

Cumulus Media Chief Operators Designation

It is herein posted that Joshua P. McDaniel is designated Chief Operator of WIVK-FM, Knoxville, WNML-AM, Knoxville, WNML-FM, Maryville, and WOKI-FM, Oliver Springs, herein referenced referred to as the Stations, as defined under 47-CNFR-73.1870. The designated Chief Operator is herein charged with maintaining the corresponding FCC License, and to maintain all technical operations of the Stations within the requirements of the Federal Communications Commission's Rules and Regulations. The Chief operator is empowered with the necessary authority in cooperation with the General Manager of the Stations, to carry out this charge.

During times when the Chief Operator is unavailable to perform the assigned duties, the designation of an interim Chief Operator will be made and posted on the Employee Bulletin Board. The designation is made on February 8, 2018, and supersedes any previous made designations.
