

2023 Q1 Issues List

Arts

Show Title: The Athens Journal News

Duration: 30 minutes

Date: April 19th, 2023

Start Time: 4:00 P.M.

The hosts reported on the new arena being built in Athens. The arena is said to seat 5,000+ people, and the hosts informed our listeners about the potential new levels of tourism and artistry that the arena will bring to Athens.

Show Title: The Athens Journal News

Duration: 30 minutes

Date: April 26th, 2023

Start Time: 4:00 P.M.

The hosts reported on the controversies surrounding the Taylor Swift Eras Tour. They informed our listeners about the congressional situation involving Ticketmaster and LiveNation, as well as about the upcoming show in Atlanta. They also discussed potential ways to travel and park at Mercedes-Benz stadium for listeners traveling to Atlanta for the show.

Healthcare

Show title: The Athens Journal News

Duration: 30 minutes

Date: April 12th, 2023

Start Time: 4:00 P.M.

The hosts discussed the laws many states are implementing to prohibit access to abortion healthcare, as well as federal laws limiting how law enforcement can collect information about people who travel out of state to receive such healthcare. This programming served to inform our listeners of current changes to healthcare laws in the wake of a major supreme court decision.

Local Issues

Show Title: The Athens Journal News

Duration: 30 minutes

Date: April 12th, 2023

Start Time: 4:00 P.M.

The hosts reported on multiple shootings in Metro Atlanta that occurred on Easter Sunday. The hosts informed our listeners about ways to stay safe during a shooting incident and discussed the implications of the Atlanta Shootings.

Show Title: The Athens Journal News

Duration: 30 minutes

Date: April 19th, 2023

Start Time: 4:00 P.M.

The hosts reported on the meeting held by Governor Brian Kemp in regards to human trafficking. They discussed the new laws that have been signed as preventative measures as well as ways to spot and report potentially trafficked people in public places such as airports.

International Issues

Show Title: The Athens Journal News

Duration: 30 minutes

Date: April 12th, 2023

Start Time: 4:00 P.M.

The hosts reported on the Controversy surrounding the Dalai Lama. They discussed the issue in detail and reported on the implications and possible consequences of the controversy. This served to inform our listeners about current national issues.

Show Title: The Athens Journal News

Duration: 30 minutes

Date: April 19th, 2023

Start Time: 4:00 P.M.

The hosts discussed the ceasefire in Sudan, a major development for the warring states. They spoke about the implications of the ceasefire as well as potential outcomes. The reporting served to inform our listeners about major events in geopolitics.

Sports

Show Title: The Athens Journal News

Duration: 30 minutes

Date: April 14th, 2023

Start Time: 4:00 P.M.

The hosts discussed UGA's G-Day, a scrimmage game played by members of the UGA Bulldogs. The reporting informed our listeners about both the game and content, but also about changes to traffic flow in anticipation of the event.

Show Title: The Athens Journal News

Duration: 30 minutes

Date: April 26th, 2023

Start Time: 4:00 P.M.

The hosts discussed the end of the UGA Softball and Baseball season, both of which had upcoming playoff and championship games. They talked about the potential outcomes of the games as well as where the games would be played / where our listeners would be able to acquire tickets.

Show Title: Ball Today

Duration: 30 minutes

Date: April 21st, 2023

Start Time: 4:00 P.M.

The hosts discussed the 2023 NFL draft, which involved former UGA bulldog Stetson Bennett. They discussed potential picks for Bennett, as well as the future of the NFL as a whole. The hosts educated our listeners about the process of the NFL draft in preparation for it.