RE: Children's Television Act of 1990
Compliance Information for 2nd Quarter 2006 as well as Calendar
Year for 2006

Dear Distributor:

This letter will serve as formal notice to you that A&E Network, The History Channel and History International do not telecast any "children's programming" as that term is defined by the FCC. In the event that any of these programming services telecast children's programming in the future, we will immediately notify you and provide you with any information necessary for compliance with your record keeping requirements under the Act.

If you have any questions, please contact me at the following:

CHILDREN'S PROGRAMMING - PERPETUAL CERTIFICATION

This is to certify that the _____ programming service (the "Service") does not currently contain any children's programming as defined under 47 CFR 76.225 of the rules and regulation of the Federal Communications Commission.

In the event that the Service includes any children's programming on its schedule after the date hereof, the Service will provide in writing, by the tenth day following the end of the calendar quarter in which such children's programming is added, a description of such programming specifying the dates and time of transmission and the duration of the "commercial matter" included therein.

I hereby declare under penalty of perjury that the foregoing is true and correct.
