

WPRK Issues and Programming Report – Q4 2019

Show Title	Date of Broadcast	Topics Discussed	Why this is important to the community.
Psychedelic Rock Hour	10/17/2019	We discussed a study that shows the likelihood of drug use to be more substantial in the summer months than in winter months. another study was talked about that was released by the DOJ this week showing that legalized marijuana had not caused an influx of illegal substance in adjoining states.	It is important to keep the community informed on studies that are brought out on drug use. Even studies that the DOJ wants swept under the rug deserve the light of day!
Sittin' Atop A Pile of Poop... And The View Is Spectacular!	10/17/2019	I interviewed Jerry Johnson who was in a car accident in his 30s. It changed his life. He was addicted to oxicotin and lost a year of memory of his life. He now is married to the love of his life and making better decisions and is contributing to the Orlando community.	I interviewed Jerry Johnson who was in a car accident in his 30s. It changed his life. He was addicted to oxicotin and lost a year of memory of his life. He now is married to the love of his life and making better decisions and is contributing to the Orlando community.
Theater Hour	10/21/2019	Brian Sikorski visited the show to talk about the Orlando Fringe. We also spoke about The Animatronics Double Feature. We discussed graphic design for arts organizations.	Brian Sikorski visited the show to talk about the Orlando Fringe. We also spoke about The Animatronics Double Feature. We discussed graphic design for arts organizations. We spoke about how the Orlando Fringe positively affects the Orlando community at large.

To a Certain Degree	10/21/2019	My guest today was host of the Full Frontal Nerdity podcast, Chantal Watts. We discussed podcasting in the central Florida area, her college experience, and growing up in Florida. We also got insight into her work as a producer at WFTV.	Finding out about who puts the news together is important at the local level. It was also a potential help for students to hear about her experience in the broadcast arena. The discussion regarding having a creative outlet while being a stay at home mom was relevant to a lot of audiences as well.
Outloud Orlando	10/22/2019	Topics: <ol style="list-style-type: none"> 1. trans tampons?? 2. Miley cyrus is stupid(you dont have to be gay if u find the right man) 3. Transphobic jokes more prevalent now 4. Gay teacher fired for being gay again 5. No shave November challenge 6. Nervous about getting a puppy 7. White fucking privilege yall 8. Damn we still have 19 Democrats running for president brooooooooo 9. Florida man story 10. Pete getting better but will being gay stop him 11. Tulsi gabbard growing in polls but is she a Republican in disguise? 	These issues affect the gay community and how straight folks view us.
All men Tell	10/23/2019	We discussed extreme ideologies. Why the alt right is bad. Why the far left is bad. Also what can be done to stop men from getting into them.	extreme ideologies are always bad for people. Men especially lonely men are susceptible to them. And we need to figure out how to prevent people from getting into them.

the psychedelic rock hour	10/23/2019	We discussed the Chicago resolution to decriminalize entheogenic plants and fungi for medical research and touched back on Oakland and Denver's decriminalization acts that recently passed. It was also discussed about the recent New Mexico plan that was put forward for what would happen when marijuana were to become legalized in the state. The legislation is up for vote in the state legislature in January. We also touched on Johns Hopkins opinions on the declassification of psilocybin from schedule I to schedule IV so that medical research can be done. After discussing these current events we shared how psilocybin actually effects the serotonin receptors in the brain.	It is important for the community to keep up to date with policy changes across the country. These changes may soon sweep the country, and those in the area should be aware of the implications. It is also good for people to know how drugs actually work. This may affect change towards stigma and help with harm reduction to drug users in the community.
Sittin' Atop A Pile of Poop... And The View Is Spectacular!	10/24/2019	We talked about sustainability in fashion. This is important because Mother Nature cannot environmentally sustain continuous abuse of overuse of our resources. Sustainability in fashion includes re-purposing, thrifting, and reselling of clothes. We also talked about buying organically, buying locally, and fair trade. My guest was Brandy Tezak, owner of Retrommended, a local vintage store.	We talked about sustainability in fashion. This is important because Mother Nature cannot environmentally sustain continuous abuse of overuse of our resources. Sustainability in fashion includes re-purposing, thrifting, and reselling of clothes. We also talked about buying organically, buying locally, and fair trade. My guest was Brandy Tezak, owner of Retrommended, a local vintage store.
State of the Scene	10/25/2019	talked to local musician about his new projects. and we has the owner of the new restaurant the new standard... three lines are hard.. hahahah will do better next time..	it is important to talk of all the local quality things happening in the fields of art, music, and the other disciplines of our Orlando culture.. Students have made really great connections with all the local do-ers from our show. more to come..

To a Certain Degree	10/28/2019	Emily Fontano from SAK Comedy Lab was on the show. We discussed comedy and improv in central Florida. We also talked about her experience going to high school in Orlando and working on film and tv production locally.	SAK offers interesting and valuable classes to actors and other people who want to get better at public speaking. We also discussed potential opportunities within the theater community for employment.
Outloud Orlando	10/29/2019	opics: 1. Lady drama 2. sitting alone at lunch 3. Will tulusi gabbard run on third party. 4. Std free clean? And how it's bad to say that 5. Washington nationals fans boo trump 6. Roxxy Andrew's money pageant drama 7. Halloween candy favs? 8. Halloween costume ideas for gays 9. Living with sex addiction 10. Dog days week 1	these issues impact the gay and straight community by showing the gay perspective on issues
All Men Tell	10/30/2019	We discussed men in sports. How Concussions affect people. Lastly, how steroids affect people.	Sports are a huge part of culture. Concussions are recently getting more attention in terms of mental health. finally, we talked about the dangers of steroid use

The Psychedelic Rock Hour	10/31/2019	We were tired this week and did not discuss too much. We expressed that this was our own opinions before talking about it: Halloween candy being laced with drugs. Talked about the history behind the myths from the American Institute of Economic Research. We made a few jokes and talked about our club a little. We also talked about how caffeine affects the brain and how it works.	it is important for the community to understand how any drug works on their body, and to realize that things that we use every day are drugs, like caffeine. It's also good to educate the community as to why people believe candy will be spiked every year.
Theater Hour	11/4/2019	Joe Llorens appeared on the show. We spoke about the improv community in Central Florida. We also spoke about the theatre community and how best to improve it.	Joe Llorens appeared on the show. We spoke about the improv community in Central Florida. We also spoke about the theatre community and how best to improve it through open collaboration and support.
To a Certain Degree	11/4/2019	Robin Hofmann was the guest on this episode. She hosts a few online talk shows, including Bake With Me. The goal of this show is "to assist the gluten free/celiac community while encouraging awareness, understanding and acceptance of all individuals."	Bringing awareness to this issue and providing an outlet for people with disabilities within the Orlando community provides an important message. In addition, she is a former social worker and discussed her role at the college level.
Outloud Orlando	11/5/2019	We will talk about politics, puppy care, trans for trump, local elections, local gay events, is dating causing my mental health issues?, etc	These topics help show the community about how gay men react to different topics.

The Psychedelic Rock Hour	11/7/2019	We talked about a research study that is ongoing involving a survey of people that have taken the drug DMT. We touched on a previous study done by Rick Strassman in the 90's in which he sat with people who were taking the drug and surveyed them afterwards. We then talked about this history of the drug in South American cultures dating back to the 800's.	It is important for the community to know what studies are coming out. This is specifically important in the new age of psychedelic research in order to destigmatize the medicines that can help treat depression and PTSD.
Sittin' ATop A Pile of Poop... And The View Is Spectacular!	11/7/2019	I interviewed Alicia Culp about communicating with heart. This means communicating with intention and using words that make a difference. We talked about responsibilities in communication.	Communicating with intention is important because it affects everyone's daily lives. There are so many platforms to communicate and we sometimes have to be sensitive and intentional about how we choose our words. Alicia also recommended being intentional in our listening style as well.
The Hero's Journey	11/8/2019	The show took a look at the history and modern relevancy of the Berlin wall. We had Gunther Heydemann, professor of history at the university of Leipzig, Germany, on the show to guide the discussion around the Berlin Wall, as well as his current work in looking at how to stop modern authoritarianism.	The community can derive many important lessons about the history of the Berlin wall both from a historical value and as something that still effect modern politics.
Theater Hour	11/11/2019	We discussed the upcoming production of A Christmas Carol at the Garden Theatre. We discussed the theatre community and involvement. We discussed how A Christmas Carol promotes redemption and community involvement.	We discussed the upcoming production of A Christmas Carol at the Garden Theatre. We discussed the theatre community and involvement.

			We discussed how A Christmas Carol promotes redemption and community involvement and how we can care for others, especially during the holiday season when families may be struggling.
Outloud Orlando	11/12/2019	Today's topics <ol style="list-style-type: none"> 1. Are we lucky that we cant have kids on accident? 2. Is serial dating an issue? 3. Nicole beyer podcast is life 4. Why I feel lucky I've never had a relationship 5. Do u wish you waited to find the one to have sex? 6. Are older virgins weird? 7. Best relationship advice you've ever received? 8. Gay teen beats up a homophobic bully 	These topics show how gay men react to various issues
All Men Tell	11/13/2019	WE played a round of men's mental health would you rather. We covered a bunch of different topics such as prison, eating disorders and power.	We discussed a number of different issues relevant to mental health. We discussed prison, eating disorders, jobs, ect. I believe it was a different approach to discussing difficult men's mental health topics.
The Psychedelic Rock Hour	11/14/2019	We briefly talked about vaping and how it relates to students on campus. We were recently interviewed by the Sanspur and talked about how that interview went and our opinions on it.	Its important for the rollins community to know what the rules are on campus and what the effects can be Sittin' Atop A Pile of Poop... And The View Is Spectacular!	11/14/2019	I spoke with Antonio Tovar and Faith Amons from the Florida Farmworkers Association. We addressed issues such as how climate control affects famers and pickers, legislative issues, and community gardening. They are supporting a bill about heat stress affecting workers in Florida legislation in 2020.	Farming and picking in Florida is an important issue because it affects the vegetables, fruits, and remedies that we consumer. Furthermore, we addressed issues that affect lives of workers such as climate change, access to health, and access to food. We addressed making changes through legislation as well and briefly discussed immigration issues.

Theater Hour	11/18/2019	We discussed playwriting in Orlando. We discussed the impact of new works on the community. We also discussed upcoming shows and projects from other groups around Orlando.	We discussed playwriting in Orlando. We discussed the impact of new works on the community. We also discussed upcoming shows and projects from other groups around Orlando.
Outloud Orlando	11/19/2019	Today's topics: 1. Attachment anxiety 2. Ladyberri new podcast title 3. Fake friends and how to know 4. Eating alone 5. Medication is stupid but necessary 6. How never being in a relationship makes u love loneliness 7. Why my therapist insists on me doing stand up 8. Disney plus 9. Baby yoda 10. Smudge the cat memes are life 11. Cold weather 12. Improv classes next year 13. Dating while chubby	these topics help show how gay men react to different topics

All Men Tell	11/20/2019	We discussed several psychological concepts. We discussed some of Freud's concepts and how they relate to mental health. We also discussed a few different theories of personality.	We tried to get the public to understand a few psychological concepts. I think it is important to understand your personality and how to behave in public. Also understanding some psychological concepts can help people navigate the world better
The Psychedelic Rock Hour	11/20/2019	We talked about the beatnik generation and their influence on early psychedelic rock. We also mentioned a couple of different band histories and a few different books as it pertained to classical psychedelic rock.	It is important to inform the community about mid-twentieth century American culture.
Outloud Orlando	11/26/2019	Topics: 1. How to know fake friends 2. Cool weather 3. Turkey or ham the great debate 4. Is it possible to love yourself more than someone else 5. Use me then lose me 6. Holding out for a sexy man 7. Unstable thought of the day(if I keep giving people things they will love me) 8. Dating app craziness 9. Tmobile and sprint merger? What?!?!?!? 10. Buddy Dyer wins reelection 11. Black friday protest bad for the employees or good	These topics are relevant to the gay and straight community by showing everyone how gay men react to different topics.
The Psychedelic Rock Hour	11/28/2019	We discussed the FDA allowing psilocybin research to be conducted with all types of depression. Otherwise, we were very tired and did not say much otherwise!	Important for people to stay updated! Happy Thanksgiving!
To a Certain Degree	12/2/2019	My guest, Jeremy Seghers, recently directed A Christmas Carol at the Garden Theatre in Winter Garden. We discussed the production of the show and the state of the theatre scene in Orlando.	The acting and theatre community is very strong in Orlando, and it's fun to talk about it on the air and share with the audience what is available out there.

The Psychedelic Rock Hour	12/4/2019	We discussed marijuana legislation that was recently brought out in New Zealand. We also talked about the fact that the five major big pharma companies in the UK are pushing for drug decriminalization. A study from Idaho showing recreational marijuana in WA and OR decreasing alcohol-related car accidents. A Canadian study showing medicinal marijuana to lower opioid usage in patients experiencing chronic pain	it is important for the community to know what other countries are doing with their drug policies and to keep up to date with new research in the field so that they can make a more educated decision.
Sittin' Atop A Pile of Poop... And The View Is Spectacular!	12/5/2019	I interviewed Don Price. He is a local Orlando historian/guru. He used to manage Greenwood Cemetery. We talked about the history of Orlando and where he thinks Orlando is now.	This topic is important to the community because we were exploring Orlando's past in juxtaposition to our future. Don told us about the history of Orlando and how learning about Orlando's stories can instill pride in our residents now. We also talked about his vision of Orlando for the future.
International Mix	12/5/2019	Talking about cultural differences between Mexico and U.S.A. We talked about the differences in the MBA programs and we learned more about Mexican Culture.	This helps the community by relating to the stories. This helps people to understand the importance of globalization and internationalization in school programs like MBAs. We learn a different perspective from a person from Mexico

Outloud Orlando	12/10/2019	Todays topics <ol style="list-style-type: none"> 1. Autism and copd 2. Articles of impeachment 3. Letting people go for yourself 4. Are we done with Mariah and her damn Christmas song? 5. Race and dating 6. Christmas plans 7. Cancel culture 8. Flu season and vaccinations 9. How self-care is subjective 	These topics affect our community.
The Hero's Journey	12/10/2019	The show looked at how to dispel some myths about planning your personal finances. The show had financial planner Courtney Wood and financial planner and author of the upcoming book "I've Never Made Anyone Rich" M. Scott Brown.	The show gave good advice in how to be responsible with your savings as well as how to find a financial advisor who works well with you. We had multiple people from the community call in afterwards to ask questions which were answered off air.
Outloud Orlando	12/17/2019	We Talk about issues affecting the gay community locally and worldwide. Topics like Hallmark reacting to calls for bans because of a gay kiss shown on a commercial and Netflix portraying Jesus Christ as gay are covered. We also speak about local happenings like the current Miss Gay Orlando pageant.	The local community crowned the 47th Miss Gay Orlando which is important news locally. Having gay culture depicted on television networks and the effects and ripples caused by it is also important. Boys in Taiwan getting to wear skirts to high school is something we wished we could have done in our high school.

The Psychedelic Rock Hour	12/19/2019	We talked about the legalization movements of marijuana in the country. This included the lawmakers passing a bill in NJ to allow marijuana to be voted upon in the upcoming yearly elections, and OK starting the process to allow marijuana to be voted upon. We also touched on the MLB allowing their players to smoke marijuana, and the fact that the NFL has a couple of owners speaking out positively about the movement.	This is important to the community because people should be informed about what laws are being enacted around the country, and what public figures are backing these laws. This can help remove the stigma around drugs, which will lead to a better and more helpful community
---------------------------	-------------------	--	---