PSAs

During the quarterly period, WRFC aired the following PSAs in the Economy Category:

SPONSORING ORGANIZATION	LENGTH	# OF TIMES AIRED
--------------------------------	---------------	-------------------------

Ga811- Echols	:30	25
---------------	-----	----

This is PSC commissioner Tim Echols reminding you to call eight-one-one before you dig. By calling eight-one-one you will save you and your neighbors the inconvenience of your power, gas, or internet service going out. Give yourself one week if you know you're going to be digging in and around your street and yard. Maybe you're adding onto your house or building a fence. No matter what, you, as the homeowner should make sure that the eight-one-one service is called and that the flags have been placed on your property. The fines can be in the thousands of dollars, and the inconvenience sometimes worse. Call eight-one-one.

Health Insurance	:30	11

SPONSORING ORGANIZATION LENGTH # OF TIMES AIRED

Digital ID :30 35

Did you know you can now add your Georgia digital driver’s license and ID to your Apple Wallet and Google Wallet? It’s easy to add to your device, and it’s a safe and secure way to confirm your identity. You can also receive notifications on your device when changes are made to your driving record. The Georgia Department of Driver Services is committed to cutting edge technology that streamlines our everyday lives. Learn more at DDS dot Georgia dot gov.

Crystal Ball :30 12

If a crystal ball showed a crash in your future, you’d buckle up before leaving your driveway, but no one knows what will happen when they get on the road. Around every corner are drivers that are speeding, distracted, or worse, and your best protection on the road is always a seatbelt. Many crashes would have different outcomes if drivers and passengers were wearing seatbelts. Make sure your future is buckled up. That’s why the Governor’s Office of Highway Safety says, “click it or ticket”.

Mortgage Assistance :30 18

For Georgia homeowners struggling with delinquent mortgage payments or certain household expenses due to a financial hardship caused by Covid-19, help may be available through the Georgia Department of Community Affairs Mortgage Assistance Program. Drive Sober :30 24

We give flowers, chocolates, and other gifts on Valentine’s Day to show others how much they mean to us. Georgia, though, has no love for those who choose to drive when they legally have had too much to drink. Fines, legal bills, and higher insurances premiums from a DUI conviction can cost as much as ten thousand dollars. Not to mention, a DUI conviction could cost someone their job or keep someone from being hired. Drinking and driving is not worth the risk. Make the smart choice and show everyone you care for them by passing the keys to a sober driver. This message brought to you by the Governor’s Office of Highway Safety.
