Outloud Orlando the Homo Happy Hour	10/5/2021	A transgender teen at Olympia High School in Orlando was voted Homecoming Queen. Two Maryland LGBTQ+ bills went into effect October 1st. In 10 days Lil Nas X has had $33,000 raised for local non-profit Bros In Convo.	The transgender Homecoming Queen happened locally and is a feel good and inspiring story for listeners of all kinds but especially anyone on the transgendered spectrum. The Maryland bills story helps give hope to Floridians but also lets people be aware of what is happening in other states regarding LGBTQ+ rights. Lil Nas X decided to give proceeds from each song on his latest album to different small non-profits. One song's proceeds go to local HIV non-profit, Bros in Convo.
Outloud Orlando the Homo Happy Hour	10/12/2021	Orange County's Pride happened this past week and we talk a lot about how it went. Dave Chappelle makes anti-trans jokes on new series The Closer. The show Barney Miller had a gay backstory.	Our local Pride was an event we were a part of and listeners can learn about what goes on at Pride. Dave Chappell made controversial jokes on the new show that listeners may not be aware of. Barney Miller was a popular show in the 70s and 80s and it having a gay backstory shed light on something listeners may not have known.
Outloud Orlando the Homo Happy Hour	10/19/2021	Netflix has it's first gay holiday rom-com, Single All The Way. The new Superman, Johnathan Kent, is gay. The Texas House passes bill to keep transgenders out of sports.	It is good news that Netflix has a gay holiday movie that starts in December. Listeners may want to see it. In the DCU Clark Kent's son is the new Superman. It is big news that he has come out as gay. Listeners may not realize the amount of anti-trans bills that are being passed in other states.
Outloud Orlando the Homo Happy Hour	10/26/2021	The 1st Annual Pride of Color happened this last week at Lake Eola and we recorded the show from there. Marvel Comics has it's first gay couple and kiss. We list 13 Royals that most would not know they were LGBTQ+.	It was an honor to be at the first Pride of Color and it gives the listeners knowledge on what it is, being a specific Pride for those less represented at regular Pride. For Marvel comics to have their first gay couple and kiss is good news of progression for the comic industry. It happened on The Eternals. It is always nice to hear a list of people you did not know were LGBTQ+.

Outloud Orlando the Homo Happy Hour	11/16/2021	At the Country Music Awards the Osborne Brothers won and TJ Osborne kissed his boyfriend before heading to the stage. TV, and movie star Kal Penn comes out as gay and releases a new book. On The Simpsons Waylon Smothers who came out as gay in 2016 gets a boyfriend.	It is very progressive for a country music star to not only be an out gay but also kiss his boyfriend at the award show. Everyone loves a coming out by an entertainment star. Even in animation having proper representation is crucial so not just having Smothers come out but have a boyfriend is a step in the right direction.
Everything Under The Sun	11/18/2021	In our first show back since COVID-- we covered a variety of subjects including the tragedy at Astro World, Cancel Culture as well as general introductions pertaining to our show and us individually. We also played more modern sections from our resident artist (and co-host), Meka. Overall, it was a great show back and we look forward to doing many more.	We discussed relevant source matter that resonates with the everyday student. I believe that our listeners feel a sense of relatability to our show/content which is important...because the world can be a lonely place sometimes. We also gave an update on Rollins MBB season start which can be great for student moral and comradery.
Outloud Orlando the Homo Happy Hour	11/23/2021	A Lafayette Louisiana library tries to censor "This Book Is Gay." Pro wrestling rookie Sazzy Boatwright comes out as gay. A North Carolina official says that straight people are superior to gay people.	Book censoring is starting to happen more often so we shed a light on ones like this that we see. There are not many out gays in wrestling so it is a great feat to come out as a professional wrestler. Sometimes it is important to talk about stories like the North Carolina Lt. Governor's statement to show that some people still have a bias against gays.
Outloud Orlando the Homo Happy Hour	11/30/2021	JoJo Siwa is a rising star recently coming out, starting her own dance competition show, being on Dancing With the Stars and much more. Gaydar versus Wishdar is a topic we talk about since some people wish another was gay. Legendary gay composer Stephen Sondheim dies this past week.	JoJo Siwa is very popular with younger kids but is now getting more known with young and older adults. There were rumors about Shawn Mendes being gay which started the topic of Gaydar (knowing someone is gay instinctively) versus Wishdar (wishing someone was gay). Stephen Sondheim's passing affects a lot of listeners.
Everything Under The Sun	12/2/2021	This Show was a Thanksgiving Recap. We discussed the most overrated Thanksgiving dish. "Happening Hypotheticals with Hutton" was a blast!	We like to think relatability is what brings in listeners! We talked about a couple of relevant issues such as ducks. We also discussed hypotheticals to test the morals and values of the great citizens within the Winter Park area.
Everything Under The Sun	12/9/2021	Today, we discussed the Omnicron variant and what could a potential forced vaccine mandate would look like. We also did the Happening Hypotheticals with Hutton segment... discussing some more moral issues. We also had two callers today!	Omicron variant (which we discussed) is extremely relevant to our society and likely being monitored by the Rollins community. Happening Hypotheticals always questions the moral aptitude of listeners. We also had 2 callers today and we shouted them out--engaging and keeping in tune with listeners. Which is good for the radio station overall.

Outloud Orlando the Homo Happy Hour	12/14/2021	An exhibition shows how being queer is natural. Jussie Smollett was found guilty of staging his attack. Cameron Bess who is non-binary, goes to Space with father and others.	It is always said by some that being gay or queer is unnatural. This exhibition breaks that by showing animals in nature (over 1800 species) that are queer. Jussie Smollett's alleged attack was something that gays were paying close attention to. He has been found guilty of staging that attack. It is interesting that Cameron Bess is non-binary and also openly takes part in the furry culture which would make him the first furry in space.
Outloud Orlando the Homo Happy Hour	12/21/2021	There is a list of 850 books a Texas lawmaker wants banned from schools, which the majority are LGBTQ+ books. RuPaul does not understand Spiderman because he (RuPaul) is gay. An obituary written by a son for his deceased mother goes viral.	We have discussed other states taking action with books being censored. This is in another state but follows the same path. RuPaul is someone that all kinds of listeners like to hear something about and this was quirky about him. The obituary the son wrote was hilariously direct and in good taste, which makes for entertainment.
Everything Under the Sun	12/23/2021	This episode was a bit more structured as we are more consistently followed our show guide. Our segments are pretty solid too. We also got an intro jingle... which is cool LoL.	Anytime we engage the listeners and have on air calls I believe we push a platform that allows people to feel heard. We discussed issues relevant to the community such as Omicron variant and the inherited genes from parents to kids. We also shouted out the Rollins Men's Basketball Team.
Outloud Orlando the Homo Happy Hour	12/28/2021	Conservative parents who push for book bans are causing the opposite effect; people are buying the books because of the censorship. Emmanuel Macron's wife may sue over false allegation that she was born a man. Desmond Tutu has a history of fighting for gay and lesbian rights.	We have been talking about the book bans for a while so it is refreshing to hear about a blowback happening. It is surprising that people make false allegations as was done to Ms. Macron but it makes a good story. Many do not realize the amount of fighting for gay and lesbian rights that Desmond Tutu did.
