

2024 Q4 Issues List

Arts

Show Title: Film Thing

Duration: 1 hour

Date: November 2, 2023

Start Time: 7:00 P.M.

The hosts discussed a recent film: “Five Nights at Freddy’s,” a supernatural horror movie based on the video games of the same name and the “celebrity” cameos featured in the film. After discussing the film's content, they informed our listeners about local theaters hosting the release. They touched on the implications of the film being available for streaming on the same day as its theatrical release.

Healthcare

Show Title: The Athens Journal News

Duration: 30 minutes

Date: October 4, 2023

Start Time: 4:00 P.M.

The hosts discussed the Kaiser Permanente strike. They discussed the implications of the over 75,000 Kaiser Permanente workers going on strike. They informed our Athens listeners of the consequences and the availability of the local Kaiser Permanente office, as well as potential alternatives during the strike.

Local Issues

Show Title: The Athens Journal News

Duration: 30 minutes

Date: October 4, 2023

Start Time: 4:00 P.M.

The hosts discussed how The Georgia State Election Board rejected a proposal on Tuesday, October 3, that would have increased the number of voters using paper ballots in the 2024 election cycle. They also discussed how prevalent this issue is in an age where the privacy of ballots cast using current touchscreen computers has been questioned.

Show Title: The Athens Journal News

Duration: 30 Minutes

Date: November 2, 2023

Start Time: 12:00 P.M.

The hosts discussed the peaceful protest before the UGA arch on November 1. The protest was put on by student and faculty members of the United Campus Workers of Georgia, who united in order to protest for free parking for UGA workers and higher salaries for graduate students.

Show Title: The Athens Journal News

Duration: 30 minutes

Date: November 30, 2023

Start Time: 4:00 P.M.

The hosts discussed how former first lady Rosalynn Carter was laid to rest Wednesday, November 29, after her passing on November 19 in Plains, Georgia. Her funeral service was held at Barantha Baptist Church, where she and former President Jimmy Carter worshiped regularly.

National Issues

Show Title: The Athens Journal News

Duration: 30 minutes

Date: October 10, 2023

Start Time: 2:00 P.M.

Hosts discussed the ongoing conflict in Israel and Palestine. Furthermore, the hosts discussed how groups from both sides continue to engage in attacks, furthering the conflict with no end in the near future.

Show Title: The Athens Journal News

Duration: 30 minutes

Date: November 2, 2023

Start Time: 12:00 P.M.

The hosts discussed how an arrest was made in a case where a Cornell Student was found making violent threats on social media against Jewish students. They then discussed the ongoing prevalence of anti-semitism being portrayed on social media.

International Issues

Show Title: The Athens Journal News

Duration: 30 minutes

Date: October 4, 2023

Start Time: 4:00 P.M.

The hosts discussed the recent global assessment on amphibian health, which determined that the status of amphibians is “deteriorating rapidly” and is now considered the planet’s most threatened class of vertebrates. This served to inform our listeners of current ecological issues facing the planet.

Pop Culture

Show Title: The Athens Journal News

Duration: 30 minutes

Date: November 30, 2023

Start Time: 12:00 P.M.

The hosts discussed how the entertainment industry has been moving forward after the actor and writer strike ended. With the strike over, many casting offices and production companies are back and running for the new production year.

Sports

Show Title: Ball Today

Duration: 1 hour

Date: October 20, 2023

Start Time: 4:00 P.M.

The hosts discussed the future of UGA football’s defense after Brock Bowers faced a severe injury, taking him out of the game. Furthermore, the hosts made predictions about which defensive players will have to step up in Bowers’ absence.
