's largest hunger-relief organization. Was able to talk about their "Blue Jean" function to help raise money

Guests: Lisa Carey Director

This marks the 46th season for the Harvest Festival, a treasured fall tradition recognized as the largest and most prestigious indoor showcase on the west coast. Multi-talented artists & crafters will showcase their originals of stunning jewelry, clothing, specialty foods, photography, oils, hand-turned wood, ceramics, eclectic art pieces, seasonal décor, ornaments, and blown glass, among others. Patrons know with confidence that each of the works is made by hand and selected only after meeting criteria for excellence. Many of the artists can personalize items for that extra special holiday gift. The Festival collaborates with local non-profits to give back to the community. Patrons who bring non-perishables for donation to Food Share receive $2 off admission. Last year, close to 2,000 pounds were collected to help feed locals in need. The Ventura Boys & Girls Club hosts the parcel check, while Kidstream and Macaroni Kid serve up fun in the Kidzone.
