Don't Delay in Guiding Your Children	7/5/2012	9:25 AM	25:00	Family	When it comes to disciplining children, little things matter. Betsy Corning will show you how to effectively train your children in small things before big problems erupt.
A Shift in Our Culture	7/16/2012	6:30 PM	24:30	Culture	Who should stay home with the kids? Dennis Rainey takes a look at a new trend in our culture in which the wife becomes the sole breadwinner while her husband stays home with the kids. What effect does this arrangement have on the family, and where might this new train of thought lead us in the long run?
Things to Consider	7/17/2012	6:30 PM	24:30	Financial	If the wife makes more money than the husband, why shouldn't she make the living while her husband watches the kids? Dennis Rainey shares some points couples need to consider before they make the decision for the husband to become a stay-at-home dad.
Enhancing Your Marriage: Moving Closer to God, Drawing Closer to My Husband	7/18/2012	6:30 PM	24:30	Relationship	Bible study teacher, Judy Rossi, found herself asking "Is that all there is?" just a few years after marrying the man of her dreams. Hear how Judy came to Christ, and how her faith commitment changed her life and her marriage.
Dr. Meg's Food Advice	9/4/2012	6:30 PM	24:30	Health	Tired of your kids scrunching their noses at the family dinner table? Family pediatrician, Dr. Meg Meeker, gives some wise advice for getting your kids to eat.
More to Give	9/27/2012	6:30 PM	24:30	Social	What could you do to help the orphans, as commanded in Scripture? Mark Richt, head coach at the University of Georgia, and his wife, Katharyn, talk about the decision they made years ago to adopt two children from the Ukraine. Hear them share what this commitment, made over 10 years ago, has meant to them and their children.
