WEST TEXAS UPDATE

Date: July 5, 2015

Length: 29:30

Issue: Congressional update

U.S. Congressman Mike Conaway discussed trade agreement authority granted to President Obama, the status of nuclear negotiations with Iran, and reaction to Supreme Court decisions on Obamacare and same sex marriage. (20:00)

Issue: jail proposal

Deputy U.S. Marshal Jason Schwanger discusses a proposal to build a 300 bed jail in Ector County for eight million dollars. Ector County would be required to provide the staff to run the jail and guard the prisoners while the federal government would pay a per-prisoner fee. Ector County Judge Susan Redford says the commissioners will discuss the proposal, knowing they have difficulty staffing the county jail they already have. (9:00)

WEST TEXAS UPDATE

Date: July 26, 2015

Length: 27:30

Issue: Law enforcement

The Texas DPS announced the arrest of six men who individually solicited sex online with what they thought were 13 year old girls. The two day sting operation was conducted by multiple agencies. Agents put an "innocuous" ad on a social dating site, which attracted 40 responses in 20 minutes. The six suspects initiated dates for sexual encounters, and were arrested when they showed up at an appointed place.
(18:00)

Issue: Education

The Ector County Independent School District introduced new principals and athletic coaches at a news conference. The principals at the newly created UTPB Early College High School and New Tech High School talked about the challenges facing them. Superintendent Thomas Crowe discussed the attempts to fill 200 teaching vacancies and plans to deal with the possibility that construction might not be completed at two high schools by opening day.
