How did you determine that this issue is important to the community? (Example: read in local paper/news, requested by listener, etc):

THESE SHOWS GET THE BEST AND MOST POSITIVE FEEDBACK! I love them and the listeners love them. They are positive to the community because of, for example, callers who say "this show is awesome", "keep up the great research", "I can't believe that this stuff exists", and so many other great comments. It is not only important to them, The "D" Show is important to all of humanity for the positivity we interject into the cosmos.

Quarterly Issues/Programs List

This is to document shows that benefit the community.

September 6th 2012

WPRK hosted a live broadcast of the Rollins Changemaker Campus Celebration. WPRK had a tent and interviewed many Rollins and local organizations that were also tenting at the event. These organizations included:

Ten Thousand Villages

Keep Winter Park Beautiful

BurgerFi

ASHOKA

Rollins Amnesty International

Rollins Microfinance Organization

Clean the World

East End Market and the Winter Park Harvest Festival

This broadcast lasted from noon to two with our host, DJ Whitney Costner. It was a very successful broadcast.

Name the issue discussed on air that benefits the community:

Symbolism, Israel and Terrorism

Brief Narrative Description:

I touched on symbolism in corporate logos and a hot topic with Israel and sponsored terror attacks such as the USS Liberty.

How did you determine that this issue is important to the community? (Example: read in local paper/news, requested by listener, etc):

This show got amazing responses because the issues here are never discussed at any third party news source. I received 5 calls from listeners in Winter Park telling me to keep broadcasting the "truth". I think this info is so important because it's not about ant-Semitism it is about exposing a link between a good people and a movement wrongly ruining the Jewish name, in that of Zionism.

Division, Batman shooting, Guns

Brief Narrative Description:

I described my views on the divisional nature of social engineering, the shooting in Colorado and what that means for gun owners.

How did you determine that this issue is important to the community? (Example: read in local paper/news, requested by listener, etc):

These topics are important because they are highly recommended by callers and because they give a greater overview of the world around us. That each and every thing is connected is vital to understand who we are as a people. Coming together is the best way we can survive in our community, in Orlando/Winter Park, and the rest of the world.

Name the issue discussed on air that benefits the community:

Guests: Robert – Veteran / Nick Cariot – Finance Expert / Richard Gage – CEO of A&E for 9/11 truth.

Brief Narrative Description:

I talked with Robert about war and his views as a veteran. I spoke with Nick about finances, housing, homelessness and I spoke with Richard about controlled demolitions.

How did you determine that this issue is important to the community? (Example: read in local paper/news, requested by listener, etc):

These topics are important to me, but to the community, because they request them, as usual. I do my best to be a producer on the show and I have gathered guests from around the country to tune in and give us their opinion of the world we live in. It is so important for young listeners to understand economics and money and even more important to understand what we spend our money on as a country, being war, as a big spender.
